VERMONT HISTORY

Stamford is in southwestern Vermont, close to the Massachusetts and New York border. It is 9 miles Southeast of Bennington and 4 miles north of N. Adams, Mass. It was chartered by New Hampshire to Elisha Cook and fifty five other people in 1753. It was later chartered by N.H. under the name of New Stamford to Francis Barnard and sixty five other people in 72 shares. In 1783, the name was changed to Stamford. Settlement in Vermont began in 1760. Vermont was an Independent Republic from 1777 to 1791. Most settlers were of Anglo-Saxon stock from Mass. or Conn. The border area was in dispute as to which state owned it prior to the Revolutionary War. Town records call it New Stamford, part of Albany County, N.Y. in 1781 and 1784, (Ref: Stamford deed records).

The names Baker and Millard do not appear in original 1753 land grants at Stamford or the 1764 charter. The earliest town records were lost. Earliest existing records date from 1780 when Benjamin Tupper was a Selectman there.

Vermont received settlers generally until 1808, when a series of political events and natural disasters ended this movement. These events were: the Embargo of 1807 which crippled the economy, floods in 1811, the War of 1812, the Spotted Fever epidemic of 1813 which affected 6,000 people, and the "year there was no summer", 1816, which destroyed crops.

Matthew and Lydia (Millard) Baker were married Stamford Vermont residents during 1791-1822, Lydia was in Stamford from abt 1788 with her parents as she stated herself and it was so published. (Ref: Hemenway)

Many Vermonters moved to N.Y.S. The St. Lawrence Turnpike opened in 1812/13. Most of the cheap land in northern N.Y. was taken by 1820. In the 1820's, half of Vermont's 200,000 population moved to N.Y.S., settling near groups of other former Vermonters.

This was the time of the building of the Erie Canal. One wonders if this event attracted the Baker family to Onondaga County, New York. Matthew Baker Sr. was in his fifties at that time. His gret grandson, Rev. James M. Baker, in his book Contending The Grade In India wrote that James<sup>2</sup> Baker, popularly called Squire, son of Matthew Sr., owned one of the first lines of boats on the Erie Canal.

(I have not found proof of his ownership).

CAPTAIN MATTHEW BAKER AND LYDIA MILLARD

1. Matthew<sup>1</sup> Baker, our first proven ancestor was born circa 1768. He died September 7, 1844, Tn Camillus, Onondaga Co. NY. He was buried with his wife in Oswego Bitter Cem. Town of Camillus, having been moved from Robbin-Sherwood Cemetery there, which flooded every year. He was listed as Captain on his gravestone.

Matthew married about 1790 to Lydia Millard who was born 8 Feb. 1771, Rehoboth, Bristol Co. Ma. Lydia died July 30, 1866 at Camillus. She was the daughter of Squire Millard and Mary Wheeler.

Matthew's time of marriage is suggested by the census which was taken in 1791 when Vermont joined the Union. Matthew was listed in Stamford, Bennington County, Vermont, as head of household, without any children. His first known child, Matthew Jr. was born October 21, 1791, according to the town records in Stamford. (This birth found along with Stamford deeds in LDS film 28916, read in 1990). I estimate that his marriage was in 1790 or January 1791, probably in Stamford VT or in N. Adams, MA, which was four miles away. Many early Stamford records have been lost.

On the 1791 census, there were only 48 families in Stamford. Of interest: Squire Millard in house #4; Sergeant Baker in house #7 with 2 females; Matthew Baker in house #8, with 1 female; Benjamin Tupper #15; Elisha Raymond in #16; Josiah Raymond #25.

Because Stamford had such a small population, it seems likely that Sergeant Baker (b. ca 1746), was related, perhaps uncle or father of Matthew. However, I did not find any deed or other document connecting Sergeant Baker to Matthew Baker. Note that Sergeant's father's name was also Mathew Baker.

Squire Millard Sr. was the father of Lydia Baker. Benjamin Tupper had a dau. who married a Baker. Tupper and Sargeant Baker moved to Scipio, Cayuga Co. N.Y. Elisha Raymond was father of Abigail, who mar. Joseph, son of Matthew Baker Sr of Stamford.

Since Matthew Baker of Stamford was quite young in 1791 and not expected to have left tracks prior to that time, his next door neighbor (Thomas) Sargeant Baker was tracked in an attempt to find the ancestry of Matthew. See Section II of this book for narrative on Thomas Sargent Baker. Sargeant's father Matthew Baker of Attleborough (who died 1757), was perhaps grandfather of Matthew Baker of Stamford. IF so, Sally/Sarah Baylies, born 1707 in Warwickshire England, was Matthew's grandmother. Sally was daughter of Thomas Baylies and Esther Sargent who came to this country about 1737. Sally Baylies date of birth suggests that her husband Matthew Baker was probably born ca 1690's to 1709. I have not found parentage or birth for Matthew Baker who died 1757, leaving three minor children, two daughters and the above-named Thomas Sergeant Baker.

Lydia<sup>6</sup> Millard resided in Stamford in 1788, according to her own account as published in Hemenway's Gazetteer. Lydia was about 17 yrs old in 1788. Her parents were Squire<sup>5</sup> Millard Sr. (b. 11 May 1745, Rehoboth MA, d. 15 Sept 1828, Stamford Vt) and Mary Wheeler, (b. 5 Aug. 1752, Rehoboth MA, d. 5 June 1835, Stamford VT). Mary was daughter of Valentine and Sarah (Goff) Wheeler, who later divorced. One manuscript account attributed to Squire's grandson, stated that his grandfather Squire Millard migrated from Rehoboth to Stamford in 1784, but he did not know that Squire Millard Sr. was in Killingly Connecticut for about 4 yrs before he removed to Stamford and that some of his younger children were born there, (see Killingly V.R.).

Squire Millard Sr. purchased land in Stamford in March and Dec. of 1787. His land was bounded by the River (probably the Hoosic River) and the Massachusetts State line, as seen in Squire's estate papers.

The Hoosic River in N.Y.S., meanders a little across the southern Vermont line and then runs south into north western Massachusetts.

In 1788, Lydia was 17 yrs old and Matthew was about 20 yrs. If Matthew didn't then reside in Stamford, the nearest towns were Clarksburg, N. Adams/Adams and Williamstown MA; Pownal, Hartwellville, Bennington and Readsboro VT; Berlin N.Y. Clarksburg in Berkshire County is along the road to N. Adams which is four miles from Stamford. It is, of course, possible that they met in Killingly CT, where Lydia previously resided.

Lydia was third cousin to U.S. Pres. Millard Fillmore, through the line of his mother Phoebe Millard.

Matthew's marriage to Lydia is proven by the Will of Squire Millard Sr., written in 1809, naming his daughter Lydia, wife of Mathew Baker; also the many probate papers of his estate in February 1832/33 in Stamford VT. Both Lydia and Mathew Baker signed the agreement for a one seventh settlement, with the other heirs. Almost 20 years had elapsed between the 1809 will and Squire's death in 1828. The heirs stated that Squire had often said that he was not himself when he made that will. All of the heirs made an agreement together for a fair settlement of the estate. Matthew and Lydia Baker were required to sign certain papers during the time of probate and were listed in one of the papers as residing in Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y.

Some of Lydia's Millard relatives also lived for a time in Onondaga Co.

** ADD record of Squire Millard Sr.'s probate here.

Squire's will of 1809 left land bequests to his six children and to the two Millard grandsons of his son George, who had predeceased his father. The eldest son Stephen had borrowed money from his father and in the 1832/33 settlement, his share was reduced by the amount of those notes.

Squire's wife Mary was to have a life estate and Betsy Millard, the widow of his son George, were to have a life estate, while Betsy remained a widow, and didn't remarry.

In 1832/33, Lydia and Matthew Baker received land from the estate of Squire Millard Sr., based on an equal one seventh part. This land consisted of twenty nine and one half acres, valued at $345.73. Of this amount they had to give $57.14 back to Lydia's brother Squire Jr. as did all of the other heirs. Squire was to receive $400 more than the other heirs. The beginning of Lydia's land portion was bounded by the southwest corner of the 35 acres set out for her brother Squire, thence south nine degrees west twenty one rods six links to a stake andstones, thence south eighty two degrees west two hundred twenty six rods to the main road, thence north twenty four degrees t one rod, thence north two degrees east eighteen rods, Thence south forty two degrees west two hundred twenty two rods to the boundary began at.

Perhaps, brother Squire Jr. received a larger amount as per the agreement, because he had taken responsibility for his parents until Squire died, and was to care for his mother until her death. She died about two years after the estate settlement.

Hemenway's Historical Gazetteer, Vermont Vol. 1, p. 237, 238. First Settlers, Bennington County, Vermont: STAMFORD by Rev. A. W. Goodnow. Churches - Mrs. Lydia Baker, who came to Stamford in 1788, was present at the organization of the church, and gave the following account of the history of the church:

"When I came to Stamford, there were a number of Baptists in town and we occasionally had preaching by different ministers. When we had none, we met together and prayed and exhorted. In 1799, Rev. D. Starks preached at Mr. Stephen Clark's in Clarksburg, and Dr. Robinson invited him to preach in his house in Stamford. In March, he advised the brethren to form a church. They met about the 15th of April 1799, and called a council; Rev. Peter Worden of Cheshire, attended with several of his brethren. The church was organized and Rev. Mr. Worden preached from these words; "endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit; in the bond of peace." Rev. Mr. Starks was chosen pastor and a religious revival followed, so that he baptized from 2 to 13 each month through the ensuing summer and autumn. After Mr. Starks left us, we had no stated preacher for some time, but were supplied by ministers from different places. Reverend's Mattison, Withrill, Leland, Robinson, Dwyer, Bennett, and others occasionally served this church. In 1810, Rev. Paul Himes was ordained pastor of the church."

Note that Lydia wrote that she came to Stamford in 1788. Her youngest sister Thankful wrote in a letter that her father moved to Stamford in 1786. She also said that she knew little about her father's family and directed the recipient, who was seeking Millard family data, to write to her sister Lydia Baker in Camillus. Thankful's birth is recorded in Stamford town records as 1787, but doesn't say where she was born. One might assume that she was the only child of Squire Millards born in Stamford, since her nearest siblings were all born in Killingly CT. This would make Squire's move to Stamford ca 1787, and Squire did indeed purchase property in Stamford, in the spring and in Dec. of 1787.

CENSUS RECORDS:

- 1790/1791 Matthew appeared in Stamford VT, with a female, no children listed. Next door to Sergeant Baker, near his father-in-law Squire Miller.
- 1800 Matthew Baker was listed in Stamford VT, 26-45 with female 26-45, 4 males and 1 female under 10. Female ch. was prob. Maria who d. 1813, age 18. It would appear that the other female children were b. after 1800 census.
- 1810 Stamford, VT, Matthew Baker with wife, 3 females under 10, 1 female, 10-16, 2 males 10-16, 1 male, 16-26. Matt. Jr. already marr. by this census. Cyrus Lee, nearby, marr. Thankful Millard, sister of Lydia Millard Baker. Valentine Wheeler Jr. nearby, Uncle of Lydia.

- 1850 and 1855, widow Lydia Baker resided with son James in Camillus.
- 1860 wd Lydia Baker resided with son James in Camillus.

VERMONT:

1806: Matthew Baker was listed as Captain in Stamford town records. Perhaps it was a rank in militia, however his name does not appear in the Stamford Military Co. in 1808.

1808: Matthew Baker was on a committee that went to nearby North Adams, Ma to assist in the founding of a Baptist Church there, along with Jacob and George Sampson, all from Stamford. (Betsy and Calvin Sampson married siblings of Lydia Millard). In 1968, 162 yrs later, a member of the N. Adams Church was to serve Stamford. The above was mentioned in a modern sermon by a new pastor in Stamford.

The above info. was also listed in Records of First Baptist Church, N. Adams, which listed that Matthew Baker and others met Oct. 30, 1808 to organize the first Bapt. Church of Adams. The article listed the frame of the church as erected in 1782, but not finished til 1794. It was called, "North Society of Adams" before 1808. N. Adams was once part of Adams.

1810: Stamford had a Baker Road.

1812 WAR: by this time Matthew was 44 yrs of age. His name was absent from town records between Spring of 1813 to April 1814 when a sum of money was paid to him, and from then until Spring 1815.

Matthew Baker served as a soldier in the War of 1812, according to a letter written from a clerk at Syracuse Historical Society about 1987.

The record of the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia in the War of 1812 lists one Matthew Baker, a private, who enlisted in the vicinity of Hancock MA, with service at Boston. Matthew was in Captain N. Smith's Company, Lieutenant Colonel S.K. Chamberlin's Regiment, from Sept. 10, to Oct. 30, 1814. Men who enlisted at Adams MA were under the same command at the same period of time. George S. and Miles C. Baker, relationship if any unknown, enlisted at Adams MA 1814, Capt. Howland's Co., Lt. Col. S.K. Chamberlin's Reg't.

The Matthew Baker listed as a private was probably Matthew Jr. or Matthew Sr. of Stamford, VT. Matthew Jr. was born about 1791, making him about 23 years of age at this time. Matthew Jr's son Lorenus was born in Adams Ma in 1811 and his child Mary Butler Baker was born in Stamford in 1815, a few miles away.

(An unrelated Matthew Baker, b. 1770, was killed during the War of 1812-1814 at Lundy's Lane, Ontario, Canada. He resided and enlisted at Manlius, Onondaga Co. N.Y. That Matthew came from a Stockbridge MA and Middle Hero VT family, descending from Thomas Baker of Raynham/Taunton, ref: Descendant Alice Hove).

Matthew Baker's name appears in Stamford in the following years: (LDS films, 0506446, TOWN RECORDS Stamford, Vt 865407 Misc. Stamford, Vt Records, 1798-1812, v.1.).

1803 - 1804, March 10, Petit Juryman.

1804, March/April, Surveyor of Highways.

1805-1822, Matthew Baker appeared in each year on the Grand List.

1805, Valentine Wheeler Jr., Uncle of Lydia Millard Baker appeared on the Grand List.

1806, Feb. Captain Matthew Baker on a Committee.

1806, Aug., Matthew Baker voted for Congressman.

1807, Capt. Matthew Baker.

1810, Matthew Baker on Freeman List.

1810, Matthew Baker voted for Governor and Lt. Governor.

1811, March 11 or May 13, Matthew Baker's cattle, sheep and swine had ear crops as follows; a square crop of the right ear and a ha'penny on the underside of the same ear. This was written by James Millard, Town Clerk in 1811, (FHC Reel 28920). (James was bro. of wf of Matt Baker).

1811, Matthew Baker voted Aug. 19.

1812, March 9, Matthew Baker was a Second Selectman, a paid position.

1812, August 13, Freemen meeting, Matthew Baker, a Selectman, voted on stone, powder, lead and flint.

1812, Matthew Baker had five scholars over the age of four and under age 18, in the South School District.

1812, Nov. 13, Matthew Baker voted for Congressman.

1813, March 5, Matthew Baker was a Selectman.

1815, March, Matthew Baker was a Fence Viewer, Highway surveyor, S.W. District.

1815, Matthew Baker was a Fence viewer, highway surveyor, was on committee to adjust ?auts. against the town, (dispensing dollars of the town) southwest district.

1816, Matthew Baker was a Petit Juryman for Box.

1816, June, meeting. 1816, Capt. Matthew Baker.

1817, March, Matthew Baker was on a committee.

1822, Sept., sons Matthew Baker Jr. and James M. Baker are mentioned.

1823, Grand List. Only Matthew Baker Jr. appears.

Beginning this year, Matthew is not called Jr. or Sr.

As we know that Matthew Sr. was in Camillus by 1822, this would be Matthew Jr.

Matthew Baker Jr. appears first in 1815 (age 23/24) and was in Stamford as late as 1826. His name does not appear after that date, which may be when he moved to Licking Co. Ohio.

The office of Selectman had quite a bit of power in a town.

Note that after 1816, Matthew Baker seems to be less active in town affairs and sold property to his two eldest sons Matthew Jr. and James. His son Joseph became 21 in 1818 and moved to Madison Co. N.Y. Matthew Sr. was about 50 years old at that time and perhaps had a handicap of some kind.

1816 was also the famous year that had no summer. Many crops failed.

also LDS Reel 28917, V.6, 1809-1816 lists.

Sealed and delivered in presence of Gideon Farthingham, John Fork.

12 June 1823 Onondaga Co. N.Y. Mathew Baker known to be the same person described and who executed the within indenture appeared before Gideon Frothingham, a Commissioner.

Recorded 2 Aug. 1823 by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk, (Stamford, VT).

1832/33, Lydia and Matthew Baker received land from the settlement of the estate of Lydia's father Squire Millard Sr. When was this land sold?

The Bakers resided in Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y. at that time.

NEW YORK, Onondaga Co.

A loose handwritten sheet of paper found in the vertical file at the Syracuse Library stated that Matthew Baker was in Camillus in 1816. If so, the Grand List at Stamford during the years 1816-1822 would have to mean Matthew Jr. I question the 1816 date.

I did not find any Onondaga Co. land transactions for Matthew Baker. The 1911 obituary of his grda. Mary Carolyn Baker Parker (born 1820) stated that she lived in a log cabin when she moved from VT to Camillus as a small child. It is unknown whether Matthew and son James lived in the same household at this time. James' log cabin later became the Merriman farm.

1822, Matthew Baker joined the Elbridge N. Y. Baptist Church by letter from Stamford, Vermont. Matthew Baker was dismissed by letter from the Elbridge Baptist Church on October 18, 1840, four years prior to his death. The Baptist Society was organized in 1816. Lemuel Crossman was Trustee. He was the father of Asa who married Sarah, daughter of Matthew (Ch. Rec., V. 1813-1846, p. 9, 17 at Syr. Lib., LN48/EL12/Cb). In 1822, Elbridge was part of Camillus.

No will for Matthew Baker has been found. Lydia was 95 years old at the time of her death. She outlived her son James M. by three months, and her daughter-in-law Mary Larkin Baker by eight years. Lydia resided the last years of her life with her son James Millard Baker, at Camillus, (1850, 1860 census). They were both buried on a hill in the now inactive Oswego Bitter Cemetery in the Township of Camillus. No road leads into the cemetery, the original road having been relocated. Captain Matthew Baker's gravestone is upright, died age 76, but Lydia's stone is lying flat, having fallen at some time in the past. This is an abandoned cemetery. It is mowed twice yearly. There is a bed of myrtle and berry bushes growing around the graves. There is a large tree nearby. The County road has been changed and the grade of the road from it's original way. Facing the cemetery, the Baker plot is on the left about 3/4 of the way to the back of the cemetery, on a hill near a fence which marks the boundary of the next farm. Both gravestones have epitaphs:

Matthew

My Lord hath called and I obeyed
To meet and with him dwell
The last great debt I now have paid
And bid the world farewell.

Lydia

Mourn not for me my dearest friend
Since life with one (did ever)? end
In Jesus (arms? ..... rest)?
with his dear Sa (vior ever)? blest.

I visited this graveyard in August of 1989. Buried to the left of Matthew is Loring Richmond July 25, 1859, 77 yrs, 6 mo, 6 days; his wife Lydia died April 8, 1829 in the 47th yr of her life; Sally, second wife of Loring Richmond, died Nov. 5, 1854, 61 yrs, 9 mo, 2 days; a small stone L. R. Admiral Nelson Rogers is to the far left near the fence which seems to be part of the Richmond plot. Also, Lucy P. Bates, wife of Wilson Bates, died Sept 29, 1841, 24 yrs, 1 mo, 12 d., (Note: Lucy was d/o James Baker, grda. of Matthew Baker. The Richmond family moved to Camillus from Stamford VT also).

Also buried near Matthew Baker was Solomon Paddock, died 1845; Mary, wife of David E. Larkin, died Oct. 5, 1840, age 30?; Nancy, wife of James Spalding; Jerome Whitney, died Oct. 19, 1870, 24 yrs, 1 mo, 12 d. (Note: Mary, nee Betts, was wife of David E. Larkin, s/o this author's ancestor Amos Larkin. Betts was sister-in-law of Mary (Larkin) Baker, (seond wife of James Baker).

On the right of Matthew and Lydia's stone is a stone which says Our Grandfather, a good sized stone. Between Matthew and Lydia is a stone with initials M.H.M.B. (or M.H.M.R.).

On part of the hill is the gravestone of Hannah Bates, died Dec. 2, 1864, 87 yrs, 6 months, mother of Wilson Bates who married Lucy Baker, daughter of James Millard Baker and grand daughter of Matthew Baker.

In all, near Matthew are 15-20 graves in 2 rows.

On the other part of the hill, not close to the Baker family, is Electa, wf of Sylvester Richmond, May 11, 1840, 38 yrs, 2 mo, 10 days. Also, Marcus Parker (1829-1909) and wife Lydia Cole, grand daughter of Matthew Baker Sr).

Folklore claims that the cemetery is haunted by The Will O' The Wisp, a light which bobbed around and appeared like the light of a lantern when carried by a person walking. One night the light passed between two men who were seated and traveling in a wagon pulled by a horse. This frightened one of the men so much that he fell off the wagon.

On another occasion, a man fell asleep in his wagon, knowing that his horse knew the way home. He awakened suddenly, to find that the horse was standing at the cemetery gate. The horse was braced and before him was a ball of light, causing the horse to refuse to proceed. The man backed up to a lane and the horse raced the rest of the way home. After that, porch parties were held in the area, with the participants waiting to get a glimpse of the ghost.

It was later decided by a man with scientific knowledge that the light was a phosphorous body which followed a vein of gas.

The 1880 History of Macon Co. Illinois lists a biography for Rufus Crossman, grandson of Lydia (Millard) Baker. The biography lists Rufus' mother Sarah Baker as a native of Vermont and that his father Asa was born in Elbridge, Onondaga Co. N.Y. The article includes the following: Rufus' maternal grandmother who died at age 99 had great intelligence and force of character. She resided in new England during the Rev. War and heard the first gun that started that struggle. When Rufus was a child this maternal grandmother told him many incidents of olden times. (This refers to Lydia (Millard) Baker).

JAMES MILLARD BAKER AND MARY PARKER AND MARY LARKIN

3. James<sup>2</sup> Millard Baker, Esquire, son of Matthew and Lydia (Millard) Baker, is calculated to have been born 1794/1795 in Vermont, probably at Stamford, Bennington Co. Matthew was listed there in the first census in 1791. James died April 14, 1866, age 71, in Township of Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y. at 71 yrs, obituary in Syracuse Standard newspaper. Both wives, each named Mary, were first buried with James in Robbin Sherwood Cemetery, in the Town of Camillus, which flooded each Spring, then moved to Maplewood Cemetery in Village of Camillus. (A typed cemetery listing of Robbin Sherwood Cemetery lists all three reinterred to Maplewood Cemetery, listing dates and ages, copy at Syracuse N.Y. main library. Note that R.S. Cem. lists James death as April 4th, an error). In Maplewood Cem, James' Baker's two wives gravestones read Mary P. and Mary L.

James was admitted as a Freeman in Stamford, Bennington Co. Vermont, the first Tuesday of Sept. 1816, which was likely when he became 21 years old. His birthday may have been in August. He first appeared on Stamford's Grand List in 1815.

Obituary:

Syracuse Standard, April 16, died in the Town of Camillus, April 14, 1866, James M. Baker Esquire, aged 71 yrs. Funeral at his late residence, Monday (today) at 10 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend. Copy at Onondaga Historical Soc'y, Syracuse.

A clerk hand copied information in August 1987 at Onondaga Historical Association, 311 Montgomery St. Syracuse, N.Y., regarding James M. Baker as follows:

1830 census 3, 1840 census, p. 8, 1845, 1:19, 1855, p.7.

Bruce I - p. 670, produce dealer in Camillus, p. 673; property owner in Camillus in I:25. (This refers to book Onondaga Centennial by Bruce) Died in the Town of Camillus April 14, 1866, James M. Baker, Esq., aged 71 years.

He and 2 wives named Mary buried in Robbin Sherwood, son of Capt. Matthew Baker, 1812 Soldier, buried Oswego Bitter Cem., not in City Directories.

d. Camillus 4/14/66, Std 4/16/66. (This last date refers to date the obituary was published in Syracuse Standard Newspaper.

James Baker married first by 1814, age 19 or 20, probably in Vermont, (calc. by 1815 birth of dau. Maria). James' first wife was Mary/Polly Parker according to death certificate of their daughter Julia. Mary/Polly was born circa 1796 and died December 24, 1831, age 35, date taken from Maplewood Cemetery typed list at Syracuse Library. (Typed R.S. cem. listed Mary's death Dec. 12). Mary Parker was born in Vermont according to census record of her daughter Mary Carolyn Baker. See obituary of Mary Carolyn (Baker) Parker, later in this book.

Mary Parker was probably closely related to Luther Parker of Stamford, Vermont and Camillus, see Stamford VT in year 1816, below, where Luther Parker permits James Baker to use 100 acres of his land. This was shortly after Baker married.

Luther Parker was Petit Juror in 1819 in Stamford VT. He was taxed on Grand List there from 1814-1827 at least. Luther had to be born by 1798 or prior, being over 21 to appear on Grand List. It is unknown if Luther was related to Charles Parker who was in Stamford as early as 1801 and resided there until at least 1829.

Luther Parker owned property in De Witt, Onon. Co. N.Y. in 1838, adjacent to five acres of land that James and Mary Baker owned there. Baker sold this land to Josiah Parker of Addison Co. VT. This suggests that Luther was the same man from Stamford VT. It also suggests that Luther and Josiah Parker were related to each other.

Mary Parker was probably related to Josiah Parker. A photo of a painting of Josiah was owned by James M. Baker's son, Charles A. Baker, who died ca 1909, of which author J. Humphrey has a copy.

Mary Parker was perhaps related to Isaac G. Parker who married her daughter Mary Carolyn Baker. Carolyn and Isaac resided as newlyweds in Addison Co. VT.

Mary Parker was perhaps related to Joseph Parker of Addison Co. Vermont.

James<sup>2</sup> Baker married second between 1832-1834 to Mary/Polly Larkin<sup>6</sup>, very close to the time that James' daughter Maria married Polly Larkin's brother John Larkin. Mary Larkin was born ca 1799 N.Y.S. according to 1850 census; born ca 1797 at Saratoga Co. N.Y. according to 1855 census and gravestone. Mary (Larkin) Baker died 2 Nov. 1858 at 61 yrs, buried Camillus, N.Y., for birth ca 1797, (gravestone I read and photographed at Maplewood Cem.). Mary was daughter of Amos Larkin<sup>5</sup> of Ballston, Saratoga Co. N.Y., who was born 1761, died 1827, (Ref: gravestone of Amos; Anson J. Larkin's Family History). Mary's brother Albion Joshua Larkin was born 25 Oct. 1799, which makes Mary's birth ca 1797 more accurate from 1855 census.

Mary's mother was probably Mercy Jolls, second wife of Amos Larkin, who was the widow of David Easterbrook. (Mercy married Easterbrook 2 Sept. 1792 who died Oct. 1793 at sea, leaving a will written 24 Sept., wife Marcy being sole heir. Easterbrook's Will was probated at Warren R.I. 3 Feb. 1794, (research of Elizabeth Larkin). Mercy was born 11 Sept. 1770, the daughter of John Jolls and Mary Cole of Bristol R.I. (Arnold's V.R).

Mercy married Amos Larkin sometime between 1794, after the death of Easterbrook and 7 November 1801 when Amos and Mercy Larkin of Ballston N.Y. sold property in Warren Rhode Island to John Jolls Jr. of Warren, R.I. Bk 5, p. 115, (research of Elizabeth Larkin). Mercy Larkin was alive in 1830 census in Saratoga Co. Her grave has not been found, although there is room for her to have been buried with Amos in Saratoga Co. N.Y. Amos' gravestone (1761-1827) was intact in 2002 in Burnt Hills Baptist Church Cem. in Ballston, Saratoga Co. N.Y. (Read by Robert White).

Note that Mary/Polly (Larkin) Baker seemed to be closest to the last born children of Amos Larkin, ie: Albion born in 1799, David E. b. ca 1800 and John b ca 1803, William b. ca 1806, and Henry, all of whom lived at one time in Onondaga Co.

In 1840 Albion Joshua Larkin, s/o Amos and Mercy Jolls Larkin, resided in Camillus and had an elderly woman 60-70 yrs old in hh, (born ca 1770/1780). His father-in-law was still alive and not in his Larkin hh, so his mother-in-law was probably not living with Larkin, either. His wife's grandmother was still alive in 1840 and could have been the elderly lady in hh, or his mother Mercy (Jolls) Larkin could have been the elderly lady. Another lady of the age of his sister Rebecca was also in hh. (~~reck all this~~).

Amos Locking (sic), <sup>prob Larkin</sup> married 1 April 1790 to Mary Munro at Ballston Center Presbyterian Church, in what is now Saratoga Co. N.Y. She was perhaps d/o Nathan<sup>4</sup> Munro and Catherine Bragg of Bristol Rhode Island. If so, she was born 13 June 1766. There is no known record of any children by Mary Munro or the date of her death. Amos Jr. born ca 1791 was probably son of Munro. (reck sp. of her name at marr and at RI).

The Anson J. Larkin family history mentioned only the Jolls wife of Amos Larkin. See separate page, below).

Mary (Larkin) Baker had brothers:

John born ca 1803, who became Mary's step-son when he married by early 1834 to James M. Baker's daughter Mariah.

Albion J. Larkin born 1799, also resided in Onondaga Co. David E. Larkin born ca 1800 married Mary Betts, who was buried 1840 in Oswego Bitter Cem. in Town of Camillus, where Matthew Baker, father of James M. Baker was buried.

Both of James M. Baker wives were named Mary and both were called Polly.

This four-sided tall squared steeple type gravestone was read and photographed by J. Humphrey, author of this manuscript. One side reads James M. Baker died April 14 1866, age 71; another side reads Mary L. wife of Jas M. Baker died November 2, 1858, age 61 years. (6, 1794)

I do not have a photo of Mary P.'s side of the gravestone. (reck my notes when I was at the cem).

There are also small separate stones for each which read J.M. Baker, M.P. Baker, M. L. Baker.

Mary, wife of James M. Baker died Dec. 12, 1831, age 35, as listed on typed sheet in Robbin Sherwood Cem., but I think Maplewood cem. reads died Dec. 24. This tall gravestone is believed to have been arranged for erection by Isaac G. Parker, James M. Baker's son-in-law.

I visited Maplewood Cemetery in Aug. 1989. It is a well kept cemetery. Stones near James M. Baker are son-in-law Isaac G. Parker; George; father and mother stones; Knox. (Did I omit a name Knox)? George S. Parker, Gettysburg, 1863, 18 yrs, grand-son. Also found were Mary and Myron, small stones which seem to be on Baker plot (small B stone marking plot). Julia A. Cook, daughter of James M. Baker, Oct. 29, 1825-Oct. 18, 1894. Julia's husband NOT buried with her.

1816, Sept., 1st Tuesday, Stamford, VT.
James Baker was admitted a Freeman. I would assume that he was 21 years of age by or prior to August 1816. His name was on the Grand list in Stamford from 1815-1822. He was on a town committee in 1814, a Petit Juror for the box in 1817 and a Highway Surveyor and a Hayward in 1818. A Hayward was responsible for the shrubbery of the town. In 1819, he was a Petit Juror, Overseer Of The Poor and on a committee to settle with the town. In 1822, he was Fence Viewer and Tythingman although he apparently wished to be excused from the latter duty. Note that his name first appears when he was about 19 yrs old, and probably newly married.

1820 census, James Baker appeared in Stamford VT Grand List.

Deeds index for Stamford, VT, 1777-1850 lists James M. Baker as Grantee from his father in book 7, p. 13 and Grantor in the same book. His land transactions end in book 8.

1816, April 13, Vol. 7, p. 21, Stamford, Bennington Co. VT, Indenture between Matthew Baker of one part and James M. Baker of the other part, both of Stamford, Matthew deeded to James the north half of Grant 23 in the second division of land in Stamford. Both agree for commoding each other in the pasture ground that is on the north and the south half of Lot

23, to occupy and improve as tenants in common for the term of twenty years and no longer. Both signed in the presence of Otis Phillips and Isaac Robinson. Acknowledged same day, recorded 16 Dec. 1816 by Otis Phillips, Justice of Peace.

1816, 21 Dec. Bk 7, p. 22 Stamford VT. Luther Parker of Stamford, Bennington Co. VT sold the use of 100 acres of land for $50 to James M. Baker of Stamford, the use of the whole of Lot 17 with appurtenances bounded: north on the first division Lots #1, bound? No 2 south by #18, east by lots 22 and 21, west by lot 13, and use of 2 good cows and calves and they (inkblot) in the spring for 3 to 4 yrs. Baker to have use of land for 5 yrs from May next. Witn. James Millerd, Stephen C. Millerd. Ackn. 21 Dec 1816 before James Millerd, J.P. Recorded 22 Dec. 1816 by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk.

1822, 14 March, Bk 7, p. 260, 261, Stamford, Bennington Co. VT. John McElwain of Stamford sold land in fee simple, for $600, to James M. Baker of Stamford, the north half of Grant 23, of second division of land. Also one other piece of land bounded: beginning north side of the nursery on west side of road, then westerly 12 rods, then northerly to south line of said lot, to be parallel line of said lot, then easterly to the road, then southerly on the road to the beginning. Also one quarter of the Matthew Baker Jr. pitch of Lot 18, to be taken off north side of said lot, the whole totalling 75 acres. Also, one equal half of barn standing on the other half of the Grant, together with the privileges of half the yard and half the fruit in the orchard standing on the south half of Grant 23. Land is free of all encumbrances, nevertheless if John McElwain shall pay or cause to be paid two certain notes of hand bearing even date with these presents and our note signed by Calvin Sampson 27 Aug. 1821 for $64, payable in 3 yrs with interest; one of said notes bearing date with these presents is given for $33.74, payable in one yr with interest, the other for the sum of $100 payable in 3 yrs from Nov. next with interest annually, then this deed as also the said notes are void, otherwise in full force and virtue.

Witn. Daniel Hubbard, Peter J. Day. Ackn. 4 June 1822 before Otis Phillips, J. P. Recorded 4 June 1822 by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk.

1822, 14 March, Bk 7, p. 281, Stamford VT, James M. Baker, of Stamford, sold for $800 in fee simple, free of all encumbrances, to John McElwain of Stamford, North half of Grant 23 in 2nd division of land. Also one other piece of land adjoining the above, bounded beginning at the north side of the nursery on the west side of the road, thence westerly about 12 rods, thence northerly to the south line of said north half to be a parallel line with the north line of said lot, thence easterly to the road, thence southerly on said road to the beginning; also one quarter of the Mathew Baker Jr Pitch, marked on the plan of Stamford No.18 to be taken off the north side of said lot parallel with the north side line of said lot estimated in the whole as 75 acres - also one equal half of the barn standing on the other half of said Grant together with the privilege of 1/2 of the barn yard and the privilege passing and repassing with hay ___ to and from the same - also half of the fruit of the orchard on the other half of the grant with the privilege of gathering the same when necessary to or equally divided.

All boundaries described seem to be the same land as in above transaction with same witnesses. Ackn. and recorded 4 June 1822, same as above land.

Baker may have been holding the mortgage, based on the two deeds on the same day. Baker moving this year to Onondaga Co. N.Y.

1822, 15 July, V. 7, p. 326, James M. Baker, of Stamford, Bennington Co. Vermont, sold in fee simple, one acre of land for $300 to Garry Sanford of Stamford one undivided half of a parcel of Stamford land being the same whereon I now (inkblot), with half the buildings thereon standing, being a square, bounded: north and east by land of James Millerd, south by land of Isaac Robinson Jr, west by the main road leading from Adams, the turnpike in Readsborough with privileges and appurtenances. Subject to maintain the fence on the north and east sides as under obligation to James Millerd. Witn. James Millerd, John McElwain.

1822, 15 July, V. 7, p. 327. Garry Sanford of Stamford sold for $375 to James M. Baker of Stamford - the very same land deeded the same day from James Baker as described above, provided however that Garry Sanford shall pay James M. Baker $373.50 and interest according to the tenor of five several notes payable - one for $48.50 in nails next January at Troy, another for $100 in one year from next 15 Oct. in nails at Troy, another for $50 in 2 years from 15 Oct., another for $87.50 in 3 years from 15 Oct., another for $87.50 in 4 years from 15 October, then this deed to be void together with said notes otherwise in force. Ackn. before John McElwain, J. P. Recorded 26 May 1823.

James M. Baker apparently moved, late in 1822, to the Town of Camillus in Onondaga Co. N.Y. His father Matthew joined the Elbridge Baptist church there in 1822.

James M. Baker moved to Camillus from Vermont when his daughter Mary Carolyn was a small child. She was born in December 1820 in Vermont. James first resided in a log cabin in the Town of Camillus on land which in later years became the Merriman farm. James cleared away the forest on land he owned (on the Bennett's Corners Rd in the town of Camillus), where he raised his children. (obit. of dau. Mary Carolyn in Skaneateles Free Press, Jan. 13, 1911).

According to Rev. James M.<sup>4</sup> Baker, grandson and namesake, James M.<sup>2</sup> Baker was called Squire. James<sup>2</sup> owned one of the first lines of boats on the Erie Canal. At one point in time he lost $40,000 on a shipment of grain, which was a big fortune in those days. He shipped wheat and pork from Camillus to New York. (Contending The Grade In India by Rev. James M. Baker. p. -

The Onondaga Centennial, by Dwight Hall Bruce, p.673, lists James M. Baker with 128 acres on Lot 76 and lot 77. We know this is our James M. Baker because his will mentioned Lot 76. On page 680, James Baker of Camillus was mentioned as a prominent produce dealer.

The building plans for The Erie Canal was postponed by the War of 1812. James<sup>2</sup> Baker was 17-19 years during this war. Early in 1821, there was massive hiring for canal workers to build "Clinton's Ditch". The Canal was opened in 1825. Good pay was offered of twelve dollars a month and found.

1822, James Baker purchased Lot 76 from N.A. Hess in Camillus.
1822, Loring Richmond from Stamford VT purch. 150 acres land from Dennis Hess. In 1857 when Loring made his will Eugenia Downer rented on his land in Lot 76. Eugenia with the will of James M. Baker in 1866. James M. Baker was Executor of the Estate of Loring Richmond, will 1857, probated 1859, Onon. Co.

It would appear that Matthew and James Baker and Loring Richmond moved from Stamford VT to Town of Camillus together in 1822. It is unclear if Eugenia Downer was related to either of them.

1824 James Baker bought Lot 77 from heirs of N. Wells, Camillus.

1824, 14 May, Book HH, p. 330, James M. Baker and wife Polly Baker of Town of Camillus, sold land in lot 77, 25 acres, brook to swamp, in the town of Camillus to Lorin Richmond for $300. aka Mary (1855 census, Loran Richmond Sr. born CT, age 73, Loran Jr. b. VT age 31. They had been in Camillus for 30/31 yrs. See separate part of this book for the Richmond family connection. Could the Richmond family have been with the Millard family in CT for several years)?

1825, James<sup>2</sup> Baker, on assessment roll in Camillus<sup>1</sup> as owning 128 acres land in Lot 76 and 77 and listed on a deed. Value of Real Estate $1000. Tax was $4.17. Quality listed as 1,3.

John Larkin, the Collector of this tax, may have been the same John Larkin b. ca 1803 in Saratoga Co. N.Y., brother of Mary Larkin who later married James M. Baker as his second wife. John born ca 1803 later married Maria, daughter of James M. Baker. IF John b. ca 1803 was the tax collector in 1825, he moved to Onondaga Co. before his father Amos died in 1827 and must have been there awhile in order to have become a tax collector. John's mother Mercy (Jolls) Larkin was still in Saratoga Co. in 1830 census.

1827. James M. Baker built a frame house at the present day address of 5908 Bennett's Corners Road in the Town of Camillus. In 1989 it was a white, well-kept frame house on a hill with a large lawn. The original wing is 2 story with an entrance door in the center, leading to a sitting room which has a fireplace. The parlor is to the left as one enters the house. A single story wing built on to the left side of the house, (right side as one faces it), is used for a sunny dining room today. The dining room has many windows. The kitchen is behind the sitting room and the added wing. A downstairs bedroom and bath was added by Mr. Peterson. An inside stairway to the second floor is a replacement. There are several bedrooms upstairs and a very large walk-in-closet.

"There were grand old trees on the property at 5908 Bennett's Corners Rd. and a big maple up by the house. By 1908, these trees had been taken down. James' daughter Mary Carolyn Baker could remember when they were planted." (Ref: L. Knox letter).

The former home farm of James Baker on the Bennett's Corners Rd has two creeks. One is located in the backyard down a hill and the other a quarter mile across a field in one of the wood lots. The present owners call the property "Twin Brooks". I visited this home in 1988, and was graciously received by Helen and Neil Kennedy who well knew the history of the house. Helen (nee Peterson) has resided there since childhood. Coincidentally, one of Helen's direct ancestors, Mary, widow of Christopher Thompson, m2, one of my direct ancestors, William McCracken Sr. Also, her grandfather Everett Jacobson was employed by my second great grand-father Ira Hinsdale, in nearby Amboy.

The modern address of the old James m. Baker home is 5908 Bennett's Corners Rd., Camillus NY 13031.

A feather bed tick from the home of James Baker, in possession of Lorenda Knox in 1924, was offered as a gift to the Peterson family who lived in the Baker house. Some of the feathers from the ticks had been used for pillows through the years, (Knox Letter).

(carpets orig. hand-made)

Rev. James<sup>4</sup> M. Baker described his namesake grandfather James<sup>2</sup> a.k.a. Squire Baker, as "a very portly old gentleman, shrewd and kindly, living in the David Harum neighborhood. Generally, he was financially successful in his endeavors." (Contending The Grade in India). On the 1850 and 1860 census, James was listed as a farmer. He also had a chair factory in back of the lovely house that he built on Bennett's Corner's Road, according to Mary Maxwell, author of Amongst The Hills of Camillus. Helen Kennedy, whose Peterson parents purchased the house in 1902, confirms the placement of the chair factory in a barn in back of the house, on a stream. By the time of the 1855 N.Y. State census, son Jerome C. Baker operated the chair factory. That road, called "The Street", is located in the "Oswego Bitter" vicinity and "The Bitters". It was once a lively community with many industries. (Ref: Maxwell).

The sons of James M.<sup>2</sup> Baker all started housekeeping in this house. Later, his daughter, Mary C. ("Carolyn", Mrs. Isaac Parker), occupied the house until she was elderly, (Ref: Lorenda (Parker) Knox letters).

Charles Peterson purchased the Baker house in 1902, and it has been in his family to the present day, (2002). I guess one could say that the house "bears acquaintance", to quote Lorenda Knox (1908), daughter of Mary C. (Baker) Parker. A large water wheel was powered by a pond on the property, to assist in the making of the chairs, just as the grist mills that ground wheat into flour were powered, (Ref: Maxwell or Knox).

1830 census, Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y., p. 202.

James M. Baker, one male under 5 yrs, one male 10-14 yrs, one male 30-39 yrs, one male 60-69 yrs, one female under 5 yrs, two females 5-9 yrs, one fem. 10-14 yrs, one female 15-19 yrs, one female 30-39 yrs, one female 60-69 yrs.

The elderly couple in household were apparently his parents. All the children are accounted for in age groups except one male 10-14 yrs, of unknown relationship. He was of such a tender age that he may have been related. He does not seem to be a son, based on the birth dates of the other children of James.

Brother-in-law James Cole lived two houses away, with Lydia Rockwell residing between them, who had one female 40-50 and one female 70-80 and one male 15-19 yrs in household. Was Rockwell related? Loring Richmond resided nearby. Jephtha and Elijah Baker residing near Sylvester Richmond and Calvin Baker on page 210.

(Lydia Rockwell was born ca 1785, died 30 July 1877, 92 yrs, husb. Joseph B. born ca 1779, died 24 March 1830, 51 yrs, both bur. Onon. Co.).

1830, May 29, Polly Baker joined Elbridge Baptist Church by L(etter?). This sentence follows: died in ?1832. The question mark appears in the church record. Polly is a nickname for Mary.

Maria Baker was Bpt. 29 May 1830, dism. by L(etter), no date. These seem to be two different Baker ladies. The first Polly may refer to the first wife of James M. Baker who died at the end of 1831. The second Maria may refer to their daughter who was fifteen years old at that time, and probably would join the church by Baptism.

1838, Oct. 10, Book 71, Onondaga Co. N.Y. James M. and Mary Baker sold five acres of land on Lot 63 for $508 to Josiah Parker of New Haven, Addison Co. Vt. The property was in the town of DeWitt, formerly Manlius, Tully. The land bordered Timothy Graham, Luther Parker's house to Silas Burk's lot, to Graham's corners.

(Mary, in this deed, was Mary Larkin, the second wife of James Baker, his first wife Mary Parker was deceased).

x Josiah and Luther Parker must have been related to James Baker's first wife Mary Parker. Luther born ca 1794 in MA, was alive in Camillus in 1850. He was a laborer, with wife Elsie born MA, of the same age, and a daughter Julia Ann, born ca. 1829 in N.Y.).

1840 census, Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y. p.400.

Julia), two females 15-20 yrs fits daughters Orinda and Mary Carolyn), one female 40-50 yrs prob. his wife.

3 males were employed in agriculture. All ages are accounted for except the two males 20-30 yrs having an unknown relationship to the family. One of these unknown males was apparently with the family in 1830.

(Dau. Lucy was probably married by 1840, since she had a son born in 1841. Daughter Maria married in 1834 and was not in 1842, 25 October, Book 85, pp.54-55, Onondaga Co. N.Y. Indenture: James M. Baker and wife Mary and Wilson Bates of Camillus sold 50 acres for $1650, lot 10, in Van Buren to James Cole of Camillus, bounded: east by highway leading from the Oederkirk settlement to Iona, South by land formerly owned by John Myers, west by land heretofore sold to James Talmadge and north by land formerly in possession of James Plato and one third of where heretofore sold to Edward Ballinger. One other piece of land, (2nd) 12 acres in Van Buren on Lot 10, bounded: south by Nathan Williams land, west by John Malby, north by James Hodge, east by 1st described land above. Also another piece of land, (3rd) 8 acres in Van Buren, Lot 11, bounded: north by Belding Ressigie, east by James Williams, south by Denison and Asher Marvin, west by lands of the 1st described 50 acres, all totalling 70 acres. (James Baker and James Cole were brothers-in-law, Cole having married Tryphenia, sister of James Baker. Wilson Bates was son-in-law of James M. Baker, having married his dau. Lucy who died 1841. Belding Ressigie was related to Mary Larkin, 2nd wf of James M. Baker). (Was Nathan Williams of the family who married one of the Cole daughters)?

1843, 11 February, Book 85, p.49, Onondaga Co. N.Y. Alexander A. Thompson and wife Jane of Van Buren, Onondaga Co. sold 50 acres to James M. Baker of Camillus, for $1000, land in original township of Camillus, now in Van Buren. Beginning southeast corner bounded north by line of said lot, west by land heretofore sold to James and Nathan Williams, north by land formerly owned by John Polhemus and now owned by James Cole, east by the line of (inkblot) lot ? north being the same lot Thompson now lives on and occupied last season. Ackn. before Charles H. Toll, J.P. Recorded 11 January 1844 by Charles T. Hicks, Clerk.

1843, 21 Oct. Book 85, p. 58, Onondaga Co. N.Y. Gardner Lawrence, Master of Chancery, dwelling in Syracuse, sold 260 acres land, excepting 66 acres heretofore sold to William Guppy and Abraham Van Auken, for $2701, to James M. Baker of the Town of Camillus, highest bidder. This land was ordered sold at public auction by Albany N.Y. Court on 30 Aug 1843, because of a certain cause between Complainant Daniel T. Mosely and Defender Eli Coon and his wife Margaret.

This land was situated in Skaneateles, and was part of Lot 21 in the original township of Marcellus. The boundaries were described: including land originally conveyed by Daniel Van Auken and wife to Joshua Bates. Sealed and delivered 27 Oct 1843 before Gardner Lawrence. Daniel Pratt, First Judge.

James M. Baker and his wife Mary of Camillus N.Y., sold land, <sup>266 acres</sup> on Lot 21 in Skaneateles for $2701 to Daniel Van Auking of Elbridge, <sup>excepting 66 acres</sup> This land was originally in the Township of Marcellus and was the same as in the above deed. Eli Coon, of Skaneateles, appeared before Richard P. Watson, Justice of Peace, to vouch that he knew that Mary Baker was the wife of James M. Baker.

Recorded 15 January 1844 by Charles T. Hicks, Clerk.

(Coon was possibly related to Mary (Larkin) Baker, wife of James).

1843, 31 January, Book 86, pp. 335-336. Onondaga Co. N.Y. Indenture between James M. Baker and wife Mary, of Camillus, who sold 86 acres of Lot 63, for $3640, to John Morley of Manlius, which land was bounded north by Sylvester Richmond, west by James Auye, south by land formerly owned by Luther Case, east by the center of a road beginning from Sam Gilley's Mill to Felix Benton's Cloth Factory. This land was the same as previously deeded by Henry Ferow to John D. Norton and by him deeded to James M. Baker. Sealed and delivered in presence of H.F. Mather on 3 Feb. 1843. Ackn. before Henry Ferow, J. P. Recorded 2 Oct. 1844 by Chas. T. Hicks, Clerk.

1845 N.Y. State Census, Camillus, Onondaga Co. James Baker household had one death the previous year. (This would be the death of his father Matthew in 1844). Onon. Co. Hist. Soc'y lists James M. Baker in 1845 census I:19.

Do I have this 1845 census? Try to get it!

1847, April 1, Book 92, p. 382, Onondaga Co. N.Y. James M. Baker and his wife Mary of Camillus, sold 51 acres land on Lot 88 for $2041 to Charles Campbell. The property bordered Henry Weed's land to John E. Sanders and Isaac W. Sanders land, on the road leading to Marcellus. To lands deeded this day to James Wood, by Baker and wife to Harry Wood's land. (Note that one Wood/Baylies families had early connection in MA).

1847, April 1, James M. and Mary Baker sold 19 acres, part of Lot 88, for $750 to James Wood.

(I think this bordered from land of Benjamin Bucklin and wife Elizabeth).

1847, April 1, Benjamin Bucklin and his wife Elizabeth sold to James M. Baker, Town of Camillus, Lot 88 for $2831, bordering Harry Weed's land to John E. and Isaac Sanders, land located on the road leading to Marcellus. Mortgage to James Wood, Recorded June 7, 1847.

1847, April 1, p. 412, Book 92, Charles and Helen Campbell sold 100 acres of land of Lot 63, in the town of Camillus, for $4000 to James M. Baker. This land bordered Ethan Campbell. Mortgage Charles Campbell and Helen C. to William C. Van Vechten and Reed, Adm. of William M. Canfield, deceased, $967.

According to Helen Kennedy<sup>2007</sup> who owns the old James Baker house and was born in Camillus area; Brick House #3 in the book Among the Hills of Camillus, p. 20, was the one nearest to James Baker's frame house on Bennett's Corners Rd. It was across the street, 3rd house on right going toward Rt 5. It burned to the ground several years prior to 1993. It was owned by William Davis in the 1930's, whose grandson Bob Fletcher bought the property after the fire.

1857, 4 March, Vol. L, p. 38. James M. Baker, a friend, was Executor of the Will of Loring Richmond of Van Buren, formerly of Camillus, when he made his will. Will probated 4 Nov. 1859. Charles A. Baker, of Camillus, and Hannah M. Cole witnessed the will. (Charles was s/o James, Hannah was d/o James and Tryphenia (Baker) Cole. Hannah lived with James M. Baker).

Loring had purchased Lot 76 in Camillus in 1822, from Dennis Hess. (James Baker had purchased the same year, same Lot from Henry Hess. Looks like Loring and James moved together from Stamford, Bennington Co. VT). Among Loring's children, were Adaline Cole and Loring Jr., who moved to Wisconsin. Loring mentioned the house where Eugene (Eugenia) Downer lived #76, Camillus.

Which Cole did Adaline Loring marry? Could she have married James M. Cole, s/o Tryphenia (Baker) Cole?

Note that in 1880 one Loren Richmond 28 yrs, b. N.Y. and both par. b. NY, resided next to a grand daughter of James M. Baker, ie: Mary C. and husband E. Duane Sherwood. Mr. A. Richmond, 71 yrs b. N.Y. and both par. b. N.Y. was the next census listing.

Will of James M. Baker written 1 Dec. 1857, was probated 30 April 1866 Onondaga Co. N.Y. Son Jerome C. Baker, co-executor, made a petition to prove the will. Surrogate Judge DeWitt C. Greenfield. (Bk N, pp 290-293).

Mary (Larkin) Baker, second wife of James, was incapable of managing anything, causing James<sup>2</sup> to put a clause in his will disinheriting Henry and Charles A. Baker, IF his wife Mary L. should, by evil counsel or bad advice, claim one third of his property. This is proof that they were sons by the second wife Mary Larkin. Jerome C., son by wife one, and Charles A., son by wife two, were co-executors of his will. The third co-executor was son-in-law, Isaac G. Parker.

Note that son Henry J. Baker was older than son Charles and was not named as a co-executor, even though his brother-in-law was named as a co-executor. This might indicate that Henry was not in good favor with his father or not considered as responsible a person... maybe because Henry resided out of state.

Bequests to wife Mary were use of the furniture, and her support as long as her natural life. Support from property, also his mother (Lydia), support out of property as long as she lives. Within less than a year of the writing of this will, second wife Mary Larkin died. Odd that wife Mary would not have been automatically entitled to one third of his property.

Bequests to his sons were;

1. Jerome C. $5,000, making in all $12,500 with heretofore given.
2. Charles A. $4,000 and the north part of the home farm beginning at the road at my garden run on what is called the Rockwell line through to his east line on #77, also, to have enough from the south part of the farm that is called the Bennett farm, which I bot (sic) from John and William Larkin. This was a total of 100 acres. He also was to have the privilege of one half the fruit on the ? - Henry Z. Baker part.
(John Larkin was probably his son-in-law. Who was William Larkin)?
3. Henry J. $4,000, the farm that was purchased from Henry Hess and running through on the north line to the east line of lot #77, a total of 100 acres and this land to be made even in the number of acres of land.

Note that the Z. initial is different from the J. initial on the names of Henry. Who was Henry Z. Baker? Was it an error?

Daughters named in will of James M. Baker were:

4. Maria Larkins, $5000, three thousand heretofore given equal $8000 total, to be pd by exec. in any notes held by James M. against G. N. (G. W. or G. A.?) Sherwood in lieu of dower. (This was probably Gaylord Noble Sherwood, father of Edward Duane Sherwood, who had married into the family).
5. Carolyn Parker, $5000 with $3000 heretofore given = $8000.
6. Julian Cook, $5000 with $3000 heretofore given.
7. Orida (sic) B. Sperry, $5000 with what heretofore given equals $8000 and what remains due on H.W. Chadwick mortgage, shall be pd her as so much of her dower.
8. Lucy Bates, deceased. Lucy's son James Bates $3000. ck when fam 1. Bates are

It would appear that James M. gave marriage dowers to his daughters of three thousand dollars each. He added five thousand dollars as bequests in his will.

Note that James M. Baker lived about nine years after this will was made, so that actual bequests may have been different. The will was finely and intelligently written. It appears to have been in the handwriting of James, who would have been about sixty two years of age at the time. It appears as a somewhat shaky writing, as though the writer was elderly or ill. His sight must have been good as the letters were small.

Witnesses to the will were Alexander J. Dallas, Eugenia M. Downer and Hannah M. Cole, (his niece). what was Hannah's maiden name? who was Dallas?

It appears that James M. had a close relationship with his sister Tryphenia, who married James Cole, as witnessed by his will of December 1857, when this sister was alive. He left small bequests to seven of her unmarried daughters, excepting Hannah. Hannah was living with James M. at the time of the 1850, 1855 and 1860 census. Possibly Hannah had received previous benefits directly or was not expected to marry.

James M. Baker, b. Vermont, age 65. Occupation "Gentleman". Real Estate value $16,000, property value $40,000. His mother Lydia Baker, 89 yrs, b. MA; Hannah Cole, age 24, born N.Y., servant. (Hannah was his niece, d/o Tryphenia Baker and James Cole). Excluding known family, his neighbors included Eugenie M. Downer, Nathaniel Wood, E. Stebbins, Mary L. Cook, Millions family, Thomas O' Brine from Ire. and Cyrus Sweet. (Census Reel 828, v 67, 1-865 and 1105-1188. Four houses away was Ira Richmond, 20, b. N.Y.S. with wife Carolyn and Harriet M. Downer, 15 years living with them. (Note: age for Ira must be 30, based on 1850 and 1855 census).

Note: several of the family had Irish servants living with them in 1860 census. These people probably came when the Erie Canal was built.

1860 map of Town of Camillus on Bennett's Corners Rd; one finds that J. M. Baker resided in a house on the east side of the road between his sons Charles A. Baker, north of him who was listed with two houses, and Jerome C. Baker, south of him. The map shows residing on the other side of the road J. Kester, north of Baker, and Mrs. Downer south of Baker.

PARKER Notes: Stamford VT

unknown of connected to Baker
One Charles Parker married 1801 Stamford VT to Elsey (Turner) Jones and had a son Wm b. 1802, Reuben Parker born 1804 Stamford, who married Mariah Smith, (Ref: Branches and Twigs Summer 1981, p. 103). Was this Elsey (Turner) Jones calculated as born by 1782 or prior, related to Thomas Sargeant Baker's sister? Enos Jones appeared in Stamford 1790 census. No Parker or Jones appears on 1800 census in Stamford.

J. Humphrey's long ago handwritten copy of Stamford records lists ?Lucs Jones, b. 30 Jan. 1799, s/o Eliz. Turner, now Eliz. Parker; the ch. of Charles Parker and Eliz. Parker, his wife, born as follows: William March 13 1802, Reuben 20 May 1804, Due 18 May 1806, and more that I didn't copy. This was LDS film 865407.

Also listed was: Charles Parker married Alice Turner 1801.

Genforum subm. lists Chas. Parker b. 1759 Scituate MA, d. 1841 Stamford VT, m. 1801 Elsey Turner in Stamford. (Pension applic). Ch. b. Stamford were William 1802, Reuben 1804, d. 1870 Stamford, Dewey 1806, Geo 1808, Horace.

Rootsweb has listing of Chas. <sup>Parker</sup> with same wf and ch., but some dates incorrect. Chas. served in Rev. War as early as 1776 in R.I. Had Pension in 1831 in Bennington Co. VT, age 75 for birth ca 1756.

- Son Reuben b. 1804, died in Stamford 1870, had will and 15 ch.

It is likely that Charles b. 1756 had a wf prior to his 1801 marr. to Turner. Perhaps he had other ch. by a prev. wf, maybe Luther b. by 1793, since he appeared on Grand List in 1814 in Stamford. possibly

INTRODUCTION

Must shorten and revise.

The main focus of my research was to identify the ascendancy of Matthew Baker of Stamford, Vt. As of this writing I do not have certain proof, but circumstantial evidence links him as grandson of Matthew Baker of Attleboro MA who died in 1757. Matthew of Attleboro married Sally Baylies, d/o Thos. Baylies and Esther Sargent who left Eng. 1737 for this country, which was then a colony of England.

The connecting link from Matthew Baker of Stamford, Vt to Matthew Baker of Attleboro pivots on Thomas Sarjent Baker, son of Matthew of Attleboro, who appeared in Stamford, Vt in 1791, next door to Matthew Baker when only 48 families resided at Stamford. I have not found proof that Thomas Sargent Baker was Matthew's father. He may have been an Uncle or cousin.

It has been proved that:

Thomas Sarjent Baker filed intent to marry in Dighton, MA where his Guardian Ezra Richmond resided. Thos. was in Swanzey 1771-1779; in New Salem, 1780/1781 when he enlisted for Rev. War; in Scipio, NY 1802-1804, still with wife Bethia on deeds. Resided Hector, NY 1819, when he filed for his Rev. War Pension, with younger wf Rachel. Killed by lightning, Hector, 1828.

Proof that Thos. Sarjent Baker was the same man who resided in Stamford, Vt 1791 is circumstantial. He was allied with the Benjamin Tupper and Wilbur family of Stamford, VT who also moved to Cayuga Co. NY as proved by the Tupper Geny and deeds of Thos. Sarjent Baker with the Tupper family in Scipio, 1802-1804. The Tupper family were also allied with John Baker Sr and Jr. who were in Saratoga Springs and Cayuga Co. NY. The Tupper family were also in Pittsfield MA before Stamford, VT where a John Baker Sr and Jr and Elisha Baker also lived. These Bakers owned land in Stamford VT in the 1780's. Possibly John Baker Jr. of Pittsfield, Stamford and Saratoga Co. were the same man.

Lydia Millard Baker's Uncle Valentine Wheeler also moved from Stamford, Vt to Scipio about 1810. Lydia married Matthew Baker of Stamford VT.

Simeon Baker and wife Eliz. Ingalls of Taunton Ma resided next to Susannah Baker, (d/o Matthew Baker and Sally Baylies) and her husband Benjamin Jones. They appeared on a deed together. Simeon's dau. Zipporah m. Baker Jones, son of Susannah and Benj. Jones. It has been said that this Simeon Baker was son of Thos. Baker and Abigail White of Taunton who had a son of the name born about the same time, proof not found.

I plan to set forth the information I have gathered listing possible antecedent and contemporary relationships which may substantiate the evidence. I have divided the book into three sections. 1. Thomas Baker of Maine and Raynham Massachusetts. 2. Baylies Family and Matthew Baker of Attleboro. 3. Matthew Baker of Stamford, Vt.

1. Justin Baker<sup>6</sup>, of Baltimore, supplied information on his line. He found me about 1990.

2. Jackie Baker<sup>6</sup>, author's line.

3. Rev. James Millard Baker<sup>4</sup> - my Great Uncle Rev. James Baker who died 1952. It was he who gave me my first lineage information on the Baker family.

His grandchildren:

A. Grace Mayer<sup>6</sup> of Oregon, shared her many diligent years of research without which this would be a much smaller book. She found me about 1988.

B. Robert White<sup>6</sup> has recently become an avid family searcher and supplied info. his family. He found me 1993.

4. I have been able to connect the prolific family line of Lorenus<sup>3</sup>, son of Rev. Matthew Baker Jr.<sup>2</sup> of Stamford, Vt, to Licking Co. Ohio and Coles Co. Illinois via Descendants of Lorenus Baker and Clarissa Willison and The Willison Ancestry written in 1980 by desc. Esther Adair Watts of Whittier, Ca., (30 copies), one copy at Family History Library, Salt Lake. When I found this book in 1991, she still had not been able to connect Lorenus to his ancestors in Vermont. She has graciously permitted me to add her book to this one.

5. Mrs. Jean Kneeshaw, desc. of Tryphenia Baker<sup>2</sup> and husb. James Cole through Sophia Cole<sup>3</sup>, supplied info. her line.

6. Mrs. Mildred Meyer of Ohio, and Ted Merrill, both descendants of Sarah Baker Phillips<sup>2</sup>, provided information on their lines.

7. Mrs. Reta Selleck, desc. of Susannah Baker Jones<sup>2</sup>, submitted info. her line.

VERMONT HISTORY

Stamford is in southwestern Vermont, close to the Massachusetts and New York border. It is 9 miles Southeast of Bennington and 4 miles north of N. Adams, Mass. It was chartered by New Hampshire to Elisha Cook and fifty five other people in 1753. It was later chartered by N.H. under the name of New Stamford to Francis Barnard and sixty five other people in 72 shares. In 1783, the name was changed to Stamford. Settlement in Vermont began in 1760. Vermont was an Independent Republic from 1777 to 1791. Most settlers were of Anglo-Saxon stock from Mass. or Conn. The border area was in dispute as to which state owned it prior to the Revolutionary War. Town records call it New Stamford, part of Albany County, N.Y. in 1781 and 1784, (Ref: Stamford deed records).

The names Baker and Millard do not appear in original 1753 land grants at Stamford or the 1764 charter. The earliest town records were lost. Existing earliest records date from 1780 when Benjamin Tupper was a Selectman there.

Vermont received settlers generally until 1808, when a series of political events and natural disasters ended this movement. These events were: the Embargo of 1807 which crippled the economy, floods in 1811, the War of 1812, the Spotted Fever epidemic of 1813 which affected 6,000 people, and the "year there was no summer", 1816, which destroyed crops.

Matthew and Lydia Millard Baker were married Stamford Vermont residents 1791-1822 Lydia was in Stamford from abt 1788 with her parents as she stated herself and it was so published.

Many Vermonters moved to N.Y.S. The St. Lawrence Turnpike opened in 1812/13. Most of the cheap land in northern N.Y. was taken by 1820. In the 1820's, half of Vermont's 200,000 population moved to N.Y.S., settling near groups of other former Vermonters.

This was the time of the building of the Erie Canal. One wonders if this event attracted the Baker family to Onondaga County, New York. Matthew Baker Sr. was in his fifties at that time. His gret grandson Rev. James M. Baker in his book Contending The Grade In India wrote that James<sup>2</sup> Baker, popularly called Squire, son of Matthew Sr., owned one of the first lines of boats on the Erie Canal.

STAMFORD VERMONT AND VICINITY FAMILIES

It is not known if these were connected to Baker family of which we treat.

Elisha Baker, s/o John who d. ca 1811/13 Pittsfield, MA, for more info. see page following Thos. Sarg. Baker in Section two.

(Bks 1-4, Reel 28916).

1783? John Baker Jr witnesses Zuriel Tupper's sale of land New Stamford.

1784, Sept 25, John Baker and Zuriel Tupper owned land bounding what Daniel Bridge purchased, V. 2, 1785-1792, p 175, John Baker, a witness.

I copied grand List Stamford VT beg. 1803. Did not copy anything for John Baker. Prob. did not find him there.

There was an Elisha and Molly Baker in Williamstown Ma which is near N. Adams, later residing in the small town of Clarendon, Vt near Rutland. He had ch. with names similar to the given names in our family. They were: Orin 1782; Joseph Isham 1784; Ira 1786; Polly 1788; Sally 1790. He was b. Woodbury Ct, served in Rev., Col. Barnes Regt 1781, later to Troy and Rome, NY, Charlotte acc. to Sold. Sailors, Patriots by Fisher and Fisher, p 26.

Virgil White Pension Abstracts lists Elisha Baker R410, b. ca 1766 Woodbury, Litchfield Ct. Res. Williamstown, Berkshire Co. MA at enlistment. Served MA and VT line. Applied 16 Aug 1839, Chittenden Co. VT at 73 yrs.

Rufus Richardson and Abijah and Alipha Parker were mentioned in book 2 Stamford deeds. John and Lydia Cook signed a deed in book 4.

Noah and Amasa Cook were of the line of Aaron<sup>1</sup> Cook This seems NOT to connect to Bethia Cooke, wf of Sarjeant Baker.

David Cook from Gloucester, R.I. was of the Gore, N. Adams, MA in 1796.

The following Baker families residing not far from our Baker family are worthy of note for possible connection. Note that the names Orin and Lyman were in our family also.

David Baker, b 1779, Adams, Ma, may have been in NY in 1800, went to Michigan.

John Baker, b 17 Jan 1798, Adams, Ma, was in NY in 1800, Mich 1832. Died 1873. Believe he was son of Moses.

Joseph M. Baker, b 19 Feb 1780, N. Adams, Ma, was in Vt 1790, was in Manchester, Ontario Co. NY 1800, Adrian Mich 1833. He m 1801. He was son of Joseph Baker and Experience Martin of Rutland Co., Vt. His ch were: Lyman, Sally F. Joseph F., Experience, Nancy, Anna, Norman, Russell, Norton.

Orin Baker, from Western Ma, was in Macedon, NY 1831, went to Fairfield, Mich. where he d. 1871. His father was Moses Baker of Adams, Ma. Orin had a brother John, b. 17 Jany 1798, Adams, Ma. He was in NYS in 1800, Mich. in 1832. He d. 1873.

Rufus Baker, b 30 June 1821, was of Western Ma; went to Palmyra, NY, then Mich.

William Baker, b 4 Dec 1784, Berkshire Co. Ma, went to NY, then was in Mich 1837.

Reuben Baker b 1759, Rehoboth, MA, d 1811, Fort Ann, N.Y., married 1782, Lydia Mason; went to Ira, Vt and Adams, MA. Rev. Soldier. He was s/o John (1720-1767) and Hannah Mason. John, b and d Rehoboth MA.

Ref: Seaver; Fisher. (not listed V. White Pension Abstracts).

William Baker, Adams, Ma (1729-1785).

Benjamin Baker, N. Adams, Ma (1779-1785). There were two Benjamin Bakers in Marcellus NY later. One was born ca 1740, the other ca 1779. Were they the same family? This interests me because George S. Baker, s/o the younger Benj. resided next door to a farm that belonged to Chas. A. Baker (James M.2, Matthew1) in 1880 and Charles' sons Chas H. and Edward H. were operating.

Gen. 1

CAPTAIN MATTHEW BAKER AND LYDIA MILLARD

1. Matthew<sup>1</sup> Baker, our first proven ancestor was born circa 1768. He died September 7, 1844, Tn Camillus, Onondaga Co. NY. He was buried with his wife in Oswego Bitter Cem. Town of Camillus, having been moved from Robbin-Sherwood Cemetery there, which flooded every year. He was listed as Captain on his gravestone.

Matthew married about 1790 to Lydia Millard who was born 8 Feb. 1771, Rehoboth, Bristol Co. Ma. Lydia died July 30, 1866 at Camillus. <sup>95yr</sup> She was the daughter of Squire Millard and Mary Wheeler.

Matthew's time of marriage is suggested by the 1790 census taken in 1791 census, when he was listed in Stamford, Bennington County, Vermont, as head of household without children. His first known child, Matthew Jr. was born October 21, 1791, according to the town records in Stamford. (Birth found along with Stamford deeds on LDS film 28916, read in 1990). I estimate that his marriage was in 1790 or January 1791, probably in Stamford VT or N. Adams, MA.

On the 1791 census, there were only 48 families in Stamford. Of interest: Squire Millard in house #4; Stephen Bates #5; William Bates #6; Sergeant Baker in house #7 with 2 females; Matthew Baker in house #8, with 1 female; Resolved Phettiplace in house #10; Benjamin Tupper #15; Elisha Raymond in #16; Timothy Cook in #21. Josiah Raymond #25.

Squire Millard was the father of Lydia <sup>w/7 Matthew</sup> Baker. Was Bates related to Wilson Bates who marr. Lucy, d/o James Millard Baker? Benjamin Tupper had dau. m. a Baker. Tupper and Sargeant Baker moved to Scipio, Cayuga Co. NY. Elisha Raymond was father of Abigail, who mar. Joseph, son of Matthew Baker Sr of Stamford. Resolved Phettiplace, (?1823 - 1904) marr. into Raymond fam??. Was Timothy Cook of line of Bethiah Cook, wf of Sargeant Baker?

Since Matthew Baker of Stamford was quite young in 1791 and not expected to have left tracks prior to that time, his next door neighbor (Thomas) Sargeant Baker was tracked in an attempt to find the ancestry of Matthew. See Section I of this book for narrative on Thomas Sargent Baker. I believe Thomas Sargeant Baker was Uncle or Father to Matthew Baker of Stamford and that Sargeant's father Matthew Baker of Attleborough (d. 1757), was Grandfather of Matthew Baker of Stamford. If so, Sally/Sarah Baylies, born 1707 Warwickshire, Eng. was Matthew's grandmother. Sally was d/o Thomas Baylies and Esther Sargent who came to this country about 1737.

Lydia<sup>6</sup> Millard resided in Stamford in 1788, according to her own account. (Hemenway, Vt). She was about 17 yrs old in 1788. Her parents were Squire<sup>5</sup> Millard 1st (b. 11 May 1745, Rehoboth, MA d. 15 Sept 1828, Stamford, Vt) and Mary Wheeler, (b. 5 Aug. 1752, Rehoboth, MA, d. 5 June 1835, Stamford, Vt). Mary was d/o Valentine and Sarah Goff Wheeler. One published account attributed to Squire's grandson, states that his grandfather migrated from Rehoboth to Stamford in 1784, but he does not mention that his grandfather was in Killingly, Conn. for about 4 yrs before he removed to Stamford. some of his young ch. there

In 1788, Lydia was 17 yrs old and Matthew was about 20 yrs. If Matthew didn't then reside in Stamford, the nearest towns were Clarksburg, N. Adams/Adams and Williamstown MA; Pownal, Hartwellville, Bennington and Readsboro VT; Berlin NY. Clarksburg in Berkshire County is along the 4 road to N. Adams which is four miles from Stamford. It is, of course, possible that they met in Killingly CT, where Lydia previously resided, but I would opt for Clarksburg or N. Adams as first choice for searching. See VR Killingly CT

L.D.S. Cemetery reel, Onondaga Co. #--- states Lydia was from N. Adams MA. Yet, no proof found to date that she ever resided N. Adams which was 4 miles from Stamford VT. Lydia was 3rd cousin to U.S. Pres. Millard Fillmore, through the line of his mother Phoebe Millard. NY 1st

Squire<sup>5</sup> was of the John<sup>1</sup> Millard (Miller/Millerd) family who was in Rehoboth, Ma by 1643. (Joseph<sup>4</sup>, Nathaniel<sup>3</sup>, Robert<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>). Readers are referred to The Millards of Rehoboth Massachusetts by Frances McTeer and Frederick Warren, published in The Detroit Society for Genealogical Research Magazine (D.S.G.R.M.), volumes 23, 24, 25, 1959-63 for further information on the Millard family. Mary<sup>6</sup> Wheeler was of the John<sup>1</sup> Wheeler family who was first in Hampton, N.H., Salisbury, Ma in 1639 and who died in Newberry, Ma by 1670, (Henry<sup>2</sup>, James<sup>3</sup>, Philip<sup>4</sup>, Valentine<sup>5</sup>). The Wheeler family in America claims that John<sup>1</sup> came on the ship "Mary and John" of which there is no extant passenger list. The book Search For The Passengers Of The Mary And John by Burton Spear does not list John Wheeler.

Matthew's marriage to Lydia is proved by the Will of Squire Millard I in 1809, naming his daughter Lydia Baker, and the many Probate Papers of his Estate, February 1832, in Stamford. So much time elapsed between the time that his will was made and the time that he died that the heirs contested the will. Matthew and Lydia Baker were required to sign certain papers during the time of probate and were listed therein as residing in Camillus, NY. Possibilities for where the marriage was performed are: Adams, N. Adams, Clarksburg Ma, Stamford, Vt or less likely Killingly, Ct. Some of Lydia's Millard relatives lived for a time in Onondaga Co.

Add record of Squire Millard I's probate here.

Lydia Baker was named in Squire's will. Matthew and Lydia Baker of Camillus, N.Y. signed documents regarding Squire's estate.

Hemenway's Historical Gazetteer, Vermont Vol. 1, p. 237, 238. First Settlers, Bennington County, Vermont: STAMFORD by Rev. A. W. Goodnow. Churches - Mrs. Lydia Baker, who came to Stamford in 1788, was present at the organization of the church, and gave the following account of the history of the church:

"When I came to Stamford, there were a number of Baptists in town and we occasionally had preaching by different ministers. When we had none, we met together and prayed and exhorted. In 1799, Rev. D. Starks preached at Mr. Stephen Clark's in Clarksburg, and Dr. Robinson invited him to preach in his house in Stamford. In March, he advised the brethren to form a church. They met about the 15th of April 1799, and called a council; Rev. Peter Worden of Cheshire, attended with several of his brethren. The church was organized and Rev. Mr. Worden preached from these words; "endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit; in the bond of peace." Rev. Mr. Starks was chosen pastor and a religious revival followed, so that he baptized from 2 to 13 each month through the ensuing summer and autumn. After Mr. Starks left us, we had no stated preacher for some time, but were supplied by ministers from different places. Reverend's Mattison, Withrill, Leland, Robinson, Dwyer, Bennett, and others occasionally served this church. In 1810, Rev. Paul Himes was ordained pastor of the church."

1850 and 1855, widow Lydia Baker resided with son James in Camillus.

1860 wd Lydia Baker resided with son James in Camillus.

1806. By this date Matthew Baker was listed as Captain in Stamford town records. Perhaps it was a rank in militia.

His name does not appear in Stamford Military Co. in 1808.

1808, Matthew Baker was on a committee that went to North Adams, Ma to assist in the founding of a Baptist Church there, along with Jacob and George Sampson, all from Stamford. (Betsy and Calvin Sampson married siblings of Lydia Millard).

In 1868, 162 yrs later, a member of the N. Adams Church was to serve Stamford. The above was mentioned in a sermon by a new pastor in Stamford.

The above info. was also mentioned in a paper which says Records of First Baptist Church, N. Adams, but states that Matthew Baker and others met Oct. 30, 1808 to organize the first Bapt. Ch. of Adams. Paper says the frame of the church was erected 1782, but not finished til 1794. It was called, "North Society of Adams" before 1808. Believe Adams and N. Adams was once all one town. (Need to ck Adams records as well as N. Adams).

The record of the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia in the War of 1812 lists one Matthew Baker, a private, who enlisted in the vicinity of Hancock Ma, with service at Boston. He was in Captain N. Smith's Company, Lieutenant Colonel S.K. Chamberlin's Regiment, from Sept. 10, to Oct. 30, 1814. Men who enlisted at Adams MA were under the same command at the same period of time. George S. and Miles C. Baker, relationship if any unknown, enlisted at Adams MA 1814, Capt. Howland's Co., Lt. Col. S.K. Chamberlin's Reg't. Deodatus Hubbell enlisted at Hancock, under the same Col.

*** I believe that the Matthew Baker listed as a private was Matthew Jr. or Matthew Sr. of Stamford, Vt. Matthew Jr. was born about 1791, making him about 23 years of age at this time. *** Matt. Jr's son Lorenus was born in Adams, Ma in 1811 and his child Mary/Hary Butler Baker was born in Stamford in 1815, about six miles away.

(An unrelated Matthew Baker was killed in the War of 1812 at *** Lundy's Lane, Ontario, Canada. He resided and enlisted at Manlius, NY. 1814, 30 Nov. Bk 6, p 392, Stamford, VT, MATHEW BAKER witnessed a QUITCLAM deed whereby Stephen Millerd, (bro in law of Baker) sold to Valentine Wheeler Jr. (Uncle of Mathew's wf Lydia), 100 acres of Lot 17 where Valentine Wheeler Jr was then living. Recorded 7 Jany 1815. In 1813, Stephen Millerd had purch. at tax sale for $2.20 land including Lot 17 where Valentine Wheeler Jr. resided.

(Son) 1816, 13 April, Bk 7, p. 13, MATHEW BAKER of Stamford VT sold to JAMES M. BAKER of Stamford in fee simple, for $1050; north half of Grant 23 of 2nd division of land, and another piece of land bounded: north side of nursery on the west side of road, then westerly 12 rods, then northerly to south line of the said north half, to be a parallel line with north line of said lot, then easterly to the road, then southerly to the beginning. Also one fourth of the Matthew Baker Jr. pitch of Lot 13 to be taken off the north side of said lot, a parallel line with north side line of said lot, the whole totalling 75 acres. Also one equal half in the barn and one equal of the fruit in the orchard standing on south half of said lot 23 with appurtanances. Property is free of all encumbrances. Witn. Otis Phillips, Jonathan N. Robinson. Ackn. before Otis Phillips, J.P. Recorded 28 Nov. 1816, by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk.

1816, 13 April, Bk 7, p. 21, Stamford VT. Indenture between MATTHEW BAKER of Stamford, VT and JAMES M. BAKER of Stamford. This day Matthew Baker deeded to James M. Baker, the north half of grant 23 in 2nd division of land in town of Stamford. Parties mutually agree for purpose of commodding with other in the pasture ground that is on the north and south half of lot 23, to occupy and improve the same as tenants in common for 20 yrs. Witn. Otis Phillips, Isaac Robinson. Ackn. same day before Otis Phillips, J.P. Recorded 22 Dec. 1816 by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk.

1820?, 11 March, Bk 7, p. 174, Stamford VT, Matthew Baker of Stamford sold 50 acres land for $40 to Matthew Baker Jr. of Stamford s. half of Lot 18. Don't have p. 175 continuation.

1823, 10 June, Bk. 7 p 357, Stamford VT deeds, Matthew Baker of Camellus, (Camillus), Onondaga Co. NY sold 75 acres land with appurtanances lying in Stamford VT for $850 to John McElwain of Stamford VT: one half of south side of Lot 23 in 2nd division of land. Also one quarter of Matthew Baker Jr pitch of Lot 18 to be taken off north side, 50 acres owned by Matthew Baker Jr. Witn. Gideon Frothingham, John Fork. Ackn. 12 June 1823 in Onon. Co. NY. Recorded 2 Aug. 1823 by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk, Stamford, VT.

New York, Onondaga Co.

A loose handwritten sheet of paper found in the vertical file at the Syracuse Library stated that Matthew Baker was in Camillus in 1816. If so, the Grand List at Stamford during the years 1816-1822 would have to mean Matthew Jr. I question the 1816 date, although he was in church rec.

Elbridge 1822.

I did not find any Onondaga Co. land transactions for Matthew Baker. 1911 obit. of his grda. Mary Carolyn (Baker) Parker (born 1820) states she lived in a log cabin when she moved from VT to Camillus when a small child. It is unknown whether Matthew and son James lived in the same household at this time. James' log cabin later became the Merriman farm.

1822, Matthew Baker joined the Elbridge Baptist Church by letter from Stamford, Vermont. Matthew Baker was dismissed by letter from the Elbridge Baptist Church on October 18, 1840, four years prior to his death. The Baptist Society was organized in 1816. Lemuel Crossman was Trustee. He was father of Asa who m. Sarah, d/o Matthew (Ch. Rec., v 1813-1846, p. 9, 17 at Syr. Lib., LN48/EL12/Cb). In 1822, Elbridge was part of Camillus.

No will for Matthew Baker has been found. Lydia was 95 years old at the time of her death. She outlived her son James M. by three months, and her daughter-in-law Mary Larkin Baker by eight years. Lydia resided the last years of her life with her son James Millard Baker, at Camillus, (1850, 1860 census). They were both buried on a hill in the now inactive Oswego Bitter Cemetery in the Township of Camillus. No road leads into the cemetery, the original road having been relocated. Captain Matthew Baker's gravestone is upright, died age 76, but Lydia's stone is lying flat, having fallen at some time in the past. This is an abandoned cemetery. It is mowed twice yearly. There is a bed of myrtle and berry bushes growing around the graves. There is a large tree nearby. The County road has been changed and the grade of the road from it's original way. Facing the cemetery, the Baker plot is on the left about 3/4 of the way to the back of the cemetery, on a hill near a fence which marks the boundary of the next farm. Both gravestones have epitaphs:

Matthew

My Lord hath called and I obeyed
To meet and with him dwell
The last great debt I now have paid
And bid the world farewell.

Lydia

Mourn not for me my dearest friend
Since life with one (did ever)? end
In Jesus (arms? ..... rest)?
with his dear Sa (vior ever)? blest.

I visited this graveyard in August of 1989. Buried to the left of Matthew is Loring Richmond July 25, 1859, 77 yrs, 6 mo, 6 days; his wife Lydia died April 8, 1829 in the 47th yr of her life; Sally, second wife of Loring Richmond, died Nov. 5, 1854, 61 yrs, 9 mo, 2 days; a small stone L. R. Admiral Nelson Rogers is to the far left near the fence which seems to be part of the Richmond plot. Also, Lucy P. Bates, wife of Wilson Bates, died Sept 29, 1841, 24 yrs, 1 mo, 12 d., (Note: Lucy was d/o James Baker, grda. of Matthew Baker). Also buried near Matthew Baker was Solomon Paddock, died 1845; Mary, wife of David E. Larkin, died Oct. 5, 1840, age 30?; Nancy, wife of James Spalding; Jerome Whitney, died Oct. 19, 1870, 24 yrs, 1 mo, 12 d. (Note: Mary nee Betts was wf of David E. Larkin, s/o author's ancestor Amos Larkin. She was sister-in-law of Mary Larkin Baker, wf of James).

On the right of Matthew and Lydia's stone is a stone which says Our Grandfather, a good sized stone. Between Matthew and Lydia is a stone with initials M.H.M.B. (or M.H.M.R).

On part of the hill is the gravestone of Hannah Bates, died Dec. 2, 1864, 87 yrs, 6 mo, mother of Wilson Bates, who married Lucy Baker, d/o James Millard Baker and grd/o Matthew Baker; also Alexander Raymond, Sept. 24, 1820 - Sept 12, 1886, who could possibly be related to Abigail Raymond who married Matthew's brother Joseph Baker.

In all, near Matthew are 15-20 graves in 2 rows. On the other part of the hill, not close to our family, is Electa, wf of Sylvester Richmond, May 11, 1840, 38 yrs, 2 mo, 10 days. Also Marcus Parker, 1829-1909, and wf Lydia Cole, grd/o Matthew Baker Sr).

Folklore claims that the cemetery is haunted by The Will O' The Wisp, a light which bobbed around and appeared like the light of a lantern when carried by a person walking. One night the light passed between two men who were seated and traveling in a wagon pulled by a horse. This frightened one of the men so much that he fell off the wagon.

On another occasion, a man fell asleep in his wagon, knowing that his horse knew the way home. He awakened suddenly, to find that the horse was standing at the cemetery gate. The horse was braced and before him was a ball of light, causing the horse to refuse to proceed. The man backed up to a lane and the horse raced the rest of the way home. After that, porch parties were held in the area, with the participants waiting to get a glimpse of the ghost.

It was later decided by a man with scientific knowledge that the light was a phosphorous body which followed a vein of gas.

The 1880 History of Macon Co. Illinois lists a bio. for Rufus Crossman, grson of Lydia Millard Baker. The bio. states that Rufus' mother Sarah Baker was a native of Vermont and that his father Asa was born in Elbridge, Onon. Co. N.Y. Rufus' maternal grandmother who died at age 99 had great intelligence and force of character. She resided in new Eng. during the Rev. War and heard the first gun that started that struggle. When Rufus was a child this maternal grandmother told him many incidents of olden times. (Rufus to Lydia Millard Baker 1880 census, Onondaga Co., Marceline, George S. Baker, b. ca.

 1829, NY, w. Emma, 1838, son Milo, b. 1861, residing next to our Charles H. and Edward Rindale Baker. George was in Camillus 1870, with sister Beatrice Bagg, b. 1849, living with him, perhaps sister in law. George was s/o Benjamin Baker b. ca 1779 and prob. grandson of Benj. Baker b. ca 17-- (1855 census and Marceline Village cem. related?)

Who was Riam Baker in Camillus 1880? He was m. ca 1840, had
 w. Susan, had ch. Albert, age 14, George, Bagg. Was he the Albert in Baker Bros. Partnership in Buffalo in 1890's with Ed
 W. and Chas. H. Baker? His age was contemporary with them.
 Beck Maplewood - A Myron Baker was married there with our Bakers. Are Myron and Byron the same? Can't be ch. of James or Henry or Charles A. Would have to be from one of sons of Mat. if related? Not Joseph apparently. But his ch. prob. all stayed Ohio or IL. Possibly the 1st born, of whose ch. we know nothing.

Albert would not be grandson of Mat. His son Albert, b. 1809.
 An Albert Baker appeared with Henry James Baker in Clarence, Dodge Co. WI in 1880-81, apparently related.

John Baker of Camillus m. 12 Jan. 1850, Jane P. Brown of Salidunaville, in same town by Rev. Byron Alden. She d. 3 June 1850, in Camillus. 19 yrs. (Brown). They must have interchanged her age at mar. and death, which would make her born ca 1811. I would assume he was b. abt. 1790-1811. Was John related?

 One Matthew Baker at Lehigh, Cayuga Co. NY, b. ca

 One Matthias Baker at Lebanon in Madison Co. NY, b. 355.
 Neither of these appear to be our Matthew.

1860, A Matthew M. Baker, b. Vt about 1830, resided in Manlius, Onondaga Co. He lived between Goodfellow and Alderman. Matthew b. 183- married Jane, born NY 1837, and had children John, born 1857, NY.

Lineage Possibilities:

1. grandson of Matthew Baker killed in War of 1812. The Matthew killed in War 1812 enlisted at Manlius, NY, from Thomas of Raynham line and was named for his grandfather Matthew Hutchinson. That killed Matthew lived for a time in Middle Hero Western Vt.

2. grand son of Matthew of Stamford and Camillus.

Other Bakers in Manlius 1860 were: Joseph, b 1812, N.Y.S. with wf Nancy D. b 1815, and ch Augustus M., Ella M., Joseph 4, female servant, Sarah Bolin.

A loose paper in Syracuse Lib. Vertical file states that Joshua Baker was s/o Matthew Baker.

One Joshua d. 30 Apr 1849, 62 yr 6mo 17d for birth ca 1786, bur. Jackson Family Cem., Cherry Valley Rd. Marcellus, Onon. Co. NY,. He had wf Eliz. b 1776? This Joshua could not have been son of Matt of Stamford or son of the other Matt killed War 1812-1814. We know d.o.b. for wife of each Matthew and Lydia Millard Baker did not have a child in 1791 census in Stamford.

all Mrs. Hove). Anson Baker 1800-1881, and wf Adeline D. d. 1860, were also buried Jackson Cem. Marcellus. (This Anson was not the same Anson, s/o Matt. Baker who d. 1814 in War, who was also b. 1800, d. 1867, Ellenburg, NY, acc. to desc. of that Matthew, William Beauchamp's Rev. War Soldiers buried Onondaga Co. N.Y. p. 106 lists Ezekial Baker, 75 yrs in 1840 resided with Anzon Baker. Ezekial was from Pelham MA, 4 ft 10 in, very short, served in Hampshire Co. MA Reg't. The other Matthew Baker family, killed in War 1812, had a connection with the Latham family of Pelham MA, thus Ezekial and Matthew living together must belong with that group.

The Millards of Rehoboth, published in Detroit SGRM by McTeer, p. 114, lists Maria Millard, 1817-1859), d/o Willoughby6 Millard of Pompey, NY, as marrying Mr. Baker. She was buried in Manlius.

Rev. William Beauchamp's Past and Present of Onondaga Co., V.2, p 849, (1908) seemingly identifies this couple as Joseph Baker, born Manlius, Onondaga Co. 16 May 1857, d. 1882. However, the dates don't fit Maria Millard above b. 1817). He was s/o Joseph Baker, who was also b. Onon. Co. (obviously b.

He had 3 ch. by her, (reck dates this ref). In 1842, Joseph Baker and Maria sold to E.A. Marsh of Pompey, 1850, sold to P.A. Lusk, 1854 to W. Berry, etc.

There was a Joseph Baker in Onon. Co. as early as 1817, (see deeds).

A Mrs. Olive Baker was baptized as an adult in 1818 in the Elbridge Baptist Church.

A Simeon Baker was one of the first settlers at Three River Point, Onon. Co. This was near Hannibal Center. (French's Gazetteer NYS). It would be interesting to know whether he was connected to Simeon Baker of Taunton, Mass. whose dau. Zipporah m. a d/o Benjamin Jones and Susannah Baker, sister of Thos. Sargent Baker.

Nathan Walker was in Herkimer N.Y. in 1791. Was he the Nathan who m. Sally Baker, New Salem, MA? Was that Sally, d/o Thos. Serjent Baker? Were either of these Nathan's from the Walker family of Taunton MA that was connected to the Baylies family?

REV. MATTHEW BAKER JR. AND SAMANTHA TOWN

2. Matthew Baker was the eldest son of Matthew and Lydia Millard Baker. He was born 21 Oct 1791, Stamford, Bennington Co. Vermont. (His birthdate was tucked in with Stamford town deeds on FHC microfilm, #28916, p.285). Matthew made his Will January 17, 1852, his gravestone says he died Jan'y 19 1852, in the 61st yr of his life. There is also smaller writing on the gravestone. He was buried with his wife Samantha in Hurricane Cem. Hutton Twp. Coles Co. IL. Descendant William Seaman has clear photos of their gravestones taken in 1997. Whetstone Baptist Church Minutes mentions his death 6 days after giving his last sermon on January 10.

Matthew Baker Jr. was married by 1808/9, age 17/18, to Samantha Town, (calc. <sup>mar</sup>from Aug. 1809 birth of son Albert, Stamford VR). Samantha was born 9 March 1789 MA, died 1 Oct. 1853, 64 yrs, 6 mo, 22 days. She was buried with her husband. Her surname comes from a biography of her grandson Benjamin Webb Baker published in Notable American Biographies 1904 ~~acc.~~ <sup>to Alice</sup> through email, not seen by me. (Try Adams, N. Adams MA or thereabouts for their marriage. There must be a Butler connection also). I do not find an early Town family in Stamford Vt 1790-1810 or in History of N. Adams MA which I skimmed.

Matthew Jr. was a Baptist preacher according to his great-nephew Rev. James Millard Baker born 1866, (s/o Charles A. Baker), of Camillus and Medina, NY and Asheville, N.C. James was also a Baptist missionary in Ongole India for 35 yrs.

In 1808, Matthew Baker was on a committee to found a Baptist church in N. Adams, MA. Matthew Jr. was only 17 yrs old at that time. Matthew Baker Sr. was the man I believe was on that committee.

1810 census Matthew is listed in Stamford, Bennington Co. Vt as Matthew Jr. with one male under 10 yrs. He probably resided N. Adams, MA for a time.

War 1812. <sup>one</sup> Matthew Baker enlisted in Hancock, MA. Matthew Baker Sr. was about 44 yrs old in 1812, Matthew Jr. was 21 yrs old in 1812. No children were born to Matthew Baker Jr. during the War 1812.

He was listed as Jr. in Stamford town records in 1818, 1822, 1823. After 1823, when his father was in Camillus, NY, he no longer appears as Jr. Matthew Baker appeared until 1826 at Stamford. I would expect this was about the time he left town. Where was he 1826-1828?

Matthew Baker with a J after his name had 100 acres, Pitch #10, taxed 2 dollars, Stamford, VT. Assume J means Jr. Date? Matthew Baker Jr. received land from his father in Stamford, Book 6, p. 252 and Book 7, p 174. yr?

1820, Matthew Baker Jr. appears in Stamford, VT, one male and one female 26-45 yrs, 2 males under 10, 1 male 10-16, 1 female under 10 yrs. 2 males were empl. agriculture.
1820 OH, no Matthew Baker found in census index.

1823 June 23, Bk 7, p. 356, Stamford VT, John M. Elwain of Stamford sold 25 acres land for $100 to Matthew Baker Jr. of Stamford: one quarter of Lot 18, Matthew Baker Jr. Pitch to be taken off south side of north half of said lot.
Witn. James M. Baker, Polly Baker. Ackn. before Isaac Robinson Jr, J.P. 31 July 1823. Recorded 2 Aug. 1823 by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk. (James was his brother with wife Polly Parker Baker).

1826, 8 April, Bk 7, p. 474, Matthew Baker of Stamford VT, sole and lawful owner, sold for $225 current money of the Commonwealth, Lot 18 in 2nd Division of land 75 acres which is three quarters of lot to be taken off south side of said lot with appurtenances to Samuel Clark Jr. of Clarksburgh, Berkshire Co. MA. Matthew conveyed the the land free and clear from encumbrances. Signed Matthew Baker Jr.
Witn. Nathan Putnam, Elisha Kingsley. Ackn. same day before Nathan Putnam, J.P. Recorded 14 April 1826 by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk.

1827 circa, Baptist Church organized McKean Twp, Licking Co. OH. One of the first Justices of Peace was C.C. Jones. The town was org. 1818.

1829, 24 July, Licking Co. OH, Bk M, p. 277. Matthew Baker of Licking Co. OH purchased 50 acres land on N.W. corner of Spencer Tract for $200; purchased from Solomon Brooks. (Ref: Seaman).

1830 census, McKean, Licking Co. Ohio, p. 468 index, found on p. 478 top left of page. Matthew Baker, between 40-50 yrs of age for birth between 1780 and 1790. He had a female, prob. his wife, in household in the same age bracket. He had one male in each of the following age brackets; 5-9, 10-14, 15-19, 20-29 and a female 15-19. The ages and sex of the children fit exactly the known ch. of Matt. Jr. of Stamford; ie Orin, John, Lorenus, Albert and Mary. In 1830, Samantha would have been about 39 yrs old. Thus, it appears that none of the ch. were married before the 1830 census.

Closest neighbors were David Danforth and Samuel and Charles Jones. Other neighbors were: William and Jos. Eaton, Alvin

Brown, Jacob Bowers, Casper Myers, Geo. Beckabaugh. There was a Danforth family in Stamford, I believe. Must ck further.

Perhaps the opening of the Erie Canal in 1825 which lured many to OH was a factor in Matthew's move to OH.

1832, Matthew's son Lorenus Baker was married in Licking Co. Ohio.

1840 census, p 294 in Licking Co., McKean Twn, Ohio.

Matthew Baker, between 40 and 50 yrs of age, for birth between 1790 and 1800. The female in household was between 50 and 60, for birth between 1780 and 1790. No others in household. The census listed him in the category of learned or engineer profession. This would be consistent with occupation of preacher. The closest neighbors in 1840 were John Brown, Hanson Clark, Samuel Orcutt, Cornelius Houck, David Wyeth, Edwin Reynolds.

Jones neighbors in 1840 were: John D., C.C., John B.

In Granville Twp, 1840, the next Town over from McKean, were: D.C., John T., Thomas and Ebenezer Jones.

McKean Twp. is halfway between the cities of Homer and Granville. The town of Fredonia is in McKean Twp.

The ch. of Matthew Baker Jr. of Stamford VT exactly match the ch. of Matthew Baker of McKean Twp. in 1830 census.

There were two villages in McKean Twp, Fredonia formed 1829 and Sylvania formed 1838. Fredonia's parent name was Fredonia, Erie Co. NY. (Hist. Licking Co. OH). Matthew Baker appears on census close to several of the founding fathers of McKean Twp. Would be good to research from where these others came. Joyce Seaman reports that Fredonia was formed 1828 and Sylvania 1843 from Hist. Atlas of Licking Co.

Rev. Matthew Baker Jr. was obviously the man in McKean Twp. Licking Co. Ohio, 1830, and 1840 census records. No Matthew Baker was found in Coles Co. IL in 1840.

A Cumberland Co. IL Bulletin Summer, 1969, The Happy Hunter, V.4:3 lists early settlers of Hutton Twp. Hutton was previously Salisbury Twp. Rev. Matthew Baker is listed as arriving there in 1831. Date probably incorrect, J.H.. (Esther Watts).

It would seem that Matthew Jr. moved to Coles Co. IL about 1842, certainly by March of 1849. Early Marriages in Coles Co. IL lists Rev. Matthew Baker officiated at the marriages of several Bakers there between 1842 and 1850.

son or in m 1842 Coles Co. IL.

x Matthew helped to establish the Whetstone Freewill Baptist Church in Coles Co. IL. He was an elder and brought the message several times. His last sermon was Jan. 10, 1852 and he died 6 days later. (Church minutes read by desc. Mary Miller of Anapolis IL. Copy at Ft. Wayne IN lib.).

Elder Baker was a charter member and helped to organize Whetstone Free Methodist Church acc. to Mary Miller via Watts. Were the two churches merged or is Methodist an error as reported to me? See Seamans reading, below, which seems more correct.

1853, 11 June, Samantha Baker received as member by experience at Whetstone Creek BAPTIST church, (IL State Archives, read by Seamans 1995). ~~This was shortly after the March death of Samantha, wife of Matthew Jr. if church dates were printed correctly here. Was this a granddaughter?~~ By experience suggests that she had been a member of a previous church. Shed Oct 1853

Obituary of Matthew's granddaughter Sara "Mariah" (Jones) (Neal) Ryan b. 1830 in Delaware Co. OH stated that her grandfather Baker was the organizer and first Pastor of Whetstone Church in Coles Co. IL. Her parents settled near this church when she was a child.

1844, Feb. Matthew Jr.'s son John B. Baker died in Coles Co. IL.

1844, 21 April, Minutes of Whetstone Creek BAPTIST Church: Meeting held at Mr. Coons by Elder M. Baker, William Skinner and Brother A. Baker; adopted a constitution. Copy read at IL State Archives, January 1995 by Joyce Seaman. (A. Baker prob. son Albert).

x 1849, 24 March, Coles Co. IL, V.1, Bk L p. 266. Matthew Baker and George W. Jones purchased nine acres of land with appurtenances for $45 from William B. and Josephine Johnson. Matthew Baker to have lifetime use and Jones to have ownership. (Watts). Matthew was age 58, at that time. This seems to be Matthew's grandson, or step-grandson, s/o his daughter Mary Butler Baker Jones. George was quite young, about 19 or younger and just getting married. Perhaps Matthew made arrangements for care in his old age. His daughter Mary B. Baker and husband David G. Jones owned adjoining land in 1869.

William B. Johnson appears on orig. Plat Map 14 Dec 1848, owning an L shaped lot.

One Isaac Baker owned a lot nearby in Hutton Twp, Coles Co. in Section 19, 9 May 1837.

Since son Lorenus Baker moved to Clark and Edgar Co. near Cole's Co. IL, the 1850 census of Coles Co. was searched for Matthew Baker.

On p. 63 or 86, Salisbury Pct., house 15, family 15, we find Matthew Baker, age 59, b. VA, (sic), Samantha, 60, b. Mass., Edwin R. 17, b. Ohio, Verlitia, 18, b. IA. (Matthew's birth in VA is not correct). Matthew was listed as a farmer. Salisbury Pct. is close to the border between Coles and Cumberland Co. IL. Cumberland was formed 1843 from Coles. Marriage records in Cumberland Co. were burned. Salisbury was later called Hutton Tnp.

1850. 31 August, Matthew Baker, V.D.M., Minister of the Gospel, officiated at the marriage of Edwin R. Baker and Verlatia Moore in Coles Co. IL. Edwin was probably a grandson, perhaps son of Albert Baker. Edwin was not named in the will of Samantha Baker who named all her children and her grandchildren who were by her deceased son John. Edwin was born at a time when Samantha was 43 yrs old.

Edwin S. and Edwin W. Baker owned land in Hutton Twp. Coles Co. IL in 1851 in Plat 25 and 36 as printed.

Other marriages performed by Matthew Baker, in Coles Co. IL.

1. Orren P. Baker to Rachel Van Winkle 2 Dec. 1842, (son).

2. MRS. Sarah E. Baker to Hezekiah D. Jones, 18 Nov. 1850.

(wd of his son John B. Baker).

3. O.P. Baker to Telila Barker, 10 Dec. 1851. (this was Matthew's son Orin Piere Baker to Julia. There were many Jones' living near Matthew Baker in McKean Twp. Ohio in 1830-40.

Matthew also officiated at the marriages of David Botkin and Sarah Ann Campbell, Andrew B. Woodson and Eliza McGahan, William Skinner and Mrs. Ann Woodson in 1844. He married 4 couples in 1846, 3 couples in 1847, 1 couple in 1848 and 2 couples in 1849, and 3 other couples besides Orrin in 1851, (Watts). (Note that Valentine McGahan was a witness to Matthew's 1852 Will. Was he father of Eliza?).

Note that Humphrey McGahan owned land next to John Adams who was father-in-law of Matthew's son John Baker. This land was in Hutton Twp., Coles Co. IL Plat Map.

Jones married first by 1846, by age 18, prob. in Vt, (calc. by 1810 birth of son, Nathan). He was listed as head of household on the 1810 Vt. census. His first wife was Mary "Polly" Barker according to death certif. of daughter Julia. Polly was born circa 1796, Vermont (or 1800 if other date ok). Polly died December 24, 1841, age 37, Springfield Cemetery typed page, Springfield Library. She was probably related to Luther Barker of Stamford, Vt and Lemuel and Joseph Barker of Addison Co. Vt. She was probably also related to Isaac G. Barker who married her daughter Mary Carolyn. Probably also related to Josiah Barker of whom a picture was at home of Chas. A. and Mary Hinsdale Jones, of which I have a copy. She may have had relatives in Vergennes, Addison Co. Vt.

(Note: Mary Barker was born Vermont according to census record of her daughter Mary Carolyn). See conf. genealogical of daughter Mary Carolyn later in this book.

Chas. Barker married 1801 Stafford VT to Eliza Jones and had a son Nathan Barker b. 1810 Stafford who married Mariah Smith. (Nathan and Mariah Smith b. 1810, p. 181). 3. James<sup>2</sup> Millard Baker Esquire, son of Matthew Baker and Lydia Millard was born ca 1795, Vermont, probably in Stamford, Bennington Co. He died April 14, 1866, age 71, in Town of Camillus. Both wives, Mary P. and Mary L. on gravestone, were buried with James in Maplewood Cemetery in Camillus. All were moved from Robbin/Sherwood Cemetery which flooded each Spring. (Typed cem. listing of Robbin Sherwood cem. gives dates and ages, copy at Syr. lib.).

1. Syracuse Journal, April 16. In the Town of Camillus, April 14, 1866, James M. Baker Esquire, aged 71 yrs. Funeral at his late residence, Monday (today) at 10 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend. Copy at Onon. Hist. Soc'y, Syracuse.

2. Syracuse Standard, April 16. obit. of James mentions that he was son of Captain Matthew Baker, War of 1812 soldier. I do not have copy of this. Notation of it at Onon. Hist. Soc'y, Syracuse.

James was admitted as a Freeman 1st Tues. of Sept. 1816, which would indicate that he was then 21 yrs old, perhaps born Aug. 1794.

James married first by 1814, by age 19, prob. in Vt, (calc. by 1815 birth of dau. Maria). He was listed as head of household on the 1820 Vt. census. His first wife was Mary/"Polly" Parker according to death certif. of daughter Julia. Polly was born circa 1796, Vermont (or 1800 if other date ok). Polly died December 24, 1831, age 35, Maplewood Cemetery typed page, Syracuse Library. She was probably related to Luther Parker of Stamford, Vt and Camillus and Joseph Parker of Addison Co. Vt. One Charles Parker married 1801 Stamford VT to Elsey Turner Jones and had a son Reuben Parker b. 1804 Stamford who married Mariah Smith, (Branches and twigs Summer 1981, p. 103). (1855 census), died 2 Nov. 1858, 61 yrs, buried Camillus, NY (gs, I read). She was d/o Amos Larkin<sup>5</sup> of Ballston, 1761-1827, (Anson J. Larkin Family History). Her mother was Mercy Jolls, wd of David Easterbrook, d/o John Jolls and Mary Cole of Bristol, R.I. Possibly she was d/o Mary Munro/Monro, perhaps d/o Nathan<sup>4</sup> Munro and Catherine Bragg although Anson J. Larkin family history mentions only the Jolls wife of Amos Larkin. See separate page, below). The death certif. of son Charles A. Baker lists his mother's name incorrectly as Mary Baker Larin. James Baker had two wives named Mary and both were called Polly.

Gravestones read by author - James M. Baker died April 14 1866, age 71; Mary P. died Dec. 24, 1836, age 35; Mary L., died November 2, 1858, age 61 years. Both say wife of James M. Surnames not on stones.

I visited the graveyard in Aug. 1989. It is a well kept cemetery. Stones near James M. Baker are son-in-law Isaac G. Parker; George; father and mother stones; Knox. (Did I omit a name Knox)? George S. Parker, Gettysburg, 1863, 18 yrs, grand-son. Also found were Mary and Myron, small stones on Baker plot (small B stone marking plot). Julia A. Cook, daughter of James M. Baker, Oct. 29, 1825 - Oct. 18, 1894.

Mary Larkin was about 35-37 years of age at the time of her marriage to James M. Baker. Her brother John Larkin, born 1803, married Maria Baker, d/o James M. Baker and his first wife Mary Parker. Larkin was brother or half brother to Mary Larkin, 2nd wf of James M. Baker. Thus, Mary Larkin became stepmother to her brother. Mary Larkin was not a blood relative of her step daughter Maria Baker. Another brother Albion J. Larkin, resided in Onondaga Co. Her sister-in-law was buried in Onon. Co. which suggests that her husband David E. Larkin, brother of Mary, also resided in Onon. Co. A third cousin Simeon Larkin from R.I. and his family also resided in Onon. Co.

1816, Sept., 1st Tuesday, Stamford, VT.

James Baker was admitted a Freeman. I would assume that he was 21 years of age by that month. His name was on the Grand list from 1815 - 1822. He was on a town committee in 1814, a Petit Juror for the box in 1817 and a Highway Surveyor and Hayward in 1818. A Hayward was responsible for the shrubbery of the town. In 1819, he was a Petit Juror, Overseer Of The Poor and on a committee to settle with the town. In 1822, he was Fence Viewer and Tythingman although he apparently wished to be excused from the latter duty. Note that his name first appears when he was about 19 yrs old, and probably newly married.

1820 census, James Baker appeared in Stamford VT.

Deeds index for Stamford, VT, 1777-1850 lists James M. Baker as Grantee from his father in book 7, p. 13 and Grantor in the same book. His land transactions end in book 8.

1816, 21 Dec. Bk 7, p. 22 Stamford VT. Luther Parker of Stamford sold the use of 100 acres of land for $50 to James M. Baker of Stamford, the use of the whole of Lot 17 with appurtenances bounded: north on the 1st division Lots #1, bound? No 2 south by #18, east by lots 22 and 21, west by lot 13, and use of 2 good cows and calves and they (inkblot) in the spring for 3 to 4 yrs. Baker to have use of land for 5 yrs from May next. Witn. James Millerd, Stephen C. Millerd. Ackn. 21 Dec 1816 before James Millerd, J. P. Recorded 22 Dec. 1816 by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk.

1822, 14 March, Bk 7, p. 260, Stamford VT. John McElwain of Stamford sold land in fee simple, for $600, to James M. Baker of Stamford, the north half of Grant 23, of 2nd division of land. Also one other piece of land bounded: beginning north side of the nursery on west side of road, then westerly 12 rods, then northerly to south line of said lot, to be parallel line of said lot, then easterly to the road, then southerly on the road to the beginning. Also one quarter of the Matthew Baker Jr. pitch of Lot 18, to be taken off north side of said lot, the whole totalling 75 acres. Also, one equal half of barn standing on the other half of the Grant, together with the privileges of half the yard and half the fruit in the orchard standing on the south half of Grant 23. Land is free of all emcumbrances, nevertheless if John McElwain shall pay or cause to be paid two certain notes of hand bearing even date with these presents and our note signed by Calvin Sampson 27 Aug. 1821 for $64 payable in 3 yrs with interest; one of said notes bearing date with these presents is given for $33.74, payable in one yr with interest, the other for the sum of $100 payable in 3 yrs from Nov. next with interest annually, then this deed as also the said notes are void, otherwise in free and virtue. Witn. Daniel Hubbard, Peter J. Day. Ackn. 4 June 1822 before Otis Phillips, J. P. Recorded 4 June 1822 by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk.

1822, 14 March, Bk 7, p. 281, Stamford VT, James M. Baker of Stamford sold for $800 in fee simple free of all encumbrances to John McElwain of Stamford, North half of grant 23 in 2nd division of land. Also one other tract of land adjoining the above, and one other tract of Mathew Baker Jr Pitch, all boundaries described seem to be the same land as in above transaction with same witnesses. Ackn. and recorded 4 June 1822, same as above land.

Why, was this land deeded twice on the same day? Was this a mortgage?

1822, 15 July, V. 7, p. 326, James M. Baker, of Stamford Vt, sold in fee simple, one acre of land for $300 to Garry Sanford of Stamford one undivided half of land being the same whereon I now (inkblot), with half the buildings standing, being a square, bounded: north and east by James Millerd, south by land of Isaac Robinson Jr, west by the main road leading from Adams, the turnpike in Readsborough with privileges and appurtenances. Subject to maintain the fence on the northeast sides as under obligation to James Millerd. Witn. James Millerd, John McElwain.

1822, 15 July, V. 7, p. 327. Garry Sanford of Stamford sold for $375 to James M. Baker of Stamford - the very same land deeded the same day from James Baker as described above. Additionally, Garry Sanford shall pay James M. Baker $373.75 and interest in 5 notes - one for $48.50 payable next January at Troy, another for $100 in one yr from 15 Oct., another for $87.50 in 3 yrs from 15 Oct., another for $87.50 in 4 yrs from 15 Oct. Ackn. before John McElwain, J. P. Recorded 26 May 1823.

This deed appears to be a mortgage of the above land sold on p. 326.

The building plans for The Erie Canal was postponed by the War of 1812. Although James<sup>2</sup> Baker was 16-18 during this war, his short obituary stated a service record War 1812, only for his father Matthew. Early in 1821, there was massive hiring for canal workers to build "Clinton's Ditch". The Canal was opened in 1825. Good pay was offered of twelve dollars a month and found.

According to Rev. James M.<sup>4</sup>, his grandfather James M.<sup>2</sup>, was called Squire. James<sup>2</sup> owned one of the first lines of boats on the Erie Canal. At one point in time he lost $40,000 on a shipment of grain, which was a big fortune in those days. He shipped wheat and pork from Camillus to New York. (Contending The Grade In India by James M. Baker 2nd).

Onondaga Centennial by Dwight Hall Bruce, p. 673 lists James M. Baker with 128 acres on Lot 76 and lot 77. We know this is our James M. re: his will mentions lot 76. On p. 680, James Baker of Camillus was mentioned as a prominent produce dealer.

At one point in time he lost $40,000 on a shipment of grain, which was a big fortune in those days. He shipped wheat and pork from Canilias to New York. (Continuing The Grade in India by James M. Baker Ind).

Grondage Canalized by Dwight Hall Brice, p. 673 lists James M. Baker with 128 acres on lot 38 and lot 39. We know this is our James M. as he will mention lot 38. On p. 680, James Baker of Canilias was mentioned as a prominent produce dealer.

James M. Baker moved to Camillus from Vt when his dau. Mary Carolyn was a small child. She was born Dec. 1820 in Vt. He first resided in a log cabin on land which in later years was the Merriman farm. He cleared away the forest on land he owned (on the Bennett's Corners Rd in the town of Camillus), where he raised his children. (obit. of dau. Carolyn, Skaneateles Free Press, Jan. 13, 1911).

A feather bed tick from the home of James Baker in possession of Lorenda Knox in 1924 was offered as a gift to the Peterson family who lived in the Baker house. Some of the feathers from the ticks had been used for pillows through the years, (Knox Letter).

Rev. James<sup>4</sup> M. Baker described his grandfather James<sup>2</sup> as "a very portly old gentleman, shrewd and kindly, living in the David Harum neighborhood. Generally, he was financially successful in his endeavors." (Contending The grade in India). On the 1850 and 1860 census, James was listed as a farmer. He also had a chair factory in back of the lovely house that he built on Bennett's Corner Road where Helen Kennedy now lives (1988) according to Mary Maxwell. Kennedys confirm the placement of the chair factory in a barn in back of the house on a stream. By 1855 census, son Jerome C. Baker operated the chair factory. That road was called "The Street", the "Oswego Bitter" vicinity and "The Bitters". It was once a lively community with many industries. (Amongt The Hills of Camillus, by Mary Maxwell).

The sons of James M.<sup>2</sup> all started housekeeping in this house. Later, his daughter, Mary C. ("Carolyn", Mrs. Isaac Parker) occupied the house until she was elderly, (Knox letters). Mr. Charles Peterson purchased the house in 1902, and it has been in his family to the present day with the occupancy of his daughter, Helen Kennedy, (Kennedy). I guess one could say that the house " bears acquaintance", to quote Lorenda Knox (1908), daughter of Mary C. Baker Parker. A large water wheel was powered by a pond on the property, to assist in the making of the chairs, just as the grist mills that ground wheat into flour were powered, (Maxwell or Knox).

1830 census, Camillus, Onon. Co. NY, p. 202, James M. Baker, 1 male under 5 yrs, 1 male 10-under 15 yrs, 1 male 30-under 40 yrs, 1 male 60-under 70 yrs, 1 female under 5 yrs, 2 females 5-under 10 yrs, 1 fem. 10-under 15 yrs, 1 female 15-under 20 yrs, 1 fem. 30-under 40 yrs, 1 female 60-under 70 yrs. The elderly couple in household were apparently his parents. All children are accounted for in age groups except 1 male 10-under 15 yrs, unknown relationship. He was of such a tender age that he may have been related. I do not believe he was a son, based on birth dates of other children Helen and Neil Kennedy who well knew the history of the house.

Helen nee Peterson has resided there since childhood.
Coincidentally, one of Helen's direct ancestors, Mary, widow of Christopher Thompson, M2, one of my direct ancestors, William McCracken St. Also, her grandfather Everett Jackson was employed by my great great-grandfather in his hardware shop.

A feather bed tick from the home of James Baker in possession of Lorenza Knox in 1924 was offered as a gift to the Peterson family who lived in the Baker house. Some of the feathers from the ticks had been used for pillows through the years.
(Knox letter).

(carpenter orig. handwritten)

Rev. James M. Baker described his grandfather James as "a very portly old gentleman, shrewd and kindly, living in the David Harris neighborhood. Generally, he was financially successful in his endeavors." (Concerning The grade in Indiana). On the 1850 and 1860 census, James was listed as a farmer. He also had a chair factory in back of the lovely house that he built on Bennett's Corner Road where Helen Kennedy now lives (1988) according to Mary Maxwell. Kennedy confirms the placement of the chair factory as a barn in back of the house on a stream. By 1870 census, son Jerome C. Baker operated the chair factory. That road was called "The Street", the "Gowanda River" vicinity and "The Bitter". It was once a lively community with many industries. (Among the Hills of Camillus, by Mary Maxwell).

The sons of James M. all started housekeeping in this house.
Later, his daughter, Mary C. ("Cathryn", M2, Helen Peterson) occupied the house until she was elderly. (Knox letters). Mr.
Charles Peterson purchased the house in 1901, and it has been in his family to the present day with the occupancy of his daughter, Helen Kennedy. (Kennedy). I guess one could say that the house "bears acquaintance", to quote Lorenza Knox (1908), daughter of Mary C. Baker Parker. A large water wheel was powered by a pond on the property, to assist in the making of the chairs. Just as the great mills that ground wheat into flour were powered. (Maxwell or Knox).

1830 census, Camillus, Onondaga Co. NY, p. 202, James M. Baker, 1 male under 5 yrs, 1 male 10-under 15 yrs, 1 male 20-under 30 yrs, 1 male 30-under 40 yrs, 1 female under 5 yrs, 2 females 5-under 10 yrs, 1 female 10-under 15 yrs, under 15 yrs, 1 female 15-under 20 yrs, 1 female 20-under 30 yrs, under 30 yrs. The elderly couple in household were apparently his parents. All children are accounted for in age groups except 1 male 10-under 15 yrs, unknown relationship. He was of such a tender age that he may have been related. I do not believe he was a son, based on birth dates of other children of James. Brother-in-law James Cole lived 2 houses away with Lydia Rockwell residing between them who had 1 female 40-50 and one female 70-80 and 1 male 15-20 yrs in household. Was Rockwell related? Loring Richmond resided nearby. On p. 210 appeared Jephtha, Elijah Baker near Sylvester Richmond and Calvin Baker.

(Lydia Rockwell b. ca 1785, d. 30 July 1877, 92 yrs, husb. Joseph B. b. ca 1779, d. 24 March 1830, 51 yrs, both bur. Onon. Co.).

1830 census, Tn Camillus, other Bakers: Calvin, Elijah and Jephtha.

1830, May 29, Polly Baker bpt., joined Elbridge Bpt. Church by L(etter?). This sentence follows: died in ?1832. Question mark appears in church record.

Maria Baker bpt. 29 May 1830, dismiss. by L(etter).

These seem to be two different Baker ladies. The first Polly/Mary may refer to 1st wife of James M. Baker who d. end of yr 1831. The second may refer to their ~~dau. Maria~~ Daughter Maria who was age 15 at that time, and prob. would join by Bpt. Dismissal date not mentioned for Maria.

1838, Oct. 10, Book 71, Onon. Co. NY. James M. and Mary Baker sold five acres of land on Lot 63 for $508 to Josiah Parker of New Haven, Addison Co. Vt. The property was in the town of DeWitt, formerly Manlius, Tully. The land bordered Timothy Graham, Luther Parker's house to Silas Burk's lot, to Graham's corners. Mary, in this deed, was his second wife of James Baker, his first wife Mary Parker being deceased. (Josiah and Luther Parker must have been related to James Baker's wife Mary Parker. Luther was b ca 1794, alive 1850 in Camillus, b. Ma, laborer, wf Elsie, b Ma, same age, dau. Julia Ann, b ca 1829, b NY).

1840 census, p. 400, James M. Baker in Camillus, NY, 40-50 yrs, with a male and female 70-80 yrs, probably his parents. 1 male under 5 yrs fits Charles A., 1 male 5-10 yrs fits son Henry J., 1 male 10-15 yrs fits son Jerome C., 2 males 20-30 yrs, 1 female 10-15 yrs (fits dau. Julia), 2 females 15-20 yrs fits Orinda and Mary Carolyn), 1 fem. 40-50 yrs prob. wf. 3 males were empl. agric. All ages accounted for except the 2 males 20-30 yrs, unknown relationship. One of these unknown males apparently with family in 1830.

(Dau. Lucy was prob. m. by 1840, since she had son b. 1841. Dau. Maria m. in 1834).

1843, 11 Feb., Bk 85, p. 49, Onon. Co. NY, Alexander A. Thompson and wife Jane of Van Buren, Onon. Co. sold 50 acres to James M. Baker of Camillus, for $1000 land in original township of Camillus, now in Van Buren. Beginning southeast corner bounded north by line of said lot, ~~W~~ by land heretofore sold to James and Nathan Williams, <sup>North</sup> by land formerly owned by John Polhemus, now owned by James Cole and east by the line of (inkblot) lot ?north being same lot Thompson now lives on and occupied last season. 1842, 25 Oct. Bk 85, p. 54, 55. Onon. Co. NY. Indenture. James M. Baker and wife Mary and Wilson Bates of Camillus sold 50 acres for $1650, lot 10, in Van Buren to James Cole of Camillus bounded: east by highway leading from the Oderkirk settlement to Iona, South by land formerly owned by John Myers, west by land heretofore sold to James Talmadge and north by land formerly in possession of James Plato and one third of where heretofore sold to Edward Ballinger. One other piece of land, (2nd) 12 acres in Van Buren on Lot 10, bounded: south by Nathan Williams land, west by John Malby, north by James Hodge, east by 1st described land above. Also another piece of land (3rd) 8 acres in Van Buren, Lot 11, bounded: north by Belding Ressigie, east by James Williams, south by Denison and Asher Marvin, west by lands of the 1st described 50 acres, all totalling 70 acres. Witn. Susan L. Smith. Henry Ferow, J.P. Ackn. before Charles T. Hicks, clerk 26 Oct 1842. Recorded 13 January 1844.

James Baker and James Cole were brothers-in-law, Cole having married Tryphenia, sister of James Baker. Wilson Bates was son-in-law of James M. Baker having married his dau. Lucy who died 1841. Belding Ressigie was related to Mary Larkin, 2nd wf of James M. Baker. (Was Nathan Williams of the family who married one of the Cole daughters)?

1843, 21 Oct. Bk 85, p. 58, Onon. Co. NY. Gardner Lawrence, Master of Chancery dwelling in Syracuse, sold 260 acres land excepting 66 acres heretofore sold to William Guppy and Abraham Van Auken for $2701 to James M. Baker town of Camillus, highest bidder, (land that was ordered sold at public auction by Albany court 30 Aug 1843, because of a certain cause between Daniel T. Mosely complainant and Eli Coon and wf (margaret defender). Land situated in Skaneateles, part of Lot 21 in original township of Marcellus. Boundaries were described including land originally conveyed by Daniel Van Auken and wf to Joshua Bates. Sealed and delivered 27 Oct 1843 before Gardner Lawrence. Daniel Pratt, 1st Judge. Recorded 15 January 1844 by Charles T. Hicks, clerk.

1844, 13 January, Bk 85, p. 59. Onon. Co. NY. James M. Baker and Mary his wife of Camillus NY, sold land on Lot 21 in Skaneateles, that was originally in township of Marcellus, for $2701 to Daniel Van Auken of Elbridge. Land was the same as in above deed. Eli Coon residing in Skaneateles appeared to vouch that he knew Mary Baker was wf of James M. Baker, before Richard P. Watson, J.P. Recorded 15 January 1844, Chas. T. Hicks, clerk. Coon was probably related to Mary Larkin Baker, wf of James.

1843, 31 January, Bk 86, p. 335, 336. Onon. Co. NY. Indenture between James M. Baker and wf Mary of Camillus, sold 86 acres Lot 63, for $3640 to John Morley of Manlius, land bounded n by Sylvester Richmond, w by James Auye, south by land formerly owned by Luther Case, east by center of road beginning from Sam Gilley's Mill to Felix Benton's Cloth Factory. Land same prev. deeded by Henry Ferow to John D. Norton and by him deeded to James M. Baker. Sealed and delivered in presence of H.F. Mather, 3 Feb. 1843. Ackn. before Henry Ferow, J. P. 1847, April 1, Book 92, p. 382, Onon. Co. NY. James M. and wife Mary Baker, Camillus, sold to Charles Campbell, 51 acres on Lot 88 for $2041. The property bordered Henry Weed's land to John E. Sanders and Isaac W. Sanders land on the road leading to Marcellus. To lands deeded this day to James Wood by Baker and wife to Harry Wood's land. (Note Wood/Baylies early connection in MA).

1847, April 1, James M. and Mary Baker sold to James Wood, 19 acres, part of lot 88, for $750. Think bordered from land of Benjamin Bucklin and Elizabeth his wife.

1847, April 1, Benjamin Bucklin and his wife Elizabeth sold to James M. Baker, Town of Camillus, Lot 88 for $2831, bordering Harry Weed's land to John E. and Isaac Sanders land on the road leading to Marcellus. Mortgage to James Wood, Recorded June 7, 1847.

1847, April 1, p. 412, Book 92, Charles and Helen Campbell sold to James M. Baker 100 acres of land of lot 63 in the town of Camillus for $4000. Land bordering Ethan Campbell. Mortgage Charles Campbell and Helen C. to William C. Van Vechten and Reed, Adm. of William M. Canfield, deceased, $967.

Acc. to Helen Kennedy, Brick House #3 in Among the Hills of Camillus, p. 20, was the one nearest to James Baker's frame house on Bennett's Corners Rd. It was across the street, 3rd house on right going toward Rt 5. It burned to the ground several yrs prior to 1993. It was owned by a Wm Davis in the 1930's, whose grandson Bob Fletcher bought the property after the fire.

1857, 4 March, Vol. L, p. 38. James M. Baker, a friend, was executor of the Will of Loring Richmond of Van Buren, formerly of Camillus. Will probated 4 Nov. 1859. Charles A. Baker, s/o James, of Camillus witnessed with Hannah M. Cole, d/o James and Tryphenia Baker Cole. Hannah lived with James M. Baker. Loring had purchased Lot 76 in Camillus in 1822 from Dennis Hess. James Baker had purchased the same yr, same lot from Henry Hess. Looks like Loring and James moved together from Stamford VT.

1857, By December, Mary Larkin Baker was incapable of managing anything, causing James<sup>2</sup> to put a clause in his will disinheriting Henry and Charles A. Baker if his wife Mary L. should by evil counsel or bad advice claim one third of his property. This is proof that they were sons by 2nd wife Mary L. Jerome, son by wife one, and Charles A., son by wife two, were executors of his will. The third executor was son-in-law. Isaac G. Parker.

Bequests to wife Mary were use of furniture, and her support as long as her natural life. Support from property, also his mother (Lydia), support out of property as long as she lives. Within less than a year, wife Mary died.

Bequests to his sons were;

1. Jerome C. $5000, making in all $12500 with heretofore given.
2. Charles A. $4000 and the north part of the home farm beginning at the road at my garden run on what is called the Rockwell line through to his east line on # 77, also, to have enough from the south part of the farm that is called the Bennett farm, which I bot (sic) from John and William Larkin. This was a total of 100 acres. He also was to have the privilege of one half the fruit on the Henry Z. Baker part.
3. Henry J. $4000, the farm that was purchased from Henry Hess and running through on the north line to the east line of lot # 77, a total of 100 acres and this land to be made even in the number of acres of land.

Note that the Z. initial is different from the J. initial on the names of Henry. Who was Henry Z. Baker?

Daughters named in will were Maria Larkins, $5000, three thousand heretofore given = $8000 total, to be pd by exec. in any notes held by James M. against G. N. (G. W. or G. A.?) Sherwood, in lieu of dower. (This may be Gaylord Noble Sherwood, father of E. Duane, who had mar. into the family). $5000 to Carolyn Parker with $3000 heretofore given = $8000.

Other daughters mentioned in his will were <sup>(sic)</sup> Julian Cook, $5000 with $3000 heretofore given. Orida B. Sperry, $5000 with what heretofore given equals $8000 and what remains due on H.W. Chadwick mortgage, shall be pd her as so much of her dower and Lucy Bates deceased. Lucy's son James Bates $3000. It would appear that James M. gave marriage dowers to his daughters of three thousand dollars each. He added five thousand dollars as bequests in his will.

Note that James M. Baker lived about nine years after this will was made, so that actual bequests may have been different. The will was finely and intelligently written. It appears to have been in the handwriting of James M. who would have been about sixty two years of age at the time. It appears as a somewhat shaky writing, as though the writer was elderly or ill. His sight must have been good as the letters were small.

Witnesses to the will were Alexander J. Dallas, Eugenia M. Downer and Hannah M. Cole, (his niece).

It appears that James M. had a close relationship with his sister Tryphenia who married James Cole, as witnessed by his will of December 1857, when this sister was alive. He left small bequests to seven of her unmarried daughters, excepting Hannah. Hannah was living with James M. at the time of the 1850, 1855 and 1860 census. It is probable that Hannah had received previous benefits directly.

1860 census, Camillus, house 1814, family 1818.

James M. Baker, b. Vt, age 65. Occupation "Gentleman". Real Estate value $16,000, property value $40,000. His mother Lydia Baker, 89 yrs, b. MA; Hannah Cole, age 24, b. NY, servant. Hannah was his niece, d/o Tryphenia Baker and James Cole. Excluding known family, his neighbors included Eugenie M. Downer, Nathaniel Wood, E. Stebbins, Mary L. Cook, Millions family, Thomas O' Brine from Ire. and Cyrus Sweet. (Census Reel 828, v 67, 1-865 and 1105-1188. Four houses away was Ira Richmond, 20, b. N.Y.S. with wife Carolyn and Harriet M. Downer, 15 years living with them.

(Note: age for Ira must be 30, based on 1850 and 1855 census).

Note: several of the family had Irish servants living with them in 1860 census. These people probably came when the Erie Canal was built.

Uncle Squire Millard 2nd, brother of his mother Lydia, was said to have died at the home of James M. Baker in Camillus. Squire 2nd died Camillus 1851, was of Stamford, VT where he was buried, (MA obit. from N. Adams Transcript).

Notes:

small gravestones in Maplewood Cem. Baker plot are Mary and Myron. Unplaced within family.

Who was Albert Baker in business in Buffalo with the sons of Chas. A. Baker in 1890's.

Erastus and Clarissa Baker ~~and~~ had 1858 deed transaction, Elbridge, Onondaga Co. NY with M.T. Sperry. Was he related to James M. Baker?

Note, withn. to will of James M. Baker:

Eugenia Downer, b. N.Y.S. was next door neighbor to James M. Baker. She was on 1860 census house 1815, family 1819, without a husband, and was 38 yrs for birth 1822, N.Y.S. She had ch. Huldah T., James b. 1851 and George T. b. 1855, ch. all b Mich. Harriet M. Downer, age 15 was in the household of Ira Richmond 20 yrs, apparently m. to Carolyn, age 25. Richmond lived four houses away. Eugenia had property worth $500 and RE $200. She was m by 1845. Huldah T. and Harriet M. Downer were daughters of B.T. and E.M. Downer. Huldah died 1868, 19 yrs, Harriet d. 1860, age 15. Both were buried Oswego Bitter Cem. Note that the Richmond family was connected to the Baker/Baylies family in Ma and to Baker/Millard family in Vt deeds. See Section 1. ante, Richmond Connections. Downer seems to belong to Richmond family.

1860, one Mathew M. Baker was living in Manlius, Onondaga Co. He was 30 yrs old, for birth in 1830. He is included here because he was b. in Vt., so may be related. He was a farm laborer with property worth $50. He had a wife Jane, age 23, who was b. NY, and a son John, age 7, b. NY. He lived between neighbors Goodfellow, and Alderman.
(Have some Manlius Baker info. in my files)

LARKIN/JOLLS/MUNRO

Basis for proof of lineage of Mary Larkin who married James M. Baker as d/o Amos Larkin<sup>5</sup>. Mary was a middle child of Amos, b. ca 1797 in Saratoga co. NY. She could have been daughter of either of his wives.

Amos Larkin was s/o (Joshua<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, Edward<sup>2</sup>, Edward<sup>1</sup>). He was b. 1760/61, he d 182-, buried Burnt Hills Cem. Saratoga Co. NY. Amos married 1 Apr. 1790, Mary Munro, (Amos Locking in Saratoga Co. NY Church record), poss. d/o Nathan Munro (Bennett<sup>3</sup>, Wm<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) and Catherine Bragg of Bristol R.I. and CT. (Joan Guilford).

Amos Larkin m2 between 1794-1803 to Mercy Jolls, widow of David Easterbrooks. Wd Mercy Larkin was alive 1830 census at Clifton Park, NY. (Anson Larkin Hist.; m. calc. from dod of 1st husb).

Mercy was born 11 Sept. 1770, Warren, RI. She was d/o John Jolls (Thomas<sup>3</sup>, Robert<sup>2</sup>, Thomas<sup>1</sup>) and Mary Cole, (Arnold, Bristol Co. RIVR 5:85). Her mother Mary Cole was b. 1746, d/o Peter Cole and Mary Salisbury (Saunders RIGM, V. }. Mercy married 2 Sept. 1792, David Easterbrooks (her name rec. as Massy Jolls at marriage in Warren VR, p 20.). David was b. 29 Oct. 1769, died 19 Oct. 1793. No known issue by her one yr marr. to Easterbrooks. David was a seaman who made his will aboard the Brig Sophia in the Port of Baltimore, 24 Sept. 1792, will probated 3 Feb. 1794. Wife Mercy was his only heir. (Warren, RI Wills, Inv. V.2:104-105). Mary Cole Jolls was b. 25 Dec. 1746, d/o Peter and Mary Salisbury Cole of Warren R.I. according to Dorothy C. Saunders R.I. G.R. V15:299, 1992. Peter then has calc. birth by 1726 or prior.

If Mercy was the mother of Mary Larkin Baker, the Baker family has a second ancestral line to Cole and Salisbury separate from the Wheeler connection. (Need parents of Peter Cole who had to be born by 1717 and his wife Mary Salisbury). No help from E.B. Cole Geny.

(Note: one Peter Cole m. Mary Marshall 1726 acc. to Gen'l Reg. of Plymouth Families by Davis, p. 67).

David was s/o Thomas and Lydia Cole Easterbrooks. Lydia Cole was 5th gen. from James Cole of Plymouth Colony. Lydia m2 her brother-in-law Nathaniel Easterbrooks. David Easterbrooks' brother Royal also moved to Saratoga Co. N.Y. (James Cole Geny by Ernest Byron Cole, p. 70; Easterbooks Geny, will and estate researched by Eliz. Larkin).

Anson Joseph Larkin, (1841-1904), whose father Harvey was 1st cousin to Mary/Polly Larkin Baker wrote a three page history of the Larkin family which correctly states that Polly Larkin m. James Baker. It correctly lists the two sons of Mary Larkin Baker and that her son Charles had four children and moved to Medina, that her son Henry J. moved to Minnecota, (sic).

The Anson Larkin history correctly lists Mary Larkin's brother John's mar. to Maria Baker, d/o James M. Baker. I put much weight on this proof because of the close relationship of Anson's family. It is my only proof which ties Mary to her father Amos Larkin. Murl Larkin, (res. CO 1993), sent me a copy of this history. He does not know if it is the original handwritten document. He received it from Mrs. William H. Larkin of Ballston Spa many yrs ago, (prob. deceased).

Anson Larkin's family history states that Polly's father was Amos Larkin, and that he mar. Mercy Joles whose maiden name was Easterbrook. It would seem that he had her surnames reversed.

I will quote excerpts from Anson's history as it relates to Polly Larkin who m. James M. Baker and her brother John Larkin who m Maria, dau. of her husb. James M. Baker.

"Joshua came to L.I. His ch. as far as can be remembered were AMOS, Samuel, Joseph, his sons, and Bethier, Polley his daughters.

AMOS Larkin m a wd by the name of Mercy Joles, her maiden name was Easterbrook from RI, hur first husb. was a salor. They lived at the Branch, he (Amos) d. there. There (sic) ch. were Amos, David, Albion J., John, Willum, Henry, sones (sic); POLEY, Bethier, Rebeca." (The Branch refers to an area of Ballston).

He then lists the hist. of each ch of Amos, only two of which concern us in the Baker family.

"John m. Meriah Baker, had 3 ch, Edwin, Mary, James, lived in Onon. Co. Edwin m Lucinda Fellows, lives at Camillus, got one boy. Mary m Duane Sherwood, lives at Camillus, has 2 ch, John and Carrie".

POLLEY Larkin m JAMES BAKER, lived and died in Onondaga Co. They had 2 sons, Henry and Chas. Henry m Fannie Stevens, has 1 boy Saml. Henry lives in Minnecota. Chas. m Mary Hinsdale, lives in Medina, Monroe Co. NY. They have 3 boys and 1 girl." (Note: Medina is in Orleans Co.).

I know the facts in the family history written by Anson J. Larkin to be correct as to John Larkin and Maria Baker's marriage and ch.; also Polly Larkin Baker's sons and her ch. New info here is that son Henry Baker moved to MN, agrees with 1870, 1880 census in MN. Stevens surname of wife agrees with 1850 or 1860 census rec. of Stevens relatives res. with Henry Baker.

Amos Larkin, Ballston census of 1790, was listed with 2 males over 16 and one female in household. He was the only one of the name in the census index for Saratoga Co. in 1800, the time frame when our Mary Larkin was a baby. He was listed with 3 males under 10, one male 26-45, one female under 10 and one female 26-45 yrs. In 1810, he was still there, with 3 males under 10, 2 males 10-16, one male 16-26, one male over 45. He had 2 females under 10, one female 10-16 yrs. From this we can deduce that he was b between 1756 and 1765 and that his wf was b 1756-1774. Cem. rec. gives his birth as 29 Apr 1761, d. 1827, bur. Ballston. Mary Larkin, b. ca 1797, fits the category in 1800 under 10 and in 1810 10-16 yrs. Amos was still in Ballston in 1820.

David E. Larkin and Mercy Larkin appear in Clifton, Saratoga Co. census in 1830, pp. 133-134. Mercy was listed as widow of Amos in 1802 church rec. and David E. her son, (Voorhees, Saratoga Ch rec; Eliz. Larkin Mss). David E. Larkin was in Van Buren, Onon. Co. by 1840 census. Mary Larkin, b ca 1800 calc., d. Oct. 3, 1840, 40 yrs, bur. Oswego Bitter Cem. Camillus. Grst. read by author 1989, lists her as wf of David E. Larkin. Nee Betts, d/o Taylor.

Joshua Larkins was in Ballston in 1790, (which was then in Albany Co.), with 2 males over 16 and 3 females in household. Joshua resided near Robert and Eleizur Millard, cousins to Lydia Millard, wf of Matthew Baker. Amos lived 19 houses away from Joshua acc. to census list. Joshua<sup>4</sup>, father of Amos<sup>5</sup>, m Bethia whose surname was prob. Hicks. Joshua<sup>4</sup>'s line was Joseph<sup>3</sup>, Edward<sup>2</sup>,<sup>1</sup> of Westerly, R.I. Joshua is not on the census index in 1800, 1810 or 1820. Ballston was first settled in 1763 and founded in 1788. The First Presbyterian Church of which the family were members was built in 1792.

JOSEPH BAKER AND ABIGAIL RAYMOND

4. Joseph Baker was the son of Matthew<sup>1</sup> and Lydia Millard Baker #1. Joseph was born July 4, 1797, Vermont, probably in Stamford, Bennington County. He was of New Haven, Oswego Co. N.Y. when he made his will 21 Aug 1871, Bk N, p.165-166. His son Lyman S. Baker made application for proving Joseph's will 26 Aug. 1878. Estate probated in Village of Mexico, Oswego Co. 7 Oct. 1878.

IGI listing for son James A. Baker, lists both parents Joseph and Abigail Baker buried in Vermilion, Oswego Co. N.Y.

Tena (Millard) Jordan records, Joseph died 22 Feb. 1874/6.

Joseph Baker married Feb. 9, 1817 Abigail Raymond, (Raymond Gen'y) (m. 1816 acc. to Daisy Millard Zwicky, dec'd).

Abigail<sup>6</sup> Raymond was born 9 March 1797, Stamford Vermont according to the Raymond Genealogy. She died 2 August 1878, according to Tena Millard Jordan, dec'd). IGI lists her death 21 Aug. 1878 in listing of her son James A. Baker.

Abigail was the 10th child of Elisha<sup>5</sup> (William<sup>4</sup>, Thomas<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>,<sup>1</sup>) and Abigail (Inman) Raymond, according to the Raymond Genealogy, V.2, by Samuel Edward Raymond, published 1972, copy at Miami FL Public Library. Abigail died in Oswego Co. N.Y. The Raymond family was of Middleboro, Beverly, Salem, MA and Gloucester, R.I.).

Elisha Raymond, born 1761-, died 1842 while visiting at his son's home in Racine Wisconsin. He married 25 April 1781 at Gloucester, R.I. He served as a Revolutionary War soldier in R.I., Pension W26362. Is number correct, W means widow? Elisha resided Milwaukee, 1842, (Ref. Boston Transcript June 23, 1930, #149; Raymond Gen'y). Abigail (Inman) Raymond born ca 1761, died 1851, age 91, Stamford VT. Widow Rev. War Pension #W1845. Elisha Raymond was very early in Stamford VT.

1871, 21 Aug. New Haven, Oswego Co. N.Y. Bk N, p. 165. Joseph Baker made his Will and left all his estate, real and personal, to his wife Abigail; she was to be his executrix. Timothy W. Skinner of Mexico and John Brechamber of New Haven N.Y. witnessed the will; they deposed on 7 Oct. 1878 as to the will's validity to Nathan B. Smith. Both witnesses were of Oswego Co. Recorded 7 Oct 1878. Heirs were to appear in Village of Mexico, 7 Oct 1878. Joseph's children were not named in his will. Son Lyman S. Baker was the executor of Joseph's estate on 26 August 1878, just after the death of his mother Abigail.

Will/Testator Index; Abigail Baker of Palermo, Oswego Co. N.Y. Bk N:169, (Bk N, yrs 1877-1882), likely Joseph's wife. Joseph's Will was listed in same Bk N:165, which indicates that they died close to the death date of each other. I have not obtained Abigail's Will Joseph Baker does not appear in Stamford Vermont records as an adult. Men usually appeared on the Grand List at Stamford when they reached the age of 21 yrs, which would have been the year 1818 for Joseph.

Joseph's Uncle Stephen Millard, last appeared in Stamford in 1817 when he apparently moved to Smithfield, Madison Co. N.Y. Census records show that Joseph Baker's daughter Anna was born 1820 in N.Y.S. and his sons Orris and Zelick were born in Madison Co. NY 1819 and 1824. It would appear that Joseph moved ca 1817 to N.Y.S. with his Uncle Stephen Millard.

1820 Census, Smithfield, Madison Co. N.Y., p. 41, Joseph Baker, 16-26 yrs, (birth ca 1794-1810), employed agriculture; 1 female under 10, (birth ca 1810-19); 1 female 10-16, (b. ca 1804-1810), too old to be d/o Joseph; 1 female 16-26, (b. ca 1794-1804), prob. his wife. They resided near Uncle Stephen Millard, brother of his mother. Arch Lawson resided between the two families. Was Lawson related? Madison Co. abuts Onondaga Co.

Many others of the Raymond family moved to Madison Co. N.Y. and also on to Palermo, Oswego Co. N.Y.

1830, New Haven, Oswego Co. N.Y. Joseph Baker, p. 165, Index shows males 120001, females 001001.

Neighbors in 1830 were Joshua Clark, Joseph Barton, Almond Lindley. No other Bakers were listed in New Haven.

1830, New Haven N.Y. Calvin Eason and a female of age to be his wife, and an older male, no others in hh.

1830 New Haven N.Y. Richard Eason.

1830 New haven NT, neighbors were Levi Johnson, Philip Delano, Peter Grove, Abiathar and Carmi Millard who were distantly related to Joseph Baker.

1840, no Joseph Baker in New Haven, Oswego Co. N.Y., but an Oris Baker there, males: one 50-60, two 20-30, one 15-20, one 10-15; females one 20-30, two 15-20, three 10-15, one under 5. (Was he s/o Joseph? Was Joseph the older man in household)?

One J.W. Baker in Granby 1840, male 40-50, one under 5, one-5-10. two 10-15, one 15-20; females 40-50 and one 15-20.

31 Dec. 1907, Auburn SemiWeekly Journal listed obit. of Lyman who died 17 Dec. at 1 McMaster Place, Auburn, home of his daughter Mrs. James Merritt. Survivors were a sister Mrs. Emma Brownell of Vermilion, a nephew James Baker of Orwell N.Y., 3 nieces Miss Ida B. Brownell of Vermilion, Mrs. Fayette Temple of Mexico, N.Y., and Mrs. Dolt Candee of Wisconsin.

I cannot identify the last named Candee, but I presume she was of the line of Theodosia Baker, Mrs. Charles Hall or or Emma Baker, Mrs. Ward Canedy, who both had resided in St. Croix, WI.

29 people were listed in The Auburn Citizen, Cayuga Co. N.Y. newspaper, Feb. 29, 1908, as heirs of Lyman S. Baker, deceased, in 1908. They were all children, grandchildren or great grandchildren of Joseph and Abigail (Raymond) Baker. They were to appear at Auburn, Cayuga Co. N.Y. Surrogate Court 28 March 1908 for probate of Lyman's will. Sealed 14 Feb 1908 by Walter E. Woodin, Surrogate. F.E. Hughitt of Auburn N.Y. was att'y for the Petitioner George A. Baker.

George A. Baker of Fleming, Cayuga Co. N.Y. was the Executor and Petitioner for Lyman's estate. Lyman made his will 20 November 1907. His wife predeceased him. The heirs were all siblings, nieces, nephews and great nieces and great nephews of Lyman.

I cannot identify the executor George as a relative.

Gen. 2.

LYDIA BAKER AND REV. ELISHA D. HUBBELL

5. Lydia Baker was born abt 1801, probably at Stamford, Bennington Co. Vermont. She died 4 March 1871, age 70, buried Clifton Park Baptist Church Cem. Saratoga Co. N.Y. with her husband. She was d/o Matthewl Baker and his wife Lydia Millard. The cemetery is located back of the church on Clifton Park Center Road between Visscher Ferry and Miller Rd, (ref: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nysarato/cpfor.htm>).

Hubbell - Lydia married 22 March 1821, Stamford, Bennington Co. VT, as second wife to Rev. Elisha D. Hubbell of Egremont, MA. He was s/o Ezra (d. March 5 1828, 72 yrs) and Love Dibble (d. May 28, 1835, 71 yrs) Hubbell. Was his middle name Dibble? (Marr. ref: Stamford VT V.R. FHC Reel 28920. A loose handwritten paper at the Syracuse N.Y. Library vertical file states that Lydia, dau. of Matthew Baker married Rev. Elisha Hubbell and resided at Half Moon, N.Y. Elisha was born 7 January 1795, died 7 May 1839 Clifton Park. (Clifton Park Bapt. Church Cem. list).

Elisha had a previous wife Mary Knapp who died 5 Sept. 1819 age 17 yrs (for birth ca 1802) according to Cemetery Records of Egremont, Berkshire Co. MA p. 3 of a 32 page book by Arthur D. Fiske publ, 1963, copy in possession of Phil Ellsworth, a desc. of Elisha's sister Florella. Elisha's parents are also listed in this book, all in Riverside Cem. N. Egremont MA. No known issue by first wife Mary. If she died at age 17, they must have been married only a short time. Mary may have been related to Josiah and Hannah Knapp of which Hannah was b. 1 Feb 1776 and d. 1 Feb. 1856 @ 80 yrs and buried in S. Egremont Cem., listed in same Cem. bk.

Elisha D. Hubbell of Clifton Park Saratoga Co. N.Y. wrote his will for his personal property 19 April 1839, Bk 11, p. 103-107.

I, Elisha D. Hubbel turn over to my executors all my property consisting of 3 notes, one signed by Edmond Millard of $300, two signed by Eunice Armstrong amounting to $300, all other personal property to the benefit of my family. Second, I give to Mindwell Evans her choice of any book in my library. Further I appoint Abijah Peck Jr. and John Peck my executors. Signed Elisha D. Hubbel. Witnesses John S. Groom, Hannah Wally, Mindwell Evans. Rec. 22 May 1839. Certified by John W. Thompson.

The last will of Elisha D. Hubbel relates exclusively to his personal property. He left a widow Lydia B. Hubbel, two sons Edwin S. and John M. and one daughter Hannah Sophia Hubbel, who all resided in Clifton Park, and were his only next of kin. The children were all minors and had no general Guardian within this State and therefore Anson Brown Esq. of Milton in Saratoga Co. consented in writing to be their special Guardian to take care of their interests.

1810 census Stockbridge MA, Ezra Hubbell 1 male b. bef. 1765, 2 fem. b. bef. 1765, 1 male b. 1784-1794, 1 male b. 1794-1800, 2 females b. 1784-1794.

Hist. of the County of Berkshire <sup>MA</sup> publ. 1829, says Elisha D. Hubbell from W. Stockbridge MA served Baptist Church of Egremont for a time and then moved to NY. A History publ. 1885 <sup>Pub.</sup> says that Elisha Hubbell served there from 1818 to 1824. (Ellsworth)

History of Western MA by Josiah Holland p. 487, states that Elisha Hubbell was Pastor of Baptist church of Egremont in 1818 when he succeeded Daniel Sherwood. The church was organized 1787, church built 1817. It was near the village in the north part of the town.

History of Saratoga Co by Nathaniel Sylvester, p. 351 lists Rev. Elisha D. Hubbell as the First Pastor of First Baptist Church organized at Middleton, Half Moon, 1835. This was successor to the old church at Newtown, 2 1/2 miles from Mechanicsville. Elder Palmer succeeded him as Pastor in 1836. John Miller was a member of this church between 1835-40. Was John a Millard cousin? (Church formed Nov 10 1835. Rev E.D. Hubbell was first pastor of new Bpt ch. of Egremont, Saratoga Co N.Y.)

1820 census Lydia was prob. the female 16-26 who appeared with her father Matthew Baker in census at Stamford Bennington Co. VT.

One might speculate that Lydia met her future husband through her brother Rev. Mathew Baker Jr. who was also a Baptist preacher.

1830-1870 census needed.

ANCESTRY OF ELISHA D. HUBBELL

F.H.C. film 1665847 Berkshire Co. MA Shephard Collection, towns Clarksburg to Hinsdale, searched by Grace Mayer lists Probate 4741 of estate of Ezra Hubbell, will 5/12 1823 probated 1/4 1828. These must be inverted dates and should read will 5 Dec. 1823, probated 1 April 1828, based on Ezra's death 5 March 1828 from church record and dau. Sally's marr. after Dec. 1823 as given in 1995 suppl. of Hubbell Geny. Wife's name was Love.

Ch. Hubbell in will.

- b-1795* 1. Elisha D. who was exec. of will, living at Half Moon, Saratoga Co. NY at time of probate. He supplied Baptist Church 1815-1820, (presumably in Egremont).

2. Sally m. Eliada Bassett. (ck Saratoga Co. Cems).

b-1784/94 - 3. Florella m. Mr. Millard. (Edmund Millard). Florella = b 1794

4. Eli. (Eli and Catherine Hubbell of MA, NY, Bradford Co. PA in 1780/90, Wells PA in 1830, Buchanon Co. MO 1850-1880; had ch. Angeline, Florella b. 1820 NY, Sarah M., Ezra b. 1823 NY, Olive, Diantha. Son Ezra moved to Tonganoxicks Leavenworth Co in 1882. Fam. bur. in Hubbell Cem. there).

(Note Florella's Millard husb. was NOT related to the Squire Millard family. Sally married after Dec. 1823 will of her father, (ref. 1995 Hubbell suppl.).

From 1810 census, Stockbridge MA for Ezra Hubbell it would appear that Eli was b. bet. 1784/94, Elisha b. bet 1794/1800 and both daus. b. 1784/94.

Elisha was of the 6th generation descending from the Immigrant Richard Hubbell and his 2nd wf Eliz. Gaylord, early 1600's, who resided in what was then Fairfield New Haven Colony and is now in Bridgeport, Fairfield Co. CT. Lineage continues with James2 #12, Andrew3 #44 and his 1st wf Sarah Parruck, Parruck4 #182 and wife Lydia Beardsley, Ezra5 #540 and wife Love Dibble. (Ref: The History and Genealogy of the Hubbell Family by Harold Berresford Hubbell and Donald Sidney Hubbell 3rd Edition 1980). This edition does not list Ezra's son Elisha D.

Hubbell.

A 1995 supplement Additions and Revisions to History and Genealogy of the Hubbell Family by Harold B. Hubbell and Roscoe Leroy Hubble linked Elisha #1464 to his father Ezra (new #568, old #540) with wife Love Dibble, d/o Elisha and Mary Dibble of Danbury CT. (Elisha Dibble's 1795 estate). Ezra #568 joined First Baptist Church N. Egremont MA 1815. Son #1464 Elisha D. Hubbell's marriage date and place was listed correctly to Lydia Baker (ref. Ko m/r marr. rec. from a large file researched by Mrs. Mrs. Wm Cheney of N.Y.) and their correct death dates in Clifton Park, N.Y. cem. with their dau. Hannah. The suppl. omits his ~~other ch.~~ It questions how Lydia Hubbell who joined 1st Bpt. Ch. at North Egremont 1821 and later dismissed was related to Ezra I postulate that she was Lydia Baker, the newly married wife of Ezra's son Elisha D. Hubbell #1464.

Elisha D. Hubbell was listed as serving Egremont Bpt. Church 1815-1820, Sheffield MA Bpt. Ch. 1815-1823, first Pastor of first Bpt. church Half Moon N.Y. 1828. The suppl. also lists a possible previous marriage for Elisha to Mary Knapp who died 5 Sept. 1819, age 47, (age wrong, should be 17 yrs) buried Riverside Cem. North Egremont MA. (Ref. for this first marriage is listed as MS which refers to notes found on page 432, inside The Hubbell Family History by Walter Hubbell publ. in 1881, which book was at Newberry Public Library in Chicago IL. Ref. S1 refers to the b. and d. dates of Lydia Hubbell and dau. Hannah from Stanley Moore of MA who researched this line, address not avail. This was prob. taken from the Clifton Park cem. record.

The suppl. lists Elisha at Clifton Park Baptist Church ca 1800 at which time he was only 5 yrs old and is incorrect.

Mr. Phil Ellsworth descends from Vienna Millard, Mrs. Wm B. Ellsworth, who was d/o Florella Hubbel and Edmond Millard. He wrote that Edmond desc. from the Humphrey Millard family, not the Rehoboth MA family, thus was NOT related to Lydia Baker Hubbel. He cites N.Y. Record April 1915 for the N. Egremont MA family. The Ellsworth family were of Ballston, Saratoga co. N.Y.

Sheffield MA is close to Egremont. Elisha may well have served two churches simultaneously.
Sally #1463, d/o Ezra Hubbell, m. Eliada Bassett after Dec. 1823 will of her father.

Florella #1465, b. 1798, d/o Ezra Hubbell, m. Edmund Millard of N. Egremont. Joined First Baptist church May 1816 by letter. (Hubbell Supplement) ref.

(The Millard marr. fits well with the $300 note that Edmond Millard owed to the estate of Elisha D. Hubbell. Florella and sister Sally and brother Eli born 1784/94 acc. to 1810 census).

The 1995 suppl. lista Katherine as a poss. d/o Ezra Hubbell. Katherine was not named in Ezra's will. This Katherine and Eli Hubbell were both bpt. 9 Nov 1816 1st Bpt. Ch. N. Egremont MA. Katherine was later dismissed. Eli was prob. the known s/o Ezra who was not given a # in the suppl. Was Katherine the wf of Eli?

Notes about names in the will of Elisha: Abijah Peck Sr. was a Baptist Preacher of Clifton Park who had sons Abijah Jr. and John Peck who were probably the executors of the will of Elisha Hubbel. Abijah Jr. was a Representative from Saratoga Co. in the State legislature in 1841. Their sister Ruth m. Andrew Evans. Their brother John Peck m. Maria Montgomery. Abijah Jr. m1. Caroline Vanderburgh and m2 Jane Reed. (Geny of Desc. of Wm Peck of New Haven by Darius Peck. See "Millard's family History for possible Reed connection. of Rehoboth"

Abijah Peck Sr. was anc. of Dr. Dorothy Branson according to one ref. I saw. Do I still have her address, correp. many yrs ago on another surname?

Other Notes:

One Lydia Hubbell was in Barton, Tioga Co. N.Y. in 1850 census, b. ca 1888 N. Y. Age wrong for our Lydia.

One John Hubbell was in Barton Tioga Co 1850 p 12. he was 24 yrs old b. NY ca 1826. He had wf Betsy 24 NY and ch. Amanda 1 yr. Next neighbor was Wm Thorpe 43 b. NY and Wm Thorpe 77 yrs b. CT. Note that one of our Bakers in Tn Camillus res. next to a Thorpe family.

The Hubbell Soc'y Genealogist, Hilbert Hubble, writes that this John belongs to a different Hubbell family.

Sidney B. Hubbell had will or estate, Saratoga Springs N.Y. 1909-1915, p. 1. Emily R. Hubbell of Ballston, Saratoga Co. N.Y. had will or estate 1885-1887, p. 172, (Sampubco Will Index on internet).

ck - 7 Daisy Zwicky had Lydia Baker m. to a Richardson which is incorrect. Perhaps another related Baker m. a Richardson. 1810 census, Adams, MA, David, George and Jonathan Richardson. 1820, David Richardson in Adams, Berkshire Co. Ma, p.70. 1860, Richardson in Onondaga Co. were: Andrew resided Pompey; Ann resided Marcellus; Charles M. resided Fayetteville; Barrie, resided Spafford; Henry resided Lysander and Pompey; and J.M. who resided De Witt and more of this name. No Lydia as head of household.

One Lydia Millard, b. 1767, d/o Joseph5 (Jos4) and Thankful

Gilmore Millard did m. Mr. Richardson, (DSGR, Winter 1961/2, p. 65). Jos.5 was bro. of Squire I. Perhaps Zwicky had these ladies mixed up.

Matthew Baker was the youngest son of Matthew Baker and Sarah Millard. He was born 28 August 1806 Vermont town. 1806. She was born Stamford, Vermont. 1806. Some of the names of her father indicates her birth to 1806-1808. Sally died 12 October 1877. 24 yrs. 2 months. 2 days. in Care, Cayuga Co. N.Y. She and her husband were buried in Ireland Cem. Cayuga Co. N.Y. which was some part of Brother's (Brooklyn Cayuga Co. Conn. records online lists them as Croshaw). She signed his name to his Will as Croshaw.

This cemetery is located on the west side of Santa Bridge Rd just past October's Rd. travelling north. It sits on hill 22 to the old military township of Spruce just of Hunter Creek. This is now in Care, in the early 1870's this was between the 14th of Cayuga and Spruce. At one point in time it was called the Croshaw (old) Cem. Sally's maiden name was not listed in the cem. record. They had resided in Care for many years.

Two of their children were Mary, b. 1808, Josephine b. 9 Feb. 1810, 17 yrs. 4 mos. 10 ds. in 1827 and Martha b. 1833. d. 1 April 1881. 4 yrs. 2 mos. 17 d.

Bartholomew Baker married 25 May 1876, 16. 40 d. probably in Cayuga Co. N.Y. to Ann Croshaw. He was a farmer. Ann Croshaw, a member of the same Baptist church in Spruce N.Y. where the Matthew Baker family worshipped in 1870. Sarah's maiden name appeared on the death certificate of Marian Chapman (Croshaw), who was a daughter of John Baker and Ann Croshaw. The information for the death certificate was supplied by Gary Welch, son of Marian. The 1970 Census Cemetery lists Ann Croshaw's wife as Sarah Baker according to descendant Gary Welch.

The 1867 History of Mason Co. N.Y. gives a biography of Rufus Croshaw which notes his parents as John Croshaw born in 1780 in Cayuga Co. N.Y. and wife Sarah Baker, a native of Vermont. The biography mentions Luther's maternal grandfather was John Baker, but doesn't give his name. This would be John Baker who married Matthew Baker and lived in Care. The bio. states that this grandfather lived in the Cayuga during the war. She tells him very rarely of John Baker. The bio. states that was also a farmer, a good school teacher at the time of the war, and a man of a profession. The bio. states that was also a farmer, a good school teacher at the time of the war, and a man of a profession. The bio. states that was also a farmer, a good school teacher at the time of the war, and a man of a profession.

Ann Croshaw was born 28 August 1806 in Cayuga Co. N.Y. and died in Care, Cayuga Co. N.Y. 12 Oct. 1877. 71 yrs. 2 months. The cemetery is on the west side of Santa Bridge Rd. just past October's Rd. travelling north.

This cemetery is located on the west side of Bonta Bridge Rd just past Jorolemon Rd. travelling north. It sits on Lot 32 in the old military Township of Brutus, east of Muskrat Creek. This is now in Cato. In the early 1800's this was between the farms of Lawrence and Rogers. At one point in time it was called the Crossman (sic) Cem. Sally's maiden name was not listed in the cem. record. They had resided in Cato for many years.

Two of their children were buried with them: Josephine d. 9 Feb. 1863, 17 yrs, 4 mo, 21 d. (b. ca 1845) and Martha b. 1838, d. 1 April 1841, 2 yrs, 9 mo, 10 d.

Sarah/Sally Baker married 25 May 1824, (G. Welch) probably in Camillus Onondaga Co. N.Y. to Asa Crossman. He was a farmer. Asa Crossman, a member of the same Baptist church in Elbridge N.Y. where the Matthew Baker family worshipped in 1822. Sarah's maiden name appeared on the death certificate of Marian Crossman (Coleman), who was a daughter of Sarah Baker and Asa Crossman. The information for the death certificate was supplied by Gary Welch, son of Marian. The 1979 Coleman Genealogy lists Asa Crossman's wife as Sarah Baker according to descendant Gary Welch.

The 1880 History of Macon Co. IL gives a biography of Rufus Crossman which names his parents as Asa Crossman born in Elbridge, Onon. Co. N.Y. and wife Sarah Baker, a native of Vermont. The biography mentions Luther's maternal grandmother who died at age 99, but doesn't give her name. (This would be Lydia Millard who married Matthew Baker and died at age 95). The bio. states that this grandmother lived in New England during the Rev. War. She told him many tales of olden times. The bio. states that Asa was a farmer, a good citizen, a Deacon in the Baptist Church, and a man of a benevolent and charitable disposition.

Asa Crossman was born 10 March 1801 in Columbia Co. N.Y. Asa died in Cato, Cayuga Co. N.Y. on 6 Dec. 1876 at 75 years, 9 months. The cemetery listing calls him Deacon. (Cayuga Co.

SARAH BAKER AND ASA CROSSMAN

Sarah/Sally Baker was the daughter of Matthew Baker and Lydia Milard. She was born 10 August 1808 Vermont (Cem. rec.). She was born Stamford, Bennington Co. Vermont, 1808. Stamford census of her father indicates her birth ca 1808. 1808. Sally died 12 October 1870, 64 yrs, 2 months, 2 days, in Cato, Cayuga Co. N.Y. She and her husband were buried in Ireland Cem. Cato, Cayuga Co. N.Y. which was once part of Bruma. (Kroonswa Cayuga Co. Cem. records online lists them as Crossman). As signed his name to his will as Crossman.

This cemetery is located on the west side of Route Bridge Rd just past Johnston Rd. Travelling north. It sits on lot 32 in the old military Township of Rutus, east of Muskrat Creek. This is now in Cato. In the early 1800's this was between the farms of Lawrence and Rogers. At one point in time it was called the Crossman (sic) Cem. Sally's maiden name was not listed in the cem. record. They had resided in Cato for many years.

Two of their children were buried with them: Josephine b. 2 Dec. 1827, 17 yrs, 4 mo, 21 d. (b. ca 1845) and Martha b. 1838, d. 1 April 1841, 2 yrs, 8 mo, 10 d.

Sarah/Sally Baker married 25 May 1824, (G. Welch) probably in Camillus Onondaga Co. N.Y. to Asa Crossman. He was a farmer, Asa Crossman, a member of the same Baptist church in Elbridge N.Y. where the Matthew Baker family worshipped in 1823. Sarah's maiden name appeared on the death certificate of Marian Crossman (Coleman), who was a daughter of Sarah Baker and Asa Crossman. The information for the death certificate was supplied by Gary Welch, son of Marian. The 1875 Coleman Genealogy lists Asa Crossman's wife as Sarah Baker according to descendant Gary Welch.

The 1880 History of Mason Co. 12 gives a biography of Rutus Crossman which names his parents as Asa Crossman born in Elbridge, Onon. Co. N.Y. and wife Sarah Baker, a native of Vermont. The biography mentions Luther's maternal grandfather who died at age 99, but doesn't give her name. (This would be Lydia Milard who married Matthew Baker and died at age 92). The bio. states that this grandmother lived in New England during the Rev. War. She told him many tales of such times. The bio. states that Asa was a farmer, a good cultivator, a Deacon in the Baptist Church, and a man of a benevolent and charitable disposition.

Asa Crossman was born 10 March 1801 in Columbia Co. N.Y. Asa died in Cato, Cayuga Co. N.Y. on 6 Dec. 1876 at 75 years, 9 months. The cemetery listing calls him Deacon. (Cayuga Co.

Cems. online). He was the son of Lemuel Crossman and his wife Lovicy Andrews. (See Gary Welch info. below).

Asa Crossman was baptized 15 April 1821 in Elbridge Baptist Church, Onondaga Co. N.Y. Baptists usually baptize when children are teenagers. This is the same church that Sarah's father Matthew Baker joined in 1822. Lemuel Crossman was Trustee of this church in 1822 when Matthew joined. The Baptist Society of that church was formed in 1816 and likely had a small congregation at the time that Matthew was a newmember.

Gary Welch garywelch@flexnet.net emailed me that he is a descendant of Asa, who was one of the fourteen ch. of Lemuel Crossman and his wife Lovicy Andrews. Lemuel married 3 Nov. 1795 in Hillsdale, Columbia Co. N.Y. They resided in Elbridge in 1803 and 1822 and was there in 1830 on census. Lemuel was a founder of the Elbridge Baptist Church. Asa had a brother Amos.

Lemuel Crossman was born 10 Feb. 1772 CT, died 21 May 1853 in Elbridge/Camillus Onondaga Co. N.Y. He was the s/o Phineas Crossman who d. 1801 in Granville MA. Lovicy was b. 16 Sept. 1776, d. 1 Nov. 1857.

He made an antenuptial agreement on 9 Sept. 1871. Bequests to children: $200 to Mary, wife of George Barnes; $100 at age 21 to each of his 3 grandchildren of his deceased daughter Harriet, late wife of Jesse Hulett living near Lansing Michigan; $3000 to be invested at interest for the comfort, support and maintenance for the lifetime of dau. Louisa Sheldon. She could draw on the principal if necessary.

The rest of the estate in equal shares to his children Hiram H., Rufus, Harrison, Squire A., Caroline, wife of Titus Sleight, Martha, wife of Sidney L. Webb, and Marian, wife of Samuel Coleman. (Daughter Louisa must have been without a husband in 1872).

Asa directed that his coffin and the monument for his grave was to equal that of his DECEASED WIFE SALLY CROSMAN.

Executors were sons-in-law Sidney L. Webb and Titus Sleight of Cato. Witnesses Sprague and Polly A. Morley of Meridian, Cayuga Co. N.Y.

1860 added -
The executors petitioned the Surrogate Court of Cayuga Co. for recording the Will on 11 Dec. 1876. They list all the heirs including the widow. Residences of the children were as follows: Hiram in Napoleon, Henry Co. Ohio; Laura Sheldon, Caroline Sleight and Martha Webb of Cato; <sup>MARY</sup> Rufus, Harrison and Squire of Forsythe, Macon Co. IL; Mry Barnes of Jordan, Onondaga Co. N.Y.; Martha Coleman of Victory, N.Y. All were of full age. Grandchildren were Marian, Charles and James Hulett, all minors residing with their father Jesse Hulett in Okemmis Ingham Co. Michigan. The estimated value of the Estate was $10,000.

A stained glass window in the Cato Baptist church was dedicated in the name of Sally's husband Asa Crossman. Asa also had an Uncle Asa (G. Welch).

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN.

I, Asa Crosman of the town of Cato, Cayuga County N.Y. of the age of seventy one years and upwards being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, that is to say:

First. – After all my lawful debts are paid and discharged, I give and bequeath unto my dearly beloved wife Mary A. Crosman the sum of three hundred dollars in addition to what I have already agreed to give her in accordance with the provisions of an ante-nuptial agreement made between me and her and bearing the date the ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy one, Said three hundred dollars and the provisions of said ante-nuptial agreement to be hers in lieu of Dower.

Second – I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Barnes the wife of George Barnes the sum of two hundred dollars.

Third – To my three grandchildren, children of my deceased daughter Harriet Hulett late wife of Jesse Hulett now living near Lansing in the State of Michigan I give and bequeath to each of them the sum of one hundred dollars to be paid to them each at the age of 21 years.

Fourth – I will and direct my executors hereinafter named out of the estate that I shall leave at my decease to take the sum of three thousand dollars and safely put the Same at interest for the comfort, support and maintainance [sic] of my daughter Louisa Sheldon for and during the term of her natural life and at her decease to dispose of such principle sum in accordance with the provisions of the Sixth belowitem of this instrument.

Fifth – Legacies in the first and second and third items of this instrument I will and direct to be paid to my said executors hereinafter named at the expiration of eighteen months from the time of my decease, and all legacies and provisions herein before named to commence drawing interest at the time of my decease.

Sixth – All the rest and residue of the estate which I leave at my decease I give and bequeath in husb of Sarah Baker

*Louisa

equal shares to my children Hirem H. Crosman, Rufus Crosman, Harrison Crosman, Squire A. Crosman, Caroline Sleight wife of Titus Sleight, Martha Webb wife of Sidney L. Webb, and Marian Coleman wife of Samuel Coleman, to them each and equally, Share and Share alike.

Seventh – For the purpose of carrying into effect the foregoing provisions of this instrument, paying the aforesaid legacies, and making the aforesaid provisions and divisions I hereby authorize my Executors hereinafter named to dispose of and convert into money any or all of my estate of whatever name or kind the same may be, and whether seal or personal or mixed and upon such terms and conditions as in their Judgment may Seem best and most for the interest of my estate and those concerned, and for that purpose to execute acknowledge and deliver all and every necessary and proper Deed, conveyance, contract, writing, acquittance, release, or paper to be given, hereby ratifying and confirming all that they shall lawfully do or cause to be done in the premises.

In case the foregoing provision of the interest of three thousand dollars shall not be sufficient in the Judgment of my executors for the comfort, support and maintenance of my Said daughter Louisa Sheldon as provided in the fourth item of this instrument, then and in that case I direct them to use for such purpose so much of the principal part thereof as may be necessary.

X I direct that my coffin and the monument to my grave shall be of the same material style quality and finish as those of my late deceased wife Sally Crosman.

Likewise, I make, constitute and appoint my sons in law Sidney L. Webb and Titus Sleight to be executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any former Wills by me made.

In Witness Thereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal the twenty fourth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy two

Asa Crossman

The above written instrument was subscribed by the said Asa Crosman in our presence, and acknowledged by him to each of us; and he at the same time declared the above instrument, so subscribed, to be his last Will and Testament; and we, at his request, have signed our names hereto, in his presence and in the presence of each other, and written our names our respective places of residence that the same was so done at the date thereof and that said instrument consists of what is written on both sides of the half sheet of paper herewith connected and of what follows above on this side of this half sheet of paper.

TRYPHENA BAKER AND JAMES COLE AND MYRON B. RUDE

7. Tryphenia was the daughter of Matthew and Lydia Millard Baker. She was born ca 1810 in Vermont according to the 1860 census, Van Buren, Onondaga County, N.Y. (Tryphenia was probably been born 15 Oct. 1809 since the Crysler History gives that date in error for the birth of her daughter Lydia). Tryphenia died before 28 June 1892 when her 19 yr old will, (written 6 Dec. 1873), was presented for probate by daughter Mary J. Williams (Bk 33 C, p. 361), in Auburn, Cayuga Co. N.Y. She was 63 yrs old in Dec. 1873. No Will for husband Myron is listed on Sampubco site.

Tryphenia was perhaps married by 1829 to James Cole based on birth of a daughter in 1829. James Cole appears as head of household in 1830 with one female child under 5 yrs. The marriage probably took place in N.Y.S. since James was born in the same state. The death certificate of her daughter Sophia lists her mother's given name as Chrifend, which seems to be an incorrect spelling of Tryphenia.

James Cole was born 15 Nov. 1806, N.Y.S. (date calc). He died April 18, 1864, 57 yrs, 5 mo, 3 days, buried Kingdom Cem. Lot #9, Van Buren, F.H.C. Reel, Onondaga Cemeteries by Leslie E. Voorhees. Volume One shows a plot map of this cemetery showing James Cole in plot 23 in 1863 and 1869. By 1936 a new plot map shows W. Gridley in or owner of this plot. Plot 9 has J. Tyler in 1863 and 1869 and Bush in 1936 plot map. Tryphenia is not listed in this cemetery book. This is a neglected cemetery wherein many stones are buried and covered with sod. Notes of descendant Goldie McRoberts Pence indicate that James Cole had lived in or was born in Cherry Valley before Onondaga Co. N.Y.

1830 census, Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y., James Cole resided 2 houses from his brother-in-law James M. Baker. There was 1 male 20 to under 30 yrs; 1 female under 5 yrs, 1 female 20-under 30 yrs.

Lydia Rockwell was listed between them having 1 male 15-20 yrs; 1 female 40-50, 1 female 70-80 yrs. See Matthew Baker Sr. notes this mss for information on Lydia Rockwell who may possibly be related to the Baker or Cole family.

1830, one Parley Cole resided in Tn Camillus. No other Coles listed.

1842, 25 Oct. Bk 85, p. 54/55, Onon. Co. N.Y. Indenture. James M. Baker and wife Mary and Wilson Bates of Camillus sold 50 acres for $1650, lot 10, in Van Buren to James Cole of Camillus bounded: east by highway leading from the Oderkirk settlement to Iona, South by land formerly owned by John Myers, west by land heretofore sold to James Talmadge and north by land formerly in possession of James Plato and one third of where heretofore sold to Edward Ballinger. One other piece of land, (2nd) 12 acres in Van Buren on Lot 10, bounded: south by Nathan Williams land, west by John Malby, north by James Hodge, east by 1st described land above. Also another piece of land (3rd) 8 acres in Van Buren, Lot 11, bounded: north by Belding Ressigie, east by James Williams, south by Denison and Asher Marvin, west by lands of the 1st described 50 acres, all totalling 70 acres. Witn. Susan L. Smith. Henry Ferow, J.P. Ackn. before Charles T. Hicks, clerk 26 Oct 1842. Recorded 13 January 1844.

James Baker and James Cole were brothers-in-law, Cole having married Tryphenia, sister of James Baker. Wilson Bates was son-in-law of James M. Baker having married his dau. Lucy who died 1841. Belding Ressigie was related to Mary Larkin, 2nd wf of James M. Baker. (Was Nathan Williams of the family who married one of the Cole daughters)?

1843, 11 Feb., Bk 85, p. 49, Onon. Co. NY, Alexander A. Thompson and wife Jane of Van Buren, Onon. Co. sold 50 acres to James M. Baker of Camillus, for $1000 land in original township of Camillus, now in Van Buren. Beginning southeast corner bounded north by line of said lot, west by land heretofore sold to James and Nathan Williams, north by land formerly owned by John Polhemus, now owned by James Cole and east by the line of (inkblot) lot ?north being same lot Thompson now lives on and occupied last season. Ackn. before Charles H. Toll, J.P. Recorded 11 January 1844 by Charles T. Hicks, Clerk.

1844 James M. Baker and wf Mary sold land to J. Cole, Van Buren, Onon. Co. N.Y.

N.Y., Minerva 11 yrs b. N.Y. Nearby on p. 84 was D.C. Rude 37 yrs b. N.Y. and family, who may have been brother of Myron. M.B. seems to be Myron B. Rude, but in the online list of God's Acre Cem. in Weedsport Cayuga Co. N.Y. Sarah Rude, wife of Myron B. Rude has an earlier death. That lists Sarah's death as Feb. 26, 1853 @ 51 yrs, 5 mo, 11 days. If so, she was older than her husband. I think the date 1853 is in error. Sarah probably died in 1863. See Myron's age in later census, below in support of M.B. being myron Myron Rude definitely had daughters Sarah and Cecelia as found in Tryphena's will. Minerva must have been called Minnie.

1865 1870 census Index, Ira, Cayuga Co. N.Y. online, only head of household listed. Myron Rood who is believed to have been Myron Rude.

1873, 6 Dec. Tryphena (sic) Rude, 63 yrs of age, of the Town of Cato, Cayuga Co. N.Y. wrote her will. Bequests to husb. Myron B. Rude, during his natural life, the use of the dwelling house and lands now in my possession, of abt two acres land lying on north side of Main St. in the Village of Meridian and on the west of the Meridian Cemetery. After husband's decease my execs are to sell the real estate and if the proceeds exceed $900, I give and bequeath to the children of my husband vis Phebe J. Bevier, Sarah L. Osborn, Cecelia A. 1880 census Index, Cato, Cayuga Co. N.Y. 2nd Ed. Index online. Myron Reed 71 yrs, Tryphena Reed 70 yrs. These are obviously the Rude family. This is the online version Cayuga Co.

Next door was Amelia Gallant 43 yrs b. NY both par. b. NY with 2 daus. She doesn't seem to be Tryphena's dau. Amelia.

Tryphenia's dau. Mary J. Williams lived nearby, listed on p. 15A.

Note that Meridian and Cato are almost at the same location and the two towns may overlap.

Since Tryphenia's mother Lydia Millard was b. MA, we cannot rely on the reliability of her father Matthew Baker as being b. VT according to this census.

1892, 28 June. Tryphena (Baker) (Cole) Rude's Will was probated in Cato, Cayuga Co. N.Y. pp. 360-363. Don J. Tabor of the Town of Ira, Cayuga Co. N.Y. deposed swore that he was well acquainted with Lyman E. Morley late of the Town of Cato, Cayuga Co. N.Y. who with. the will in 1873 of Tryphena Rude, late of the Twn of Cato. He swore as to the signature of the deceased Morley. he also swore as to tryphena's handwriting. Tabor swore that he attended the funeral of Tryphena and Morley was her near neighbor whose funeral was held June 25 last. Sworn 28 June 1892 before George B. Turner Surrogate.

Frank H. Brown of the Town of Ira, Cayuga Co. N.Y. swore that he was well acquainted with Tryphena and saw her execute her will. He also saw Morley witness the will. He swore that Morley was dead and attended his funeral. Sworn 28 June 1892.

Satisfactory proof was accepted by the court of Tryphena's will. Mary J. Williams, petitioner. to be recorded by George B. Turner Surrogate 28 June 1892.

Tryphena's daughter Amelia O. or S. (Cole) Wigfall wrote a Will that was probably probated after the 1897 death of her sister Lydia Cole Parker and before the 1914 death of her brother Matthew Baker. It was probably written after 1900 death of her brother-in-law Chas. C. Tilley Jr. and before the 1907 marriage of Goldie McRoberts. Amelia apparently did not have a husband or any living issue.

A relative hand jotted information from the will on a paper of the Continental Casualty Co. Chicago, of which Ralph and Goldie Pence were Mgrs which says Flint MI. Names copied were Harry L. Marshall Jr. 608 Washington Blvd Chicago and Mrs. J.C. Patterson 4467 Oakenwald Ave. Chicago. Ruth A. Williams Baldwinsville, N.Y. These three may have been the Adm. of the Will. There is no date or place listed where the will was written, but the men who lived in Chicago may be a clue. Amelia's will was written after 1900. Amelia died in 1904.

The following relatives who were her only heirs-at-law were named in the Will.

1. Ella Crysler, niece, res. Navarino N.Y. (She was the daughter of Lydia Cole and the wife of Isaac Crysler).

2. Serano P. House, Great Nephew, res. Memphis (Onon. Co) N.Y. (He was grs/of Lydia Cole and Marcus Parker and s/o Adelaide Parker and W.H. House. Serano 1890-1918 was buried in Oswego Bitter Cem. Tn Camillus N.Y.)

3. Ethel Bella House great niece, res. Baldwinsville (Onon. Co.) N.Y. (She was the d/o Ida Parker and Edwin W. Crysler and wife of Addison House).

4. Edna May Zimmerman, great niece, res. Ithaca Gratiot Co. Michigan. (She was the d/o Ida Parker and Edwin W. Crysler and wife of Robert W. Zimmerman).

5. Alfred W. Crysler, a.k.a Alfred Secor, Great nephew, res. Rockwood TN. (He was s/o Ida Parker and Edwin W. Crysler. Alfred was raised by his Uncle C.K. Secor of Rockwood TN, who married Mary Ann Crysler, sister of his father Edwin W. Crysler).

6. Eva Crysler, niece, res. Ogdensburgh (St. Lawrence Co.) N.Y. (She was the d/o Lydia Cole and Marcus Parker and the second wife of Edwin W. Crysler, widower of her sister Ida).

7. Nelson Parker, nephew, (empl.?) N.Y. Central Grain Elevator, W. 61 St. N.Y. City, N.Y. boat, Lockport N.Y. (He was s/o Lydia Cole and Marcus Parker).

8. George Parker, nephew, 5718 32nd Ave. S., Brooklyn (Kings Co.) N.Y. (He was s/o Lydia Cole and Marcus Parker).

9. Mathew B. Cole, brother, res. Memphis (Onon. Co.) N.Y.

10. Mary Williams, sister, res. 346 W. Ave. Rochester, N.Y. (She was the wife of William T. Williams. Both buried in Meridian Cem. Cayuga Co. N.Y.).

11. Ella Benjamin, niece, res. 926 Ottawa, Lansing MI. (She was the d/o Sophia Cole and George Lee and the wife of Darwin Benjamin).

12. Goldie McRoberts, great niece. (She was the d/o Maria Flora Lee and William McRoberts. In 1907 Goldie married Ralph Pence which helps to date Amelia's Will before 1907).

13. John H. Lee, nephew, res. Delta MI. (He was s/o Sophia Cole and George Lee).

14. Sarah J. Tilley, sister, res. Baldwinsville N.Y. (She was the wife of Daniel Tilley).

15. Frances T. Selmsier, sister, res. Weedsport, Cayuga Co. N.Y. (Frances married first to Chas. S. Tilley Jr. who died in 1900. The first name of her second husband Mr. Selmsier is unknown to me).

16. Florence A. Tabor, sister, res. Meridian, (Cayuga Co.) N.Y. (She was the wife of Don J. Taber, (sic) buried in Meridian Cem. Cayuga Co. N.Y.).

After the names of the next of kin, the following names appear: Harvey L. Marshall Jr., 608 Washington Blvd, Chicago, IL; Mrs. J.C. Patterson, 4467 Oakenwald Ave., Chicago IL; Ruth A. Williams, Baldwinsville N.Y. These people may have been witnesses to the will. Ruth A. Williams was ~~probably related,~~ perhaps d/o Mary Cole Williams.

Names from this will was copied by Goldie McRoberts Pence on a paper having a heading of her husband, Manager of the Continental Casualty Co, Flint Michigan branch. This paper written ca. 1930's, is now in possession of descendant Ona Gibson. The date and place where the Will was written and probated was not mentioned, but Chicago seems to be a good possibility. Although this extraction from Amelia's will is not well documented, the information is quite valuable. It names her brother Matthew B. Cole, which proves her maiden name. It gives the names of her sisters. All agree with the 1860 census record of Tryphenia and James Cole. Another verification is that the Crysler and Parker nieces and nephews were mentioned. Lorenda Parker Knox, granddaughter of James Millard Baker also named some of her Crysler cousins in her letters of 1927. A Crysler history was listed in July 2000 on the Geocities website which was compiled by Maggie Sypniewski which verifies and adds to the Parker and Crysler families herein listed.

Tryphenia had seven unmarried daughters plus daughter Hannah in 1857, when her brother James M. Baker made his Will. He left $5 apiece for a total of $35 to purchase silver teaspoons for the daughters of James Cole, except Hanah Cole; sister Tryphena Cole was to use this money to purchase silver teaspoons for her daughters when they marry. Daughter Hannah Cole was excepted from this legacy, perhaps because she had received other things while living with James M. Baker.

Several of the children were taken from 1860 census; dau. Lydia was taken from an old letter of Lorenda Knox; dau. Hannah was taken from the will of James M. Baker; dau. Mary was taken from census living with James M. Baker and the will of Amelia Wigfall. Frances was taken from will of Amelia Cole Wigfall who was a d/o Tryphenia and James Cole.

This family probably daughtered out.

Children Cole; Gen. 3. (First two ch named after Tryphenia's parents)

Death of Gen. Amos P. Granger.--This eminent citizen died in Syracuse on Monday evening last, aged 77 years. Gen. Granger was born in Connecticut in 1789, and removed to this town in 1811, where he entered upon mercantile pursuits. In 1812 he raised a company for the war, and at its close continued in the militia service, in which he rose to the rank of General. In 1820 he removed to what was then Salina, and in 1825 was elected one of the first trustees of the village of Syracuse. He was an active member of the old Whig party, by which he was elected to Congress in 1853; but he left that part on the question of slavery, and became one of the founders of the present Republican party.

GEN. 3.

ALBERT BAKER AND CATHERINE WIDOW BLACK

8. Albert was born 24 Aug. 1809, MA (census), prob. Adams or N. Adams, Berkshire Co., where his brother Lorenus was born. His birth was recorded 7 April 1810 by Stamford, VT Tn Clerk Isaac Robinson, (FHC Reel on Stamford, VT). Albert was the s/o Matthew and Samantha Baker Jr. (Matthew1). He was alive 1860 in Hurricane Pct. Cumberland Co. IL. (Adams and N. Adams may have been the same place at that time. N. Adams is 4 miles from Stamford, VT). He was named in will of his mother. (1853)

Cumberland Co. is close to the border of Coles Co. He probably resided within a few miles of his father and/or siblings.

John
He married perhaps ca 1832, certainly by 1845, to a lady who died ca 1845/50 probably. He married <sup>second</sup> to Catherine, possibly by 1850 or between 1850/1860. Catherine was born ca 1810, TN or PA, (census), married Mr. Black ca 1829. She was probably widowed between 1839/1850. She was alive 1860. William Black owned lot 29 April 1839 in Section 24, Hutton Twp, Coles Co. not far from Section 20 where Matthew Baker purchased in 1849.

The Charlestown Courier newspaper listed a Coles Co. IL Divorce Bill for one Albert Baker 10 April 1844; Albert vs Rachel Baker. I do not know if this was the same Albert Baker.

1850 Hurricane Pct. Cumberland Co. IL, p 35, Dwelling 26-26. Albert Baker, 40 yrs, b. ca 1810 MA, farmer, with Thomas J. Baker 5 yrs b. # ALBERT BAKER AND CATHERINE WIDOW BLACK

GEN. 11

1. Albert was born 24 Nov. 1808, N. Adams, prob. Adams or N. Adams, Berkshire Co., where his father Lorenus was born. His first was recorded 7 April 1810 by Stamford, VT. Clerk Isaac Robinson, (TTC Reel on Stamford, VT). Albert was the son of Matthew and Samantha Baker Jr. (Matthew). He was alive in 1850 in Hurricane Pct. Cumberland Co. N. Adams and N. Adams may have been the same place at that time. N. Adams is 4 miles from Stamford, VT. He was named in will of his mother.

Cumberland Co. is close to the border of Coler Co. He probably resided within a few miles of his father and brother.

He married perhaps in 1835, certainly by 1845, to a lady who died ca 1845/50 probably. He married second to Catherine Black possibly by 1850 or between 1850/1860. Catherine was born ca 1810, 24 or 25, (census), married Mr. Black ca 1835. She was probably widowed between 1835/1850. She was alive 1850. William Black owned lot 19 April 1835 in Section 24, Waterloo Twp, Coler Co. not far from Section 20 where Matthew Baker purchased in 1845.

The Charleston Courier newspaper listed a Coler Co. IL divorce bill for one Albert Baker 10 April 1845. Albert vs. Rachel Baker. I do not know if this was the same Albert Baker.

1850 Hurricane Pct. Cumberland Co. IL p. 35, dwelling 18-20. Albert Baker, 40 yrs, b. ca 1810 MA, farmer, with Thomas J. Baker 3 yrs b. IL and Catherine Black 4 yrs, b. ca 1810 TN with several ch. named Black, ages 11-20, all b. IL. Would assume Albert was wd ca 1835/40. Was she a housekeeper or were they married. Her children with surname Black were born 20 yrs; Maria 18 yrs; 3 has 10 yrs; William 12 yrs; David 11 yrs; all ch. b. IL.

1850 census, Hurricane Pct. Cumberland Co. IL, dwelling 1238. Family 1239. A. Baker, 57 b. MA, farmer, Catherine, 50 yrs, b. PA, Thomas J. Baker, 11 yrs, and David Black, 31 yrs, b. IL. This is obviously, Albert from 1850 census, now married to Catherine, son Thos. and stepson David still in household. Other stepchildren probably married by 1850.

GEN. 3.

ALBERT BAKER AND RACHAEL PLACE AND WIDOW CATHERINE BLACK

8. Albert Baker was born 24 August 1809, MA (census), probably Adams or North Adams, Berkshire Co., where his brother Lorenus was born. (Adams and N. Adams may have been the same place at that time. N. Adams is four miles from Stamford, VT). Albert's birth was recorded 7 April 1810 by Stamford, VT Town Clerk Isaac Robinson, (FHC Reel on Stamford, VT). Albert was the son of Matthew Baker Jr. (Matthew1) and Samantha Town #2. He was named in the 1853 will of his mother.

Albert was alive 1860 in Hurricane Pct. Cumberland Co. IL. Cumberland Co. is close to the border of Coles Co. IL. He probably resided within a few miles of his father and/or siblings.

Albert's parents moved to McKean Twp. Licking Co. Ohio by 1829, apparently with all of their children, since their ages found in records at Stamford VT, exactly fit the Ohio 1830 census.

Edwin R. Baker, b. ca 1832/33, Ohio may have been a son of Albert, because the age of Edwin does not fit any other Baker of this line. Edwin listed his mother as b. OH in 1880 census. Edwin resided with Matthew Baker Jr. in 1850 census, but Matthew was not the father of Edwin.

If Edwin was the son of Albert, Albert may have had a first wife (born Ohio ca 1808-1816), whom he married ca 1830-1832, perhaps in Licking, Delaware or other nearby county in OH.

Albert seems to have been listed with his father in 1830 census in Licking Co. Ohio, which census agrees with the known ages of all his sons and of his daughter Mary, who was the only young female in the household. It would appear that Albert was single in 1830 census.

Albert's parents were listed in Licking Co. Ohio in 1840 census, no others in household.

He was perhaps the Albert Baker who married 24 Aug 1839 to Rachel Place in Delaware Co. OH. (IGI Batch MS 14161, 1838-1845, Source Call No. 0391394).

1840 census Delaware Co. Ohio, one Rachel Baker, 30-40 yrs, with children in hh. Also, John Place 60-70 yrs in same hh or adjoining hh with sev. ch. Nearby was Jacob Place.

If this Rachel Baker was Albert's wife, it appears that Albert was not living with her. Her children could have belonged to a previous husband. This may have been a very short marriage.

Albert Baker vs Rachael Baker published 10 Apr 1844 Coles Co. IL, in Charleston Courier newspaper, DIVORCE. State of Illinois, Coles Co. Circuit Court, May Term, 1844, Bill For Divorce. This asks the defendant Rachael Baker to take notice that a summons was issued against her; that the complainant has filed an affidavit setting forth that said defendant is not a resident of this State of Illinois; that if the defendant does not appear to defend the matters and things in complainant's bill of complaint alleged against him, the same will be taken as confessed and a decree entered accordingly. N. Ellington, Clerk of said Court. A.P. Dunbar, Solicitor for Complainant. April 5, 1844 - 31 - Pr's fee $3.50.

Bill For Divorce, May Term 1844, Coles Co. IL, p. 9: Albert Baker, Complainant, by A.P. Dunbar, Solicitor, vs the Defendant Rachel (sic) Baker. The court was satisfied that the defendant hath had due notice of the pending of this suit by the publication in the Charlestown Courier newspaper, and the defendant being three times called, came not, and was made default; therefore the Complainant's bill was taken as confessed and after hearing the testimony, the bonds of matrimony were annulled and dissolved by decree.

No date, but directly below - Thurs. May 23 1844 Court _____pursuant to adjournment present and _____.

Divorce documents submitted by Sue Kimmel, desc. of Edwin R. Baker.

There may be further legal documents prior to April 5 1844 describing the problem. This begs the question as to when Albert moved to Coles Co. Illinois and where he was residing before 1844. Delaware and Licking County Ohio would be the logical place to begin a search. It is possible that Albert left Edwin with his parents in Coles Co. in some of the years between 1841-1850, because Albert was not living with his wife at that time period.

If the divorced Rachel Baker was residing in Delaware Co. Ohio, there could be a complaint registered there of abandonment by her husband, or a Power of Attorney document for use by whomever was representing her in Illinois.

Are there any extant Baptist or Methodist church records 1841-1850's, which would show either Albert or Edwin as members?

Albert married ca 1845-1860 to Mrs. Catherine Black. If Catherine's surname of Black was incorrect on 1850 census, then he married her ca 1845, based on son Thomas Baker's birth. Catherine's surname was Baker on 1860 census.

Mrs. Catherine Black was born ca 1810, TN or PA, (census recs differ), apparently married Mr. Black ca 1829, based on ages of her ch. by him. She was probably widowed between 1839/1850. She was alive 1860.

Delaware Co. bounds Licking Co. Ohio, where Albert's father Matthew Baker resided. If Albert, s/o Matthew, was the same Albert who married Rachel Place in 1839, then Edwin was not son of Rachel Place.

1840 Ohio census index

No Albert Baker, but an A. Baker appeared in Athens Twp, Athens Co. OH, p.426, where a P.S. Baker appeared on p. 429. Joseph, Nicholus, and Sarah Baker appeared on p. 420.

Rachel Baker, Tre. Twp, Delaware Co. OH, p.148.

Rachel Baker, New Twp., Licking Co. OH, p.161.

1844, April 21, Whetstone Creek Baptist Church Minutes, Meeting held, at McCoons by Elder M. Baker, Wm Skinner and brother A. Baker.

These men were likely Matthew and his son Albert Baker. This would put Albert in Coles Co. IL in 1844, the same year that Alfred and Rachel Baker were divorced.

(church members were often listed as brother or sister in many churches).

1845/46, son Thomas J. Baker born in IL.

1850 Hurricane Pct. Cumberland Co. IL, p.35, Dwelling 26-26. Albert Baker, 40 yrs, b. MA, (b. ca 1810), farmer, with Thomas J. Baker 5 yrs b. IL ca 1845 and Catherine Black 40 yrs, b. ca 1810 TN, with several ch. named Black, ages 11-20, all b. IL. Her children with surname Black were Susannah 20 yrs; Martha 15 yrs; J. ha 20 yrs; Middleton 13 yrs; David J. 11 yrs (b. ca 1839). all ch. born IL. This census does not indicate that they were married at that time, unless Catherine's surname was incorrect.

Note that Cumberland Co. was formed from Coles Co. and residents may not have moved at all. Hurricane Creek runs through Coles and Cumberland Co. IL.

1860 census, Hurricane Pct. Cumberland Co. IL.

1239.1239. A. Baker, 57 yrs b. MA (ca 1803), (wrong date), farmer, Catherine Baker 50 yrs, b. PA, Thomas J. Baker 14 yrs, b. IL ca 1846; David Black, 21 yrs, b. IL ca 1839.

This is obviously Albert from 1850 census, now listed as married to Catherine. Son Thomas and step-son David still in household. Other step-children probably married by 1860.

There is a discrepancy of the birth place of Catherine.

Was Sarah J. Baker 1851-1870, bur. Hurricane Cem., d/o Albert?

LORENUS MATTHEW BAKER AND C. WILLISON AND M. BOWERS

9. Reverend Lorenus Matthew Baker was born 30 Nov. 1811, Adams, Berkshire, Ma. (Adams and N. Adams may have been the same place at that time. N. Adams is 4 miles from Stamford VT. Lorenus was the son of Matthew<sup>2</sup> Jr. (Matthew<sup>1</sup>) and Samantha Town. His date and place of birth was listed in Stamford Vermont Town Records, found on FHC microfilm, 865407 ?and 506446. Lorenus died 31 Oct. 1881 (court House rec.) or 1 Nov. 1881 (bible); tombstone gives age as 69 yr, 11 mo, 1 day, and was buried Butternut Cem. Clark Co. IL. He was named in will of his mother Samantha Baker.

The same birth date of Lorenus was also listed in a diary of his son Lorenus R. Baker and in the bible of the John Washington Baker family.

Lorenus did not leave a will. His Probate records listed widow Martha residing Mt. Giliad, Morrow Co. Ohio.

FHC Reel 865407, Misc. Stamford, Vt records, p. 339 lists date and birthplace of Lorenus in Adams, Ma. Believe this was written by Otis Phillips, Town Clerk, but on p. 336, his Uncle James Millard who was Town Clerk, gave the names of Millard children on April 16, 1812.

Lorenus married first 22 Feb. 1832, Licking Co. Ohio, Clarissa Willison, d/o Elias (Elisha) and Phebe (Vail) Willison. Clarissa was born 24 Jan 1818, prob. Licking Co. Ohio, died 8 Nov 1867, 49 yrs, 9 mo, 16 days. She was buried with Lorenus. She was probably mother of all the children.

In 1832, Clarissa and Elias Willison were two of the first six members of the Regular Baptist Church of Liberty Twp. in the village of Concord in Licking Co. OH.

Lorenus married second 11 Nov 1868, Clark Co. IL to Martha Bowers, IL Marriage Index vol. E, p. 398 lists their marriage. Martha was ~~said to have been~~ born ca 1816 VT, ~~no proof~~. She was alive 1883, Mt. Giliad, Morrow Co. Ohio. Unknown if Bowers was her maiden name or a married name by a previous marriage.
Born per b 14 (Census)

In 1832, Clarissa Baker and Elias Willison were members of the Regular Baptist Church of Liberty Township, in the village of Concord in Licking Co. Ohio. Lorenus was not listed as a member of that church. Perhaps he belonged to a church in McKean Twp. where his father resided. Marriages performed by Lorenus were found in several documents in the Crawford Co. Ill Court House. Family lore describe him as a hard shelled Baptist Minister. He was known as "Hallelujah Baker". He was also a farmer and carpenter. The family were in Ohio until June 1837 when a child was born there. Later they resided in Indiana, probably near Terre Haute where Clarissa's parents settled.

Lorenus and family were in Ohio in 1837, based on birth of child there.

Lorenus was said to have been a hard-shelled Baptist preacher. He performed marriages in Crawford Co. IL as found in courthouse records there. One person called him "Hallelujah Baker."

1840 census Edgar Co. IL, p. 99, Lorenus Baker, 2 males under 5 yrs, 1 male 20-30 yrs, 1 female under 5 yrs, 2 females 5-10 yrs, 1 female 20-30 yrs. No relatives nearby.

Gen. 3.

MARY BUTLER BAKER AND DAVID GOODHUE JONES

10. Mary Butler Baker was born April 18, 1815 at Stamford, Bennington Co. Vermont, died 29 March 1863/4 Coles Co. IL. Mary was the daughter of Rev. Mathew Baker Jr. (Mathew Sr.1) and Samantha Town.

All the children of Matthew Baker Jr. were recorded together by a Millard cousin who was a town officer. Ref: F.H.C. Stamford VT microfilm).

The 1850 and 1860 census agrees with Mary's 1815 birth as recorded in Stamford. She was named as Mary B. Jones in the 1853 will of her mother Samantha.

Descendant William Seaman read the gravestone of Mary B., wife of David G. Jones, burial close to her husband in Hurricane Cem. Hutton Tnp. Coles Co. IL. Her birth calculates to 11 July 1815 and death 29 March is clear, year is probably 1864, not so clear. Mary's dates are not readable on the deteriorated stone, but seems to be died age 43 or 48 yrs, 8 months, 18 days. This would make her born ca 1816 or 1820. 43 yrs is incorrect because she could not have married at 10 yrs of age. 1850/60 Census of David G. and Mary agrees with the 1815 Stamford birthdate for Mary.

Descendant Kelly (Eyres) Roley read the deteriorated gravestone of Mary B., wife of D.G. Jones, in Hurricane Cem. as died 29 March which is clear, but the 1863 year is not so certain. She thinks the age is 48 yrs and the months is 3 months and the days is 18 days. An 1863 death makes her born 1815 which is correct for Stamford VT recorded birth of Mary B. Baker and is also compatible with her husband marrying 3 months after her death to Mrs. Mary Jane (Tate) Tinsman.

Mary Butler Baker was the only daughter of Mathew and Samantha Baker. In 1830, Mathew had only one young female in household, age 15-19 yrs. The males match exactly the known ages of all of Matthew's sons. The female may have been dau. Mary or a young wife of Albert Baker, son of Mathew Jr.

Mary Butler Baker perhaps married ca 1829/1830 in Licking Co. Ohio, to David Goodhue Jones. This assumes that Mary was the mother of George and Maria Sarah. David G. Jones was born 17 Nov. 1806 in VT, d. 17 Jan. 1886, buried Coles Co. IL, (clear photo of g.s. in good condition). In 1880 census, David lists himself and both his parents as born Vermont. In 1885 census, David was a widower, age 78, b. VT, residing with his son Lewis Baker, listed as L.W. Jones in (P.O. Scandia or Seandia), Cortland, Republic Co. KS.

Online submissions list David's parents as Jacob Jones born 27 June 1771 Andover, Essex, MA, d. 20 June 1850 Hillsborough, Hillsborough New Hampshire and Sally Cady, born 6 Feb. 1791 Lebanon, Grafton Co. New Hampshire, d. 26 Sept. 1855 Portsmouth Rockingham, New Hampshire. They were married 10 August 1791 Lebanon, Grafton, N.H. (Susan Cary scary@infowest.com submitted the info. on the parents and siblings of D.G. Jones). Susan lists David G. Jones as born Jericho, Chittenden, VT. Susan cites Boston Transcript Genealogical column 1906-1941, V.p3:57. Susan adds that David m3 to Mary E. Jones b. 15 Dec. 1821 in VA, but CAUTION, this may have been the second wife? Susan adds several land transactions for David in Cumberland Co. IL 1849 & 1850.

Ancestry.com submitter Ricky Branch lists David G. Jones (who married Mary Butler Baker) with the same parents, as well as grandfather Benjamin Jones, b. 1747 Woburn Ma, d. 1829 Hillsborough N.H., husband of Jemima Boynton. He is not to be confused with Benjamin Jones who married ____ Baker, d/o Matthew Baker of Attleborough MA.

1810 census Jacob Jones appeared in Hillsborough, Hillsborough N.H.

1820 census Jacob Jones appeared in McKean Twp. Licking Co. Ohio, next to Ziba Jones.

Ken Roberts lists Ziba Jones, born Oxford N.H., married 1817 in Licking Co. Ohio, to Flora Everett. Ziba was brother of David G. Jones. Jacob, of this census, may have been the known father or brother of David G. David's brother Jacob Jr. was born 1792, died 1824, place not cited.

Jones descendants claim that David's father Jacob died June 1850 in Hillsborough N.H.

1830 census McKean Twp. Ziba Jones, (30-39 yrs), appeared on the same page as David Jones (20-29 yrs). Both appear to have been married. This was probably David G. Jones and brother Ziba.

David's brother Ziba died in 1890 in Shelby Co. Indiana. His obituary in the Steuben Republican reads that Ziba moved to Ohio when a young man, being one of the first settlers in Licking Co. Ohio. He moved to Steuben Co. Indiana in 1848. He joined the Methodist Episcopal church at age 15.

Kelly Eyres Roley submitted the following information obtained from Marie Tinsley whose husband descends from Mary Jane (Tate) (Tinsman) Jones. The information was said to have been taken from a family bible. David G. Jones was born abt 1806, died 24 January 1887 in Janesville IL and was buried in Hurricane Cem. Coles Co. IL. He married 18 June 1863 Coles Co.

IL to Mary Jane Tate, (widow of Landon Tinsman). Mary Jane Tate was born 29 Oct. 1823 IN or VA, died 30 Sept. 1902, but her gravestone says died 1903. Jones and Tate had issue: Ziba Charles, b. 10 Oct. 1864, Sophronia Lyntha (Cyntha), b. 17 May 1867, Julia Emily, b. 20 Feb. 1870, David G., b. 17 Nov. 1876.

*unless specified **
This Mary Jane Tate Jones who died 1902/3 cannot be David G. Jones wife, since David at 78 yrs, was listed in 1885 as a widower, living in KS with his son Lewis. Mary B Baker's husband (1807)

(Note that Tate was b. 1823 or 1825, 15-17 yrs later than David G. Jones, b. 1806. The last child was supposedly born when she was 51/53 yrs old, which is not likely. Perhaps David was a grandchild).

Tate's husband Landon Tinsman died between 1861 and 1863, Civil War yrs. Three of their ch. were born in Indiana. David G. Jones, b. 1806, (who married Mary B. Baker), had siblings Ziba and Charles and Sophronia, so this family is certainly related.

Garrison Tate, 48 yrs b. IN; A.C. Tate, 62 yrs b. TN, both were neighbors of Lucius Jones and the Seaman family and the Milton Ryan family in Cumberland Co. IL 1880. They may have been brothers of Mary Jane Tate.

Garrison Tate 1832-5 May 1901 had 2 wives. Wf 1 Jennet 1821-26 Mar 1875. Wf 2 Elizabeth 13 Feb 1841-17 Sep 1921. Indian Cem. Coles Co. He had issue by both wives. Same Cem. was A. G. or C. Archie Tate 17 July 1817-9 Mar 1904 who m. Rebecca 1818-1878. Was he bro. of Mary Jane Tate?

Roley wrote that Mary (Tate) (Tinsman) Jones remarried after David's death and was buried with her last husband Mr. _____, in the Clark family plot in Dodge Grove Cemetery in Mattoon, Cumberland Co. IL. Mary Tate Tinsman's dau. Viola Alma Tinsman m. 1 Sept. 1884 to Dr. James C. Clark, M.D. (1880 census says she was Viara A. Tynsman 19 yrs b. IN, both par. b. VA).

Two other Tinsman females were married in Coles Co. They were Nancy A. who m. 1879 to James M. Bowlin and Martha Jane who m. 1868 to Elijah Emery Johnston. Alfred Tinsman m. 1868 in Coles Co. to Rachel Ellen Conrod.

Hezekiah D. Jones b. 1817, who m. Mary Baker's sister-in-law Sarah Eliza (Adams) Baker, was said to have been from a KY family by an Adams descendant Alice Lackey, but she offers no proof.

1830 census, p. 478, Mary B. Baker could have been the female listed in the household of her father Matthew Baker in McKean Twp. Licking Co. Ohio. She could also have been the female in McKean Twp. p.480, age 15-19 with David Jones, age 20-29. David also had a boy under five yrs in household. One John Jones appeared on the same page.

On p. 479, appeared Samuel and Charles Jones, both 20-29 yrs, with families, were likely brothers of David G. Jones.

1835, David G. and Mary B. Jones were in Ohio and apparently moved to IL sometime between 1839 and 1843, based on places of birth of their children on census records.

History of Coles Co. IL lists John Baker and Rev. John Adams of Ohio as moving to Coles Co. 1838. (Dates may be faulty).

1840 census, Monroe Twp. Licking Co. OH, p.93, D.G. Jones 30-40 yrs, (b. ca 1800-1810), female 20-30 yrs, (b. ca 1810-1820). The adults fit well. Two boys under 5, (could fit Lucius & John) 2 boys 5-9 yrs, (one could fit Frank), one boy 10-14 yrs, (could fit George), 2 girls 5-9 yrs, (one could fit Mariah). There was an extra boy 5-9 & an extra girl 5-9 in this family.

1840 census, Jeremiah Willison was listed on the same page, perhaps related to wife of Mary's brother Lorenus Baker

There is a gap in the ages of the ch. of David and Mary, between Mariah b. 1830 and Franklin b. 1835/36. If they had a child who died young, he or she could have been 7 or 8 yrs in 1840.

1840 census, Five other David Jones' appeared in Newark, Licking Co. OH, but their ages don't fit David G. Jones.

1840, p. 20, David G.'s brother, Ziba Jones, was still in McKean Twp. Licking Co. Ohio. Ziba moved to Steuben Co. Indiana before 1850 census.

1840 No David G. Jones was listed in McKean or Granville Twp. Licking Co. Ohio.

1840 census, p.294, Mary's parents Matthew and Samantha Baker lived by themselves in McKean Twp. Licking Co. Ohio.

1844, 29 January, Licking Co. OH Land record. David G. Jones and wife Mary of the County of Licking, now residing in Coles Co. IL, sold 90 acres land in McKean Twp. Licking Co. OH for $725 to Riley Wood. Witn. C.C. Jones, McKean Twp. (Seaman research).

1849, 24 March, Matthew Baker and George W. Jones purchased nine acres of land with appurtenances in Hutton Township, Coles Co. IL from William Johnson. The deed was to remain with George W. Jones; Matthew Baker was to have lifetime residency thereon. (Ref; Esther Watts of Whittier CA).

George Jones was 20 yrs of age in 1850 census, (b. ca 1830), living a mile away from this land in Hurricane Precinct, Cumberland Co. IL. George was likely the son of Mary Butler Baker and David G. Jones.

Note that Mary (Tate) Tinsman had a known dau. Viola whose age fits the Viona in 1870 census. The three children b. Samantha was perhaps widow of David's deceased son John B. Jones, with Lawrence being John's son.

Thus, Mary Tate married Landon Tinsman by 1853/4 and Tinsman died 1861/63, Civil War yrs.

1830 census, listed two listings from Mary's father Matthew Baker in McKean Twp. Licking Co. Ohio were Samuel Jones and adult female, both 20-29 yrs, and a male and a female child each under 5 yrs. The adults were b. ca 1801-1810. They prob. married ca 1825-1828. Fifteen houses away on same page were Charles Jones and an adult female, both 20-29 yrs with a young male under 5 yrs. The adults were b. 1801-1810. They prob. married ca 1825-29.

1840, John D. Jones listed with 1 male under 30 and one male under 70.

1840 census C.C. Jones McKean Twp. Licking Co. OH listed on a different page than Matthew Baker. Listed in household were: 2 males under 5 yrs, 2 males under 10 yrs, 1 male under 40 yrs, one male under 70 yrs, one female under 10 yrs, 1 female under 70 yrs. The younger adults were b. after 1800 and the older adults were b. after 1770. It is unknown which male was head of house or if both were possibly named C.C. It does appear to be father and son or son and father-in-law. The male ch. were b. after 1830. The female ch. was b. after 1830.

One C.C. Jones was the first Justice of Peace in McKean Twp. in 1818 when the Twp. was organized. Thus, he was born before 1798 and had to be at least in his 40's in 1840. He may have been Chaplin Jones and possibly related to David G. Jones.

GEN. 3.

JOHN B. BAKER AND SARAH ELIZA ADAMS

11. John B. Baker was the son of Rev. Mathew Baker Jr. (Matthew 1) and Samantha Town #2. John was born 23 June 1818, recorded by Otis Phillips, Stamford VT Tn Clerk. He died 16 February 1844, 25 yrs, 7 mo. 24 days, in Coles Co. IL., leaving a wife and three small children. (Obit. printed in Morning Star, 12 June 1844. This was a Baptist publication). His death dates coincide exactly with his birth date. He was buried in Hurricane Cemetery Hutton Twp Coles Co. IL, where his father was buried. He was named as deceased in his mother's 1853 will and his children John ?N. (pen strikeover), and B.W. also named.

John married 20 June ca 1837/38 prob. in Ohio to Sarah Eliza Adams born 17 August 1821, Ohio. Hurricane Cemetery lists S.E. Jones, wife of H. Jones with no dates. Sarah Adams was not buried there. Sarah married second in 1850 to Hezekiah D. Jones. She married third in 1860 to Robert Moore and died 22 April 1890 Onarga, Iroquois Co. Illinois acc. to Alice Lackey, of Oregon who is a descendant of Sarah and her 2nd or 3rd husband.

Sarah's parents were buried Hurricane Cem. as Rev. John A. Adams b. 14 April 1799, d. 26 June 1878, s/o Elijah; Susannah Webb, wife of Rev. J.A. Adams, b 25 Sept. 1792 MD, d. 13 Oct. 1877. Many of the Adams fam. were bur. here as late as 1911. John Adams was born NYS acc. to census, but some of the children list their father as b. PA on 1880 census. One census says his wf was born Delaware. John Adams and Susan Webb were married in Licking Co. Ohio 16 Nov. 1820, IGI Batch M5154101 and 8521302, sheet 76 says 14 Nov. The 1855 census might tell in what N.Y. County John Adams was born. It is obvious that the Adams and the Baker family knew each other in Licking Co. OH.

Sarah's probable sister Josephine Adams born 1814 OH, d. 21 Feb. 1897, married William B. or W.G. Johnson b. 1811 OH, d. 1884. In 1880, she and her husband res. in Hutton, Coles Co. IL, very close to her brother Elijah Adams 2nd b. ca 1825 OH.

Elias Willison, father-in-law of Lorenus Baker, (who was brother of John B. Baker), sold 50 acres of land ca 1837 in Licking Co. Ohio to John Adams before Willison moved to Clark Co. IL. Elias also sold 80 acres of land to Levi Baker. Who was Levi?

GEN. 3.

JOHN B. BAKER AND SARAH ELIZA ADAMS

11. John B. Baker was the son of Rev. Mathew Baker Jr. (Matthew 1) and Samantha Town #2. John was born 23 June 1818, recorded by Otis Phillips, Stamford VT Tn Clerk. He died 16 February 1844, 25 yrs, 7 mo. 24 days, in Coles Co. IL., leaving a wife and three small children. (Obit. printed in Morning Star, 12 June 1844. This was a Baptist publication). His death dates coincide exactly with his birth date. He was buried in Hurricane Cemetery Hutton Twp Coles Co. IL, where his father was buried. He was named as deceased in his mother's 1853 will and his children John ?N. (pen strikeover), and B.W. Baker were also named, app. in his stead.

(Desc. Benson Bobrick lists John Baker's marr. in Coles Co. IL, but this may not be correct).

John married 20 June 1838, Ohio or IL, to Sarah Eliza Adams born 17 August 1821, Ohio, likely in Licking County, where her parents were married nine months previously. Hurricane Cemetery lists S.E. Jones, wife of H. Jones with no dates. Sarah Adams was not buried there. Sarah was buried with her third husband Robert Moore in IL.

Obit. Chebanse Herald in IL April 26, 1890. Mrs. Moore died near Chebanse on April 22 at the home of her daughter Mrs. D. H. Passell. her remains were taken to Onarga for interment. She was in her 65th yr and had suffered a paralytic stroke three weeks before her death. Mrs. Moore resided at Onarga, but had been staying with her daughter for several months.

Her gravestone is in Onarga Cem. Section 1, Row 7 and reads Sarah E. Moore, wife of Robert, August 17, 1821-April 22 1890, G.A.R. This indicates that Robert served in the Civil War.

(Ref: Alice Lackey, of Oregon, who is a descendant of Sarah and her second husband H. Jones.

Sarah's parents were buried Hurricane Cem. as Rev. John A. Adams b. 14 April 1799, d. 26 June 1878, s/o Elijah; Susannah Webb, wife of Rev. J.A. Adams, b 25 Sept. 1792 MD, d. 13 Oct. 1877. Many of the Adams fam. were bur. here as late as 1911. John Adams was born N.Y.S. acc. to census, but some of the children list their father as b. PA on 1880 census. One census says Susannah was born Delaware.

John Adams and Susan Webb were married in Licking Co. Ohio 16 Nov. 1820, IGI Batch M5154101 and 8521302, sheet 76 says 14 Nov. The 1855 census might tell in what N.Y. County John Adams was born. It is obvious that the Adams and the Baker family knew each other in Licking Co. OH.

SARAH ELIZA ADAMS AFTER DEATH OF JOHN BAKER.

In 1850 census widow Sarah and her children, listed by her middle name Eliza Baker, resided with her parents. The Baker children, residing with grandfather John Adams, were listed in the Will of their other grandmother Samantha (Town) Baker. Child John's middle initial looks like N., but has a pen made strikeover in grandmother Samantha's 1853 will, but was perhaps A. for Adams, see census. Oren P. Baker, brother of the deceased John Sr., was to pay John B. Baker's heirs the sum of one dollar each. paternal 1842 John Baker 6 yrs, b. IL, Mary Houth, 8 yrs, b. IL.

The Adams residence was next door to Matthew Baker Jr., father-in-law of Eliza Adams Baker.

Sarah E. (Adams) Baker was married second to Hezekiah D. Jones 18 Nov. 1850 by her father-in-law Rev. Matthew Baker Jr., Baptist preacher, probably in Coles Co. IL. Hezekiah was born 1817, d. 30 March 1856, age 39, bur. Hurricane Cem. His estate was listed Coles Co. IL as 7 May 1856; Adm. was John Adams. Hezekiah's dau. Anna Weil lists her father as born N.Y. on 1880 census. 92 marr online 4.B. P13

The obituary of his son Hezekiah Jr. lists Hezekiah Sr.'s ancestors as moving from Wales to Illinois in the days of Illinois' first Governor.

A Jones family was very close with Rev. Matthew Baker Jr. in Licking co. OH, but I do not know if Hezekiah had any connection to them.

Hezekiah was of KY in his early yrs acc. to descendant Alice Lackey. 1850 and 1855 census needed for place of birth of Hezekiah.

Hezekiah G. Jones married 24 Dec 1840 to Susannah C. Kingery in Coles Co. IL. This marriage is also listed as Hezekiah D. Jones.

IGI lists her parents as Samuel Kingery and Catherine Eve Spong and lists both Hezekiah b. ca 1814 and Susannah as born Range Twp, Madison Co. OH. Another IGI listing Hezekiah as b.

Alice Lackey lists the Kingery marriage as that of Hezekiah, husband of Sarah Eliza Adams. She lists Daniel P. Needham J.P. as officiating at this prior marriage. Kingery b. 1819 Madison Co. Ohio, d. 1847 Coles Co. IL. Alice wrote that there were no known issue by this marriage.

Sarah E. (Adams) (Baker) Jones married third as Mrs. Eliza Jones on 12 Sept. 1860 in Coles Co. IL to widower Robert Moore of Coles Co. (See B/212 IL Marriages). Robert was born 1808 Ireland, died after 1880 census.

Alice Lackey reports that Robert Moore died 8 Jul 1881 Onarga IL and was buried with her in Onarga, Iroquois Co. IL. His first wife Esther was b. ca 1818 in PA. Robert had a substantial farm acc. to Benson Bobrick's book, p. 139.

Robert and Esther Moore were listed on 1850 census in Salisbury Pct. Coles Co. IL with children Rebecca, Mary, Isaac, Isabella, John W. and Harriet D. Moore.

Child John W. Moore, above, enlisted Sept. 1862 at 15 yrs, killed Oct. 1863 at age 16, 123rd Illinois Reg't. Benson Bobrick's 2003 book lists another son Isaiah D. Moore who served with Benj. Webb Baker in Civil War in 25th IL Reg't as a drummer, (pp. 9, 35).

1860, Hutton Twp. Coles Co. IL, John Adams 61 yrs, b. N.Y. and Susan, 67 yrs, b. MD. John A. Baker, 17 yrs b. IL (ca 1843), farm laborer. (This was prob. John B. Baker's son counted twice on census). Also with this family was Salina Lutis, 16 yrs b. OH. She, perhaps, was an Adams granddaughter.

1860 census Hutton Tnp. Coles Co. IL, Sarah E. Jones, 39 yrs, b. OH, (ca 1821). Benjamin W. Baker 18 yrs, b. IL, (ca 1842). John A. Baker, 16 yrs, b. IL, (ca 1844). The boys were farm laborers. Other children were Harriet S. 8 yrs b. IL, Ann E. 4 yrs b. IL, Henkiah male, 4 yrs b. IL. The younger ones were listed as Baker but must be Jones. Henkiah was prob. Hezekiah Jr. The children, other than Benjamin and John Baker, were obviously from Sarah's marriage to Hezekiah D. Jones.

Sarah was inconsolable after the death of her son John in 1862. 1864, Sept. 5, Sarah met her son Webb at Springfield IL where he was mustered out of the army. Webb Baker had a step-sister Mary, 23 yrs in 1863, b. ca 1840. She was probably a Moore. (Bobrick, p. 140).

Fransus was 48 yrs b. IN, both par. b. MA. (It may be that all people living in the hh in Feb. 1880 had to be counted, even if not living there at time of census).

Obit. of Hezekiah Dunham Jones Onarga Leader and Review, Sept. 12 1929. Mentions his date of birth 3 miles south of Charlestown IL and the names of his parents. The obit. mentions his father's ancestry from Wales to Illinois. Then it mentions that he had many relatives in the section of his birth Hutton Twp. and Hutton Village, near Charlestown, which were named after his mother's people.

(I cannot determine if this refers to the father or to the son. because his mother's people were named Adams. The Adams family came from Licking Co. Ohio to Illinois about 1840).

The obit. listed his father's death when he was three weeks old. He resided at Charlestown until age 13, when they moved to Normal, and later to Lexington.

At age 22, Hezekiah visited his half brother Rev. B. W. Baker at Wauseka, who was the founder of Missouri Wesleyan College. Rev. Baker's son James C. Baker was appointed Bishop of the methodist Church in 1928. Mr. Baker purchased a home for him and his mother and sister west of the small town of Onarga IL. The sister was the first girl who graduated from Onarga High School.

He married at age 24 to Miss Laura Malina (sic), d/o Jonathan and Frances Sturdevant, pioneers of Iroquois Co. IL. Hezekiah took up surveying or leveling, specializing in the drainage of farm land, Iroquois Co. being quite swampy. he laid out more than 2000 miles of drainage.

He resided there until 1919, when he moved to Wisconsin for a yr. He became paralyzed there and broke his paralyzed leg in 1928 and died 6 Sept. 1929.

His wife preceded him in death in 1925. he was the father of six children, three of whom preceded him in death.

His three living children were Mrs. Lillian M. Green who cared for him for the past ten yrs and his two sons Jonathan W. and Charles D. Jones.

His funeral was on Sept. 8, in American Mortuary Chapel, Onarga IL. he was buried beside his wife in Onarga Cem.

12. Orin P. Baker was the son of Rev. Matthew Baker Jr. (Matthew1) and Samantha Town. He was born 29 March 1822; recorded by Town Clerk Stamford Bennington Co. Vermont Otis Phillips, as Orrin F. (clear), (FHC reel read by J.B. Humphrey). 1870 census lists Orin as born VT. 1880 census lists Orin as born Massachusetts. Orin died ~~between 1880 and 1900~~ prob. in IL. ~~Champaign Co. Clements Cem~~ <sup>6 June</sup> ~~but no death~~ <sup>Urbana Champaign Co. IL</sup>

O.P. Baker was buried in Hurricane Cem. Hutton Twp. Coles Co. IL where his father Mathew was buried. No dates for Orin were listed on cemetery printout, which could mean that he was buried elsewhere. He was alive 1880 in Urbana, Champaign Co. IL. He apparently died before 1900 census when his widow Julia appeared in Rantoul Twp. Champaign Co. IL, residing with daughter Rachel Hough. Wills of both parents list him as Orin P. Baker, but he was known as Pier or Piere on census.

1852 Orin P. Baker was named as executor in his father's will and was intended to inherit the farm and all the balance of Mathew's property, all in Coles Co. IL; provided that Orin take care of his parents as long as they shall live and to treat them kindly. Orin was the only child mentioned in Matthew Baker's will.

1853, the will of Samantha Baker listed her son Orin P. Baker as executor and was to receive her furniture and Real Estate. Samantha also mentioned her other children and a grand-son in lieu of her deceased son John Baker.

Orrin P. Baker was married first December 1, 1842 in Coles Co. Illinois, by his father Rev. Matthew Baker V.D.M., to Rachel Van Winkle, who was born ca 1821/23 in Illinois, died 3 July 1851, buried in Hurricane Cem. Coles Co. Illinois. Her gravestone was read by Joyce Seaman.

V.D.M. means Minister of ?Divinity or Gospel. (Sharon Wick lists the marriage as 8 December on a Coles Co. website).

Rachael was the daughter of Greenlee and Nancy (Heaton) Van Winkle, who married in Edwards Co. Illinois in 1816. Greenlee died 1856. (IGI has Greenlee's marriage 8 Dec. 1842). Greenlee's 1856 will named his children, including a deceased child Rachel, who was wife of Orrin P. Baker and her heirs, who were not named. Greenlee appears on census records in 1820 Crawford Co, in 1830 Clark Co, in 1840 Coles Co. IL. The names of the counties were changed several times during this period.

MARIA BAKER AND JOHN LARKIN

13. Maria<sup>3</sup> was the daughter and first child of James M.<sup>2</sup>, (Matthew<sup>1</sup>) and Mary Parker Baker, his first wife. She was born March 6, 1815 in Stamford, Bennington Co. Vermont, died October 16, 1902, bur. 18 Oct. She was married by early 1834 to John Larkin. She was buried with her husband in Oakwood Cemetery, Syracuse, NY in Lot 45, section 9. John was burial #3662 and Maria is #11103. (Ref. Interment Bks, Oakwood Cem. Records by Charles Gruman, typed by Lillian Kilby and Mrs. W. J. Bonisteel. also Pioneer Index, Onondaga Co. found in Syr. Lib.).

John Larkin was born March 28 or March 13, 1803, Saratoga Co. NY, died Dec. 2, 1878, Camillus, intestate, bur. 5 Dec. Only known heirs, wf Maria and ch. Edwin D. Larkin and Mary Sherwood, all residing Camillus and all of full age, made probate petition, 10 Jan'y 1879 at Surr. Ct. Onon. Co. Est. estate Real property $8,000, Personal prop. $10,000. He was son of Amos Larkin (Joshua<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, Edward<sup>2</sup>,<sup>1</sup>), and Mercy Joles/Jolls, wd of David Easterbrook. John was also brother of Mary Larkin, 2nd wf of James M. Baker. His sister became his stepmother in law. This reminds me of the song "I'm my own Grandma."

Larkin was a Westerly, R.I. family that went to E. Hampton, L.I. then Half Moon, then Ballston, N.Y. Albion J. Larkin was related, (deed) as was David E. Larkin, Camillus, census, p 375 and William Larkin, (Ref?). They were his bros. acc. to Anson Larkin Family Hist. Anson Larkin hist. listed the ch. of Maria and John exactly as my research found to be correct. John's father Amos was in Ballston 1790, 1800 and 1810 census. The Larkin family was said to have been of English and Irish descent.

Proof that Maria was the d/o James Millard Baker was the notation in Oakwood Cem. that her kin was James Baker, and the will of James mentions daughter Maria Larkins. In 1850 and 1860, she and her husband resided next door to her sister Mary Carolyn, wife of Isaac G. Parker 1825, John Larkin was a tax collector in Camillus, (Onondaga Centennial by John Hall Bruce).

1830, May 29, Polly Baker joined Elbridge Baptist Church by L(etter), died ?1832 (sic) was listed after her name in the church record. I believe this ?death date to be Maria's mother Polly Parker Baker who died 31 Dec. 1831.

On the same day, May 29, Maria Baker joined the same church by Baptism, dism. by L(etter, no date). This denomination baptizes usually after age 12. I believe this was Maria, d/o

James M. and Polly Parker Baker. Matthew Baker, grandfather of the Maria Baker of our interest, belonged to this church.

Also in this church record was Sally Baker dism. by letter about 1833-35, (FHC Film #836680). Sally was likely d/o Matthew Baker Sr. who m. Asa Crossman.

This John and wife seem to be too old to be our John and Maria if census age is correct, yet the children fit the ages of the above treated John. Keep open mind on this because of frequent errors on census. (Reck census for neighbors).

1844, 23 January, Onon. Co. Deed Bk 85, FHC Reel 872623, Albion J. John Larkin built a beautiful frame house on a little knoll where the road leads to the old mill in Camillus. The woodwork in the parlor was very unusual and lovely. A wrought iron fence rested on grey limestone blocks and with the addition of gay flower beds, the effect was beautiful. The home was purchased by the Delaney family after John Larkin died, and passed to that man's grandson, James Moore, (Amongst The Hills of Camillus, Maxwell).

(Need to do more on Reel 872845. Partially done in 1986. Did not concentrate on Larkin at that time).

John Larkin resided at Canton now named Memphis, Onon. Co. Name of town was changed because of confusion with Canton located in St. Lawrence Co. NY.

In the early 1900's, a related Mrs. John Larkin, ran a Tea-room at Ballston Lake, assisted by Mrs. Bayliss.

(typed copy of part of undated letter from Lorenda Knox). The name Bayliss is interesting considering the Baylies connection. (See Matthew Baker of Attleborough narrative in this mss).

The 1790 census of Ballston, then in Albany Co., (now in Saratoga Co.) lists Joshua Larkins with one male over 16 and 3 females in his household. He resided between Robert Millard, Nathan Miller and Eleizar Millard. 19 houses away was Amos Larkins. (Joshua was grfather and Amos was father of John Larkin acc. to Anson J. Larkin Family Hist).

LUCY P. BAKER AND WILSON BATES

14. Lucy P. Baker was d/o James M.<sup>2</sup> (Matthew<sup>1</sup>) and Mary Parker Baker. Her birth calc. at 17 Aug. 1817. She died 29 Sept. 1841, 24 yrs, 1 mo, 12 days. She was wife of Wilson Bates in typed Oswego Bitter cem. list, Camillus, same cem. as grfather Matthew Baker. Lucy died before her father's will was written in Dec. 1857, but she was named therein with legacy to her son James Bates. She perhaps died from complications of childbirth. Speculat

Lucy married Wilson Bates as second wife, ca 1836-1841. Wilson was b. ca 1800, (acc. to 1850, 1860 census).

MARY CAROLYN BAKER AND ISAAC G. PARKER

Skaneateles Free Press, January 13 1911. Obituary of Mary Carolyn (Baker) Parker.

She survived Isaac. Both were buried Maplewood Cem. Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y. near her father. Her daughter Lorenda Knox wrote a letter Apr. 1908 to Mrs. Peterson who then owned her father's farm. "Mother was 87 yrs old, the 1st day of last Dec." She survived all her siblings.

James M. Baker made his will December 1857. His will listed his daughter Caroline Parker. The cemetery record and her obit. list her as Mary C., wife of Isaac G. Parker.

Mary Carolyn Baker married by 1845 to Isaac G. Parker, born April 1819 Vermont, died August 1904. Isaac was son of Josiah and Orinda/Orenda (Wright) Parker Sr. Josiah was born 6 July 1785, Weybridge VT; (census lists him b. 1788 MA); resided New Haven, Addison Co. VT before 1850, died 5 May 1874, probably Vergennes, Addison Co. VT. Orenda/Orenda Wright was born 1788, died 1842, Weybridge, Addison Co. VT. Josiah and Orenda were married 31 May 1810 at Amherst, Hampshire Co. MA. Orinda Wright was dau. of Silas Wright and wife Eleanor Goodale, of Weybridge VT; grand daughter of Samuel Wright and Penelope Leonard. Dates and places for Josiah and Orinda found online citing Genealogies of Hadley (MA) by Boltwood.

Josiah Parker Sr. married second ca 1843-49 to Olive (-?-), (b. ca 1795 MA, alive 1860 w/Josiah in Addison Co. VT).

I have a copy of an old photo of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Parker in the first year of their marriage, held by Justin Baker, (deceased). Josiah was identified in the photo as grandparents of Dr. Harriet Knox, (deceased), but must be her great grandparents. Josiah Parker born 1788 MA, (census), had a son Josiah W. Parker born May 1827 VT. Note that the photo may be of either father Josiah Sr, or Josiah Jr., brother of Isaac.

Oct. 1890, St. Lawrence Plaindealer, Canton N.Y., Surrogate Notice. Isaac G. Parker of Camillus, NY and Josiah W. Parker of Los Angeles CA, were amongst several heirs of Mr. Pliny Wright, (deceased), of Canton N.Y., ordered to appear.

Pliny Wright, (1805-1890), was brother of Orinda Wright first wife of Josiah Parker Sr. of New Haven and Vergennes, Addison Co. VT.

1850 census, Waltham, Addison Co. VT Josiah Parker, 62 yrs, born ca 1788 MA, Olive Parker, 55 yrs b. MA (ca 1795), Eliza Bell, 17 yrs b. N.Y. (ca 1833).
(Was Eliza a dau. of Olive by a previous husb)?

1860 June 2 census Waltham, Addison Co. VT, P.O. Vergennes, Josiah Parker, 72 yrs b. MA, Real Estate $1150, Personal $170, Farmer, Olive 66 yrs b. MA.

1870 June 7 census Vergennes, Addison Co. VT, Josiah Parker 82 yrs, b. VT (ca 1788), retired farmer, R.E. $17,000, Personal $2000, reided with his son Josiah W. Parker, Head, 43 b. VT and Betty 43 b. VT and their children.

1880 census, Josiah W. Parker (Jr) was still in Vergennes VT.

1900 census Los Angeles, CA, widower Josiah Parker (Jr) b. May 1827 VT, was living with his dau. Eliza O. Allen and her family. He was incorrectly listed as W. Joseph Parker.

Isaac and Carolyn Parker resided in Vermont for six yrs, after their marriage, at Isaac's early home in Vermont. Both of their children were born in Vermont. (census and William Knox Gen'y by Nathaniel Foote publ. 1926). Daughter Lorenda Parker was born 1849 at Vergennes, Addison Co. VT.

Caroline moved from Stamford Bennington Co. Vermont to the Town of Camillus N.Y. when she was a small child, ca 1822/24. She resided in a log cabin with her parents until 1827 when her father built the home on the Bennett's Corners Rd where she was raised.

Carolyn and Isaac apparently bought out the other Baker heirs and resided on Bennett's Corners Rd, Town of Camillus on the homestead of her father, James M. Baker. They resided there for many years after the 1866 death of James Baker. Later, Peter N. Peterson bought the farm. Isaac owned another farm which was later purchased by James Delaney. About 1891, they moved to the Village of Camillus where they resided for 12 yrs. About 1902, they moved to their daughter Lorenda's home in Pearl River, NY. By this time, their health was feeble. Isaac died two yrs later. When Carolyn's health was fragile, she occupied herself in making 30 bedquilts.

Isaac took pride in keeping the family grave-sites in Maplewood Cemetery, in good condition, (dau. Lorenda Knox' letter).

1830 census, New Haven, Addison Co. VT, Josiah Parker, 2 males, 40-50, one male under 5, one male 10-14, one female 10-14, one female, 40-50. The boys fit the ages of Isaac and Josiah Jr.

1838, Oct. James M. and Mary Baker sold 5 acres of Lot 63, in Town of De Witt, (formerly Manlius, in Town of Tully), Onondaga Co. N.Y. for $500 to Josiah Parker of New Haven, Addison Co. VT. The land bordered Timothy Graham to Luther Parker's house, to Silas Burk's lot, to Graham's Corners. Given the Addison Co. VT address, Josiah Parker was either father or brother of Isaac G. Parker, of the same name.

(Who lived on this property later? Josiah doesn't seem to have moved to Onondaga Co. Was Luther Parker related to Josiah)?

1840 census New Haven, Addison Co. VT, Josiah Parker, one male 10-15, a male 15-20, one male 20-30, one male 50-60, one female 50-60. This would be Josiah Sr. (Two of the ages of the young males fit Isaac and bro. Josiah Jr.).

Daughter Lorenda (Parker) Knox wrote letters over a period of years to Mrs. Peterson who owned and resided in the old Baker home on Bennett's Corners Rd, Tn of Camillus where she grew up. This home was built in 1827 by James M. Baker, s/o Matthew Baker and Lydia Millard. Mrs. Peterson's daughter Helen Kennedy has the original letters and her sister-in-law Betty Peterson copied and typed them. I am indebted to Helen (Peterson) Kennedy who sent the extracts to me. Betty Peterson misread some of the names in the letters. Excerpts follow:

Carolyn's furniture was disposed of at auction in Camillus when they moved away.

1908 letter -

"Mother had a dreadful fall five years ago, now 87 yrs. busy making patchwork quilts. She made at least 13 during those 5 yrs. We have live in help because Carolyn could not be left alone. Mother asked about Mary Rawlings who married Mr. Williams and lived at Warners".

1911, Jan. 30, just after her mother's death.

"I cannot tell you how much we miss her. She was always here. For nearly three years mother had not wanted to go out because it tired her too much. She had been failing for fully a year. I was not prepared for her illness and such suffering. It was short, only three days in bed. She worried over Mr. Knox and myself because we were sick with the Grippe. She became ill from Grippe. Our daughter came that afternoon. Rest came to her about 1:30 on Sat. morning, January 7th. We were quite undecided what to do about the burial, as our daughter insisted I was not well enough to go to Camillus. Two of her patients made her going, also out of the question, so after learning that the vault in Maplewood Cemetery was in a condition to be used, we thought it would be best to wait until the weather is warmer and we in better health, before we lay her in her last resting place beside Father. Mr. Knox went with the casket and saw it placed in the vault.

I am nearly well now, but more lonely than I can tell you. We have so much to remind us of her every day. Such an active life for more than ninety years. She did a little quilting on Tuesday of that last week."

1924 letter

"A three ply oak and green carpet was the second carpet ever purchased by my parents with the exception of the one in the parlor. (Purchased for the sitting room in the Baker house) All the others were made from worn out clothing and all the work and weaving were done by my mother, in addition to all her other work".

(In 1924, Lorenda was mailing the above-mentioned carpet as a gift to the Peterson's who resided in the Baker house).

"My only brother died a soldier in the Civil War, so all they had worked so hard for came to me. He went from living on the Baker farm to the Civil War and never came back. I often wish they had used more of it for themselves."

Daughter Lorenda wrote in 1928; "autos were quite scarce at the time of father's death, but mother lived to see her granddaughter (Harriet Knox) visiting her patients in her own car."

"Baling hay was not common when I lived on the farm."

1929, Dec. 29. My cousin Lillian (Baker) Waggoner, d/o Uncle Jerome Baker ..... suffering much from injuries received in a trolley accident in Baldwinsville. Fell in Battle of Gettysburg, Civil War. (give Regt). Beautiful letter written to Mrs. Parker July 30, 1863 from Robert __, a long time intimate comrade of the fallen soldier, who was then serving at a camp near Warrenton, VA. Inkblot obliterates the writer. Robert obtained a pass from Gen. Shaler/Shater to visit George, who was badly wounded in the breast. Capt. Gere, who stated he loved George like a brother, and Lt. Marks visited him when wounded as did the Col. The Lt. stated he couldn't have missed a man in his Regiment more than George. Dr. Knapp attended him. Buxton, a cook for Gen. Newton brought him delicacies. He was described as having an honest face and firm set mouth. He was everywhere loved. George wished for his parents to know that he did his duty for a glorious cause and for his sister Lorenda to know that she need never be ashamed of her brother. The letter writer mentioned that two other close friends recently died, George and ?Azarim Gaylord. (Could these be relatives of Cora Hinsdale Gaylord's husband?

ORINDA B. BAKER AND MARQUIS T. SPERRY

16. Orinda B. Baker was the daughter of James M. (Matthew1) Baker and Mary Parker. She was born 28 Feb. 1823, Stamford VT. She died July 1897 Asbury Park, NJ. (VR from Sperry Mss by George S. Skilton, copy at New Haven Colony Hist. Socy). She is listed as Orida Sperry in her father's will.

Orinda married 27 April 1843, Camillus, NY to Marquis Truman Sperry, who was born 26 Jany 1812, Ct, d. 18 Feb. 1871 Syracuse, NY. He died by violent death, either accident, suicide or murder in Onon. Co. His death was printed in the Syracuse Standard and Journal, (FHC Reel, 017837). Date corroborated by Sperry Mss. Marcus was s/o Truman (Lemuel4, Jacob3, Ebenezer2, Richard1) and Parthena Hotchkiss Sperry, (Sperry Mss).

Truman Sperry was b. 17 Dec 1775, Woodbridge, CT, d. 24 May 1840 @ 64 yrs, m. 1798 to Parthena Hotchkiss, born 5 Nov. 1780, New Haven CT, d. 6 Oct 1877, d/o Thaddeus Hotchkiss and Keturah Smith, (Skilton Mss). Truman bur. Lot 6, Sears/Sorrel Hill Cem. Van Buren, NY, (Leslie E. Voorhees, Onon. Co. Cems, V. 1, p. 6).

1848, M.T. Sperry was President of town of Jordan, Onon. Co. Established about 1850, Sperry and Rockwell were mfrs of wheelbarrows, sleds, skates. R. S. Sperry was Pres. Jordan 1857 and D.A. Sperry was Trustee, 1st Ward Jordan, 1877 or later. (Hist. Onon. Co. by Clayton, p 304). Note that widow Lydia Rockwell resided next to James M. Baker, Bennett's Corners Rd in Tn Camillus, see notes ofr Matthew Baker Sr. this book.

1850 Marquis/Marcus resided on Lot 45, Elbridge, N.Y. See deed of Erastus and Clarissa Baker to M. T. Sperry, 1850. Is Erastus Baker related? If so, would have to be from brother of Matthew<sup>1</sup>, or from Matthew Jr. reck deeds.

JULIA ANN BAKER AND ALANSON COOK

17. Julia A. Baker was the daughter of James M.<sup>2</sup> (Matthew<sup>1</sup>) Baker and his first wife Mary Parker #3. Julia was born October 29, 1825, in Town of Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y. and died October 18, 1894, 68 yrs, 11 months, 20 days, at Camillus. Julia's death certificate lists her mother as Polly Parker and her father as James M. Baker. I have a picture of her gravestone that has clear dates. Julia died from Scirrrous (sic) Carcinoma of pancreas, intestines and liver. She was attended by Dr. Fred W. Slocum. She had been ill for eight months. C. Saffords, Undertaker. Julia was buried in Robbin/Sherwood Cemetery with her parents, all were later reinterred in Maplewood cemetery, Camillus. Alanson was not buried with her. They were living separately in 1870 and 1880 census. Julia predeceased Alanson by ten years.

Julia married 8 June 1846 to Alanson Cook. Notice of their marriage was published June 17, 1846 in the Cayuga Patriot, a weekly newspaper of Auburn, Cayuga Co. N.Y. A copy is at the Seymour Library History Room Auburn, N.Y. Alanson was born May 1823 in New Jersey, according to census. He died 1904. He was probably not from the Stamford Vermont Cook family.

Alanson was the son of John (1791-1878) and Lydia Cook (1801-1867), according to John Bartlett who checked the cemetery record for me.

Alanson listed his father as born N.Y. and his mother born N.J. on 1880 census. John's other wife was Jane, (1793-1888). Alanson, John and John's two wives were buried in Oswego Bitter Cemetery, Camillus, N.Y. Deborah L., listed as sister of Alanson, was listed as wife of Moses Morton, or Morton Moses, same cem. no date.

Alanson Cook was described in an article entitled "Reminiscences" by C. H. Williams, from notes made in the early 1940's when the author was 87 yrs of age. "Alanson Cook, who lived on Cook's Corners, was the Ward MacAlister of the region. He was a dancing man who would go far to enjoy his terpsichorean amusement. He was a dandy, wore a ruffled shirt, and had ringlet curls in his hair which was anointed with delicate odored oils. He wore the finest kind of light calfskin boots made specially to tread the Virginia Reel and Monnimusk, for those were square dance days. He was one of the pioneers of the waltz when that close communion was discovered, and was musicked (sic) with The Blue Danube, which the local Taylor's band rendered very nicely. He could float through the Blue Danube with a nice bundle of muslin, and could tread the figures of all the square numbers, a good swinger at the corners. He could cut a pigeon wing and juber in the waits before the "swing your Partners, do-si-do." His tongue wasn't very flippant, but, boy, he could dance! If by chance he ever did miss a dance, there was a big hole in the party. He missed no dance within driving distance, even if it did cost a dollar for he always got his money's worth.

Alanson's sister Debby was the Belle of any ball she attended, and did much to establish the local fame of a dancing family, in the grand and glorious days of a half century ago."

Gen. 3

JEROME C. BAKER AND ELIZABETH/BETSEY A. EVANS

18. Jerome C. Baker was born 1829, N.Y., eldest son of James M. (Matthew<sup>1</sup>) and first wife Mary Parker #3. Descendant Richard W. Cooney said that he died 6 Jan. 1896, at 69 yrs, at Syracuse, Onondaga Co. N.Y.

Richard Cooney's daughter Kathleen has Jerome's place of death as FL. When Jerome's son James died late Oct. 1888, the newspaper obituary listed Jerome as being in FL at the present time. This suggests a temporary place of abode.

Jerome was supposedly buried Oakwood Cem. Syracuse, but is not listed with his wife in Lot 62-4.

Jerome Baker married Betsey A. Evans, 1 Nov. 1848, by Rev. L.C. Bates, Canton, St. Lawrence Co. N.Y. (Bowman, 10,000 V.R.; FHC film 836780 Onon. Gazette, NSDAR Newark Valley, N.Y.).

Please note that there was a Canton in the Town of Camillus, Onondaga Co. which name was later changed to Memphis because of confusion with the Canton in St. Lawrence Co. Thus, her marriage may have been in Onon. Co.

What is the significance of the D.A.R.? Does D.A.R. have her bible record, or did she have a Rev. War ancestor?

Elizabeth A. Baker was buried in Oakwood Cem. on 7 Dec. 1915 in Lot 62-4 owned by Hulbert D. and Henrietta M. Rose, her daughter, who are also buried there. Jerome and Betsey's son James T. Baker was also buried in this lot. This identifies Jerome Baker's wife Betsey/Elizabeth's death date. The current cemetery Lot drawing was supplied by descendant K. Kalamarides.

An old published list of the cemetery lists Elizabeth A. Baker born Oct. 10, 1827 Syracuse N.Y., died Dec. 6 1915, Bridgeport CT. Her kin, according to this list were Thomas and Letitia Evers Mills. Who was Thos. Mills? Was Letitia her sister, with maiden name Evans or Evens?

Betsey's brother Thomas Evans born ca 1835 res. with Jerome in 1850 census; her sister Martha J. b. ca 1833 lived with Jerome in 1855 census and Jane Evans b. ca 1833 resided with Jerome on 1860 census. These might be two people or the same person if Martha had middle name Jane.

Descendant Richard W. Cooney, lawyer, said that Elizabeth, wife of Jerome, was born 10 Oct. 1828, died 14 Dec. 1915 at age 87. His dates vary a bit from the cemetery lists.

Jerome and Betsey's daughter Henrietta M. Baker Rose died in Bridgeport CT also, which lends further credence to Elizabeth buried 1915 in Oakwood Cem.etry, being the wife of Jerome Baker.

Jerome and Betsey Baker began housekeeping in the Baker house, 5908 Bennett Corner's Rd., Camillus, N.Y. when first married acc. to cousin Lorenda Parker Knox in a 1924 letter.

1850 census, Tn of Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y. p. 228. House 55, family 56, Jerome Baker, age 21, b. N.Y. ca 1829, Farmer, no property listed for him, Betsey, 22 yrs b. N.Y. ca 1828. Thomas Evans, 15 yrs, born N.Y. lived with them. This is probably Betsey's truest age on this census.

Jerome resided next door to his sisters Mary Carolyn Baker, wf of Isaac G. Parker who owned $3000 property and Maria Baker, wf of John Larkin. Also close to his cousin Lydia Cole, wf of Marcus Parker. Jerome's father James M. Baker lived nearby in house #43 with his second wife and his two unmarried sons Henry and Charles.

It is possible that the census taker went back and forth on both sides of the street when visiting houses. All these children of James M. Baker may have been living on original Baker land.

They lived in a double house with the farmer John Potter family who had no ownership.

The next neighbor was still Jerome's sister Mary C. (Carolyn Baker) Parker and husb. Isaac. John Larkin was listed 9 houses away. Marcus Parker was no longer listed.

1855 census, Agriculture for Jerome Baker 82 acres improved land, 12 unimproved acres, Value of farm $7000, stock value $700, tools $170 etc. Had Chair factory with $800 invested in real estate, $400 in tools and machinery, $50 raw lumber, $2000 value, uses water power, employs 3 men, av. monthly wages exclusive of board $16.

1860 census, Tn Camillus, House 1813, family 1817. Jerome resided next to his father James M. Baker.

Jerome C. Baker, Farmer, Real Estate valued at $2285. He and his wife Betsey were 30 yrs of age, both born N.Y. Ch. Henrietta, 8 yrs, Ida S. 5 yrs, James M. 3 yrs, all b. N.Y. Also Jane Evans 27 yrs, Tailoress, born N.Y. George Baker. He received his education in the common schools of this city, and began his commercial career in the State Bank of this city, from whence he went to the Trust and Deposit Company and from there to the Bank of Syracuse, of which he was teller at the time he was compelled to relinquish his duties on account of failing health last Spring. Mr. Baker was secretary of the Citizen's Club.

He was a young man of great promise, and his death will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends. Mr. Baker's father, at the present time, is in Florida. The deceased also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Frank Waggoner and Mrs. H.D. Rose.

Why doesn't the obit. list where his mother was living when James died?

GEN. 3

HENRY JAMES BAKER AND FRANCES AMELIA STEVENS

19. Henry James Baker was born 15 July 1834, in Twp. of Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y. Henry died 11 April 1900, Fort Smith, Sebastian Co. Arkansas, buried 13 April in Oak Cemetery there, east of S. Greenwood Ave. and south of Dodson Ave. Henry was the son of James Millard Baker, (Mathew1) and his second wife Mary aka Polly Larkin.

Henry was born 1834 according to 1850-1880 Fed'l censuses; 1855 N.Y. State census and 1885 Nebraska State census. Henry's digitized online obituary lists his birth 15 July 1831.

Henry's funeral cost $87.50, including a hearse and 3 hacks (horse and carriage). Henry died at 79 yrs from Paralysis, (stroke). Address Corner E. and 15th St. Ft. Smith ARK. The funeral bill was paid in four increments. p.266, copy at Ft. Smith Library.

THE STANDARD, A weekly Baptist newspaper, V.47, No.36, published in Chicago, Illinois for week ending May 5, 1900. Digitized online copy, Google search.

Henry J. Baker was born June 15 1831, (sic), in Camillus, Onondaga Co. NY, and died 11 April 1900 in Fort Smith Arkansas.

He was the son of James Millard Baker, a farmer of wealth and prominence. "Squire" Baker was born of eminently worthy New England families of Massachusetts and Vermont, and the son Henry inherited noble and admirable traits of character. He spent his youth in Camillus, marrying there in 1856, Miss Frances A. Stevens, a teacher, and a lady of marked intelligence and culture. Three children were born of this union, the eldest, a son Samuel H. Baker, a lawyer of Denver Colorado, a daughter Mary, who died in infancy, and Fannie A. Baker. Being disappointed himself in receiving a college education, it was his ambition to afford this advantage to his children. Though suddenly bereft of his ample fortune, this end was accomplished by great sacrifice on his part, uncomplainingly borne, and both son and daughter gained the degree of Master of Arts. For several years recently, Mr. Baker has been occupied in Chicago, winning there the respect and confidence of all who knew him. About two years ago, he was stricken with partial paralysis. Last September he removed to Fort Smith with his wife and daughter, in the hope that his health might be benefited by the change in climate. For a time improvement seemed certain, but the last of March, he took a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia. He appeared to be recovering from the attack, which was considered slight, but passed away April 11, suddenly and quietly, doubtless from another paralytic stroke. Funeral services were conducted from the family residence by Rev. N. R. Pittman, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Fort Smith, of which the family were members. ....etc.

Each class in the high school, where his daughter is a teacher, was represented by some exquisite token. .... etc. His body was laid to rest in a pleasant spot in beautiful Oak Cemetery, ... etc.

Henry joined the Baptist Church of Camillus when about 16 yrs of age, ..... etc.

The will of James M. Baker written 1 Dec. 1857, was probated 30 April 1866 Onondaga Co. N.Y. Son Jerome C. Baker, co-executor, made a petition to prove the will. Surrogate Judge DeWitt C. Greenfield. (Bk N, pp 290-293).

Mary (Larkin) Baker, second wife of James, was incapable of managing anything, causing James<sup>2</sup> to put a clause in his will disinheriting Henry and Charles A. Baker, IF his wife Mary L. should, by evil counsel or bad advice, claim one third of his property. This is proof that Henry and Charles were sons by the second wife Mary Larkin. Jerome C., son by wife one, and Charles A., son by wife two, were co-executors of his will. The third co-executor was son-in-law, Isaac G. Parker, who was married to Mary Carolyn Baker, daughter of James, by his first wife Mary aka Polly Parker.

Amongst the bequests was:

to son Henry J. Baker, $4,000, the farm that was purchased from Henry Hess and running through on the north line to the east line of lot #77, a total of 100 acres and this land to be made even in the number of acres of land.

MARRIAGE

Henry James Baker married 1856 at Camillus N.Y. to Francis Amelia Stevens, born 1828 Monroe Co. N.Y., probably in Parma, died 21 December 1907, at 79 yrs, buried Dec. 22, in Oak Cemetery Fort Smith, Sebastian Co. Ark. Her address was 515 N. 15th St. Ft. Smith Ark. Her funeral cost $91.50, including a car and 2 hacks (horse and carriage). Rev. Gibson officiated. Buried in one fourth cemetery lot. Her funeral was paid in eight increments.

Frances Stevens was the daughter of Zolved Stevens, (born ca 1792, maybe in MA, died 11 May 1831 at 39 yrs, in Parma, Monroe Co. N.Y.), and his last wife Ann/Anna (-?-), Winship, (born ca 1798 in VT, died 4 May 1865, @ 67 yrs, in Camillus N.Y., as Anna/Ann Thorp). The death record of Frances Steven's sister Mrs. Marietta (Stevens) Avery, lists her father as Beloved Slevens, (sic) and her mother as Anna Winship; the Winship was crossed out and a ditto mark added for Slevens. It would appear that the t was not crossed in the names.

Zolved Stevens and Mrs. Anna/Ann ( ? ) Winship were married ca 1822/24. Both had previopus marriages. Both were buried in Hoosick, aka West Greece cemetery, at Parma, Monroe Co. N.Y. This typed cemetery list digitized and online, shows her as Anna Thorp, mother of Dr. S.P. Winship, G.W. Winship, M.S. Avery and F.S. Baker. (I do not know if the names of her children were actually engraved on her gravestone).

G.W. was George W. Winship, b. ca 1818; M.S. was Marietta Stevens, b. 1825, wife of Charles Avery; F.S. was Frances Stevens, b. ca 1828, wife of Henry James Baker.

Zolved Stevens' first wife, Sophia ( ? ), died 1821, age 25, buried with him. Zolved and Sophia were married before 1819, as shown by the date their child was buried with them.

Anna/Ann ( ? ) married first ca 1816/1818 to Mr. Winship, possibly Samuel, who was born ca 1795, died 26 Sept. 1819, buried in the same Hoosick cemetery, or to Dr. S.P. Winship, b. ca 1790, died 8 Aug. 1819, at 29 years. The dates for S.P. may be incorrect because the same cemetery compiler, in another version of the Hoosick aka W. Greece Cemetery, omits S.P., instead listing (no first name) Winship, whose gravestone is illegible and broken in several pieces. The compiler may have been confused regarding Ann Thorp's son S.P. Winship. (George W. Winship, son of Ann, was born ca 1818, died 1885 in Parma, N.Y.).

Mrs. Anna/Ann Stevens married third ca 1853 to Samuel Thorp/Thorpe of Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y., born 1781, died 30 Aug. 1862, 80 yrs, 8 mo, 0 days, buried Sherwood Robbins Old Cemetery, with his first wife Sarah Chapman, born 1778, died 30 Sept 1847, 68 yrs, 10 mo, 0 days. Another rendition of the cemetery listed Sarah died 1851. They were both reinterred in Maplewood Cem. Camillus N.Y. Son William C. Thorp, (1809-1890), and wife Eliza Ann Comstock 1804/13-1900), and children, likewise. (Sherwood Robbins cemetery flooded each Spring. Many bodies were reinterred).

Anna Thorp left a will, Bk N, p.270, (1865/67). Samuel Thorp left a will, Bk L, p.482, (1859/61). Both Onondaga Co. wills are available at sampubco.com. I did not obtain these wills.

One possible clue to Ann's maiden name may be the marriage of Sept. 1829 in Parma N.Y, by Zolved Stevens Esq., of Mr. Lewis Crosier of Halifax VT to Miss Malinda Allen of the same place. Ann, wife of Zolved Stevens was also born in Vermont. Zolved was a Magistrate and probably had the authority to marry people. That was the only marriage that he performed, that was listed on the Monroe Co. N.Y. website.

1860 map of Town of Camillus shows a crossroad just south of James M. Baker on Bennett's Corners road which look eastward from the township of Wellington close to the village of Camillus. H. J. Baker, was listed on Lot 89 on this crossroad, just across the road from a cemetery; S. Thorp, T. Sherwood, and W. Thorp were also across the road.

A. Tinkham and A. Richmond resided on the same side of the road as Henry Baker. (I am not sure if all listed on this map were property owners).

This map shows Henry's father James M. Baker listed at Bennett's Corners Rd. Henry's brothers Charles A. and Jerome C. Baker both straddled his father's property. Charles was listed with two houses, one possibly being the land purchased from his brother Henry in 1859.

1865, Ann Thorp, mother of Frances Baker died in Camillus, N.Y., buried in Parma N.Y. Left will Bk N, p. 270, in Camillus. Her son George W. Winship was executor of her estate. I did not obtain her will.

1869, Henry Baker sold land in Camillus, apparently getting ready to move to Minneapolis Minnesota.

(The large dollar amount of personal property in 1870, seemingly indicated that Henry may have been only a short time in Minn. and had not yet purchased a home. His father died in 1866, so his money may have been from sale of his inherited land).

Marietta had previously resided in Onondaga Co. N.Y. (Henry was Marietta's bro-in-law, married to her sister Frances Stevens).

Between 1870 and 1880, Henry J. Baker returned to Camillus N.Y. for a time. His dau. Fannie Baker's obit. listed the family as having resided in Owatonna MN for a time.

Henry Baker's cousin Maria (Lee) House, sister of Jane Cudworth, was Henry's neighbor in 1880. Did Henry attend the Baptist church where his cousin's husband Merritt House was a preacher? (Try to get church record for time that Baker family may have been members).

Merritt House was listed as a farmer in 1880, but he was also a Baptist preacher who died 15 Jan. 1883 in Claremont MN. From 1861 to 1870, Merritt House was in Eyota, Olmstead Co. MN, preaching. The History of Claremont lists Merritt House, who organized the Baptist church there ca 1875. Merritt House was clerk of the school board in 1876/77.

Did Henry serve in Civil War?

In an old Ledger of the Town Board in Claremont Township, Dodge Co. Minnesota:

June 1880 paid to H.J. Baker for road work, $38.00;

July 17, 1880, pd to H.J. Baker for grading work, $152.00;

July 17, 1880 paid to Albert Baker for road work, $46.50;

June 28, 1881, pd to H.J. Baker from Road fund, $38.00;

July 8, 1881, pd to H.J. Baker from road fund, $152.00;

July 17, 1881, pd to Albert Baker from road fund, $46.50.

H.J. Baker was elected R.R. Commissioner 1883 with 88 votes.

This was copied Jan. 20, 1993 by Idella M. Conwell, Dodge Co. Secretary of Minnesota Historical Soc'y.

It is unknown if H.J. Baker in these transactions was the Henry J. Baker that we seek. I believe Claremont had a small population at that time which makes it likely that H. J. was Henry, s/o James M. Baker.

One Albert Baker was an assistant to Henry J. Baker during the construction work in MN in 1880, having been paid less. Was This Albert, first cousin of Henry J. Baker? (See ante, Albert, b. ca 1809, son of Rev. Matthew Baker Jr. I cannot find Albert anywhere in U.S. census after 1860, last known to have been in Illinois with a new wife Catherine, having divorced his former wife). If he was the same Albert, he would have been 71 yrs old in 1880.

(One Albert Baker was in Ellingham, Dodge Co. MN in 1880 census 29 yrs, b. WI ca 1851, both par. b. N.Y., with wife Imelia and ch. Clara and Lara).

In 1992, Claremont MN had a population of 591. It is 22 miles west of Rochester, Olmstead Co. MN.

A two page history of the Larkin family written by Anson Joseph Larkin (1841-1904), 2nd cousin to Henry J. Baker), lists Henry Baker, s/o Polley Larkin who married James Baker, as having moved to Minnecota, (sic). Colorado was first written, then crossed out and Minnecota written. The history lists Polley as d/o Amos Larkin. Anson's family history names Florence Baker, d/o Henry's brother Charles A. Baker. Florence Baker was born Dec. 1875, thus showing that the Larkin history was written after 1875.

Note that Henry's son, Samuel Baker, moved to Colorado between 1882/1885.

church, and for six years was superintendent of the Sunday-school. He was much appreciated as an earnest helper in all lines of the church life. Oct. 20, 1859, he was married to Miss Margaret Johnson, with whom he lived in happy wedded life over forty years. Four children blessed their home. One little girl died in infancy. Mrs. Chapman, of Shell Rock, the wife of Rev. N. E. Chapman, and Fred and Bert Crowther are well known to many. In 1885 Mr. and Mrs. Crowther moved to Osage, Iowa.

Mr. Crowther was a man of noble Christian character, a generous friend of education, a good citizen, a good friend, a good neighbor, and always took a deep interest in his church. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. I. Coon, his pastor, assisted by Rev. S. E. Wilcox and Prof. J. A. Lapham.

BAKER.—Henry J. Baker was born June 15, 1831, in Camillus, Onondaga County, N. Y., and died Apr. 11, 1900, in Fort Smith, Ark.

He was the son of James Millard Baker, a farmer of wealth and prominence. "Squire" Baker was born of eminently worthy New England families of Massachusetts and Vermont, and the son Henry inherited noble and admirable traits of character. He spent his youth in Camillus, marrying there, in 1856, Miss Frances A. Stevens, a teacher, and a lady of marked intelligence and culture. Three children were born of this union, the eldest, a son, Samuel H. Baker, a lawyer of Denver, Colo., a daughter, Mary, who died in infancy, and Fannie A. Baker. Being disappointed himself in receiving a college education, it was his ambition to afford this advantage to his children. Though suddenly bereft of his ample fortune, this end was accomplished by great sacrifice on his part uncomplainingly borne, and both son and daughter gained the degree of Master of Arts. For several years recently Mr. Baker has been occupied in Chicago, winning there the respect and confidence of all who knew him. About two years ago he was stricken with partial paralysis. Last September he removed to Fort Smith with his wife and daughter, in the hope that his health might be benefited by the change of climate. For a time improvement seemed certain, but the last of March he took a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia. He appeared to be recovering from this attack, which was considered slight, but passed away Apr. 11 suddenly and quietly, doubtless from another paralytic stroke. Funeral services were conducted from the family residence by Rev. N. R. Pittman, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Fort Smith, of which he and his family were members. The services were simple and appropriate, in Scripture rendered some of the hymns that were favorites with the deceased during her life. The interment was Forest Lawn in Buffalo, N. Y., the remains being accompanied to their last resting-place by her children Mrs. Ell Wight, Mr. George D. Eddy and wife, I. Albert M. Eddy and Mrs. Chauncey B. Bradley.

"A Good Maxim is Never Out of Season."

That is apparently what the proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla believe, as their advertising is now full of proverbs, old sayings, wise saws and other quotations. It may be said, too that a good medicine is never out of season, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good medicine because it does everybody good who takes it. No preparation has ever been placed on the market that has won and held public confidence, year after year, as Hood's Sarsaparilla has done, and is doing.

There must be a reason for this and it is found in the remarkable cures that are constantly being effected by its use. Only the other day a gentleman was saying how much this medicine had done for his family. It completely cures scrofula, salt rheum and all sorts of eruptions. It gives to the young rosy cheeks and clear, healthy complexion, and is better for them than all the cosmetics ever produced. Women who are wearied and worn out by constant household cares say that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives them a good appetite, sweet sleep, physical strength, and abounding health.

In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it actually seems to have a magic touch. It is wonderful for giving strength to the nerves and curing neuralgia and nerve prostration. Rheumatism, catarrh, malaria, kidney troubles, etc., promptly yield to its curative power, while for those who are recovering from fevers or other serious illness Hood's Sarsaparilla is indeed the best medicine that money can buy.

There is no question but that the originators of this remedy have hit upon a happy secret in the peculiar combination, proportion and process of Hood's Sarsaparilla, for they have a medicine that cures a wide range of diseases. Their claim that this fact is due to the power of Hood's Sarsaparilla to eradicate the germ of disease from the blood and at the same time tone up and strengthen the general system through enriched and vitalized blood seems entirely reasonable. We heartily recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as a perfect, honest and reliable remedy and we advise all who go to purchase it to be sure that they get Hood's and not some cheap and worthless substitute.

Philadelphia Letter.

By J. G. WALKER, D.D.

An address of exceptional charm and brilliancy marked the proceedings at our

Ministers' Conference

Apr. 22, when Rev. B. D. Hahn, of Springfield, Mass., made some timely and scholarly observations concerning "The Higher Criticism." In easy and graceful diction he clearly and pungently set forth the absurdities of a final appeal to "literary style" in the determination of questions concerning authorship. His argument with reference to the comparative value of analyses given in the first and second chapters of Genesis, and based upon the "subject matter" and "verbal appellations" therein contained, was widely at variance with the conclusions of radical critics. At the close of the address, the appreciation of the conference was expressed in a hearty vote of thanks, and in an equally hearty request for the address in some published form. At the meeting on Apr. 16, another address, on "The Bible and the Buried Cities of the East," was delivered by Prof. R. W. Rodgers, of Drew Seminary, and was of exceeding interest and profit to all present, and which in available form will be of immense service to all careful readers and students of the Bible.

The new and beautiful structure located at Upland, to be known as the J. Lewis Crozer and mention of which was made in a recent letter, was formally opened on the afternoon of Apr. 23, in the presence of a large gathering that included many physicians and representatives of various medical societies. The exercises were under the direction of President Henry G. Weston, D.D., LL.D., of Crozer Seminary; and among those taking part were Revs. F. C. Woods, of the Upland Church; F. M. Taitt, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and Aaron Rittenhouse, of the First Methodist Church, of Media. The principal address was delivered by Mr. Samuel A. Crozer, who spoke of the institution as embodying a long cherished plan of his deceased brother, who had hoped to see the building erected during his life time. The edifice is 16x60 feet, and cost $47,000. It is three stories high, and is built of blue Pennsylvania marble, making an imposing appearance from its lofty elevation on Upland Ave., and adjoining the grounds of the seminary. It has accommodations for 160 patients, and is furnished with all modern conveniences. It is certainly a fitting and beautiful memorial to one whose family name is identified with all the educational, missionary and charitable enterprises of the denomination, and will be still further provided for by the ministries of Mrs. Crozer.

The monthly meeting of the was held at the South Broad St. Church on Apr. 18. The afternoon exercises included a series of papers setting forth the condition and progress of "The Great West," from the opening of the present century; and also a quarterly presentation of the work at Grande Ligne Mission. The evening session was mainly devoted to interesting papers and descriptive exercises, relating to "Johanna P. Moore and her Fireside School." The union was pleasantly welcomed by the pastor, Rev. B. L. Herr, and generously entertained by the ladies of the church.

Brief Mention.

Rev. Drs. A. J. Rowland, of the Publication Society, and Dr. Boyce Tupper, of the First Church, are among those who will represent our denominational brotherhood at the sessions of the Ecumenical Conference in New York.—At the New Tabernacle Church, Dr. Madison C. Peters recently delivered his lecture on "How to Make Things Good." Dr. Peters was formerly pastor of one of the Reformed churches of this city, and is well and favorably known among us.—The pulpit of the little church at Oreland has been made vacant by the resignation of Rev. P. B. Moyer.—Rev. N. C. Pether has resigned the pastorate of the church at Doylestown.—Rev. George W. Folwell, formerly pastor of the South Broad St. Church, and now laid aside by serious illness, has been sorely bereaved by the recent death of his wife. In this double affliction he is prayerfully remembered by a wide circle of sympathizing friends.

Hotel Cadillac, Detroit.

The fact that the Baptist Anniversaries are to be held in Detroit in May is turning the attention of many people to that city. Unquestionably there will be a large attendance and the matter of hotel accommodations is one which interests many. Among the numerous good hotels in Detroit the Hotel Cadillac offers exceptional attractions. A recent writer thus describes some of these attractions, and therein may be found the reasons which lead to the choice of this house as Baptist headquarters during the anniversaries:

The Cadillac has the finest location of any house in Detroit in addition to other advantages peculiarly its own. The house covers an extensive site on Michigan Ave. between Rowland and Washington Aves., convenient to the business center and all the principal places of interest. The rooms of the house are large, light, airy and elegantly furnished, the public parlors pleasant and attractive. The house is equipped with electric lights, private baths, steam heat, elevators, in short, no convenience is lacking to which the patrons of the leading metropolitan hotels in the United States are not accustomed. A special feature of the Cadillac, and one which has made the house famous throughout the entire country, is its magnificent dining-room and the elegant meals served therein. The dining-room is a light, large, airy room. In its cafe, as in the dining-room, the service is of the highest possible order, in fact, every department of the house is conducted with special reference to the highest superior accommodations to its patrons; at the same time the prices are reasonable when the accommodations are taken into consideration.

The Cadillac is largely patronized by that class of travelers who desire the best. Its proprietors are Wm. C. and James H. Swart, better known perhaps as the Swart Bros. They are hotel men of experience and ability.

Deaths.

CROWTHER.—James Marshall Crowther was born in Geoplin, Canada, Sept. 3, 1832, and died Apr. 14, 1900. In 1850 his parents moved to Etoson Center, N. Y. It was here he was converted at the early age of twelve and united with the Baptist church. In 1854 the family moved to Burlington, Wis., where they lived for five years. In 1857 they moved to Wausau, Wis., where for twenty-five years Mr. Crowther was a deacon in the Baptist church, and for six years was superintendent of the Sunday school. He was much appreciated as a devoted helper in all the of the church life. Oct. 20, 1859, he was married to Miss Margaret Johnson, with whom he lived his happy wedded life over forty years. Four children blessed their home. One little girl died in infancy. Mrs. Chapman, of Shell Rock, the wife of Rev. J. Chapman, and Fred and Earl Crowther are well known to many. In 1885 Mr. and Mrs. Crowther moved to Osgo, Iowa.

Mr. Crowther was a man of noble Christian character, a generous friend of education, a good citizen, a good friend, a good neighbor, and always took a deep interest in the welfare of his community. His funeral services were held by Rev. D. I. Con, his pastor, assisted by Rev. S. E. Wilcox and Prof. J. A. Lapham.

BAKER.—Henry J. Baker was born June 11, 1831, in Camillus, Onondaga County, N. Y., and died Apr. 11, 1890, in Fort Smith, Ark.

He was the son of James Willard Baker, a farmer of eminently worthy New England families of Massachusetts and Vermont, and the son Henry inherited noble and admirable traits of character. He spent his youth in Camillus, marrying there, in 1856, Miss Frances A. Stevens, a teacher, and a lady of marked intelligence and culture. Three children were born of this union, the eldest, a son, Samuel H. Baker, a lawyer of Denver, Colo., a daughter, Mary, who died in infancy, and Fannie A. Baker. Being disappointed himself in receiving a college education, it was his ambition to afford the same to his children. Through the generosity of his wife's family, this was accomplished by the gift of his ample fortune, this was accomplished by great sacrifice on his part uncomplainingly borne. He died on his daughter's estate, near the village of Morris of Arts. For several years recently Mr. Baker has been occupied in Chicago, winning there the respect and confidence of all who knew him. About two years ago he was stricken with partial paralysis. Last September he removed to Fort Smith with his wife and daughter, in the hope that his health might be improved by a change of climate. For a time improvement seemed certain, but the last of March he took a severe cold, which led to another paralytic stroke. Funeral services were conducted from the family residence by Rev. N. R. Pittman, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Fort Smith, of which he and his family were members. The services were simple and appropriate, in Scripture read, in remarks, in prayer, and in favorite hymns. The burial tributes were beautiful and the funeral services were held in the high school, where his daughter is a teacher, were represented by some exquisite tokens. Every mark of respect and grateful concern was shown by the warm-hearted Christian friends of the South to this stranger within their gates. His body was laid to rest in a pleasant spot in beautiful Oak Cemetery, and the lovely flowers were heaped over the mound, entirely covering the earth. Mr. Baker was a man of the strictest integrity and upright life, and was ever working man bravely to attain his ideals. He was one of the unnoted heroes of the world. He joined the Baptist church of Camillus when about twenty years of age, and was greatly respected and beloved for his noble character. We feel sure that he led a Christian, true to the faith of his early training.

Sarah M. Eddy.

"God's finger touched her and she slept." Thus passed the soul of one of God's children from the trials of earth to the happiness of heaven.

It is with a feeling of great loss that we chronicle the loss of our true Christian friend, Sarah M. Eddy, who passed into rest on Apr. 4, 1900.

Sarah M. Quackenbush Eddy was born Jan. 8, 1832, in Williamstown, Mass., and at the early age of fifteen was baptized into the Baptist church, and for over half a century in her daily life she proved her faith in Christ, and "the love that passeth all understanding." She moved to Buffalo, N. Y., in 1858, and was married Jan. 10, 1859, in Washington, D. C., to Rev. Levi Tucker, to Mr. Robert M. Eddy, of the enterprising young firm of Eddy & Bingham, iron founders. Mr. Eddy was baptized in the same church, a member of the Washington St. Church about this time, and these simple Christian people were a few members of the Baptist church in Buffalo, N. Y. The noble spirit of progress compelled Mr. Eddy to seek larger fields in which to develop the special talents he possessed. The more and more he became a Christian, the more crowned his efforts in the then young town of Chicago. Misfortune overtook his good husband and died rather when he lost his all in the great Chicago fire. Nothing daunted he began the erection of new buildings before the ashes were cold, and the business new known as the M. Eddy Foundry Company was organized.

Through all the prosperity and adversity the loving wife and mother, always constant in her faith in God, was the Gibraltar of this household. On Feb. 23, 1884, the angel of death separated this loving couple; it was then that the gratitude of her faith was shown, and then that those who knew her fully realized that her Christianity was a Christianity of each day. Being left to herself, she turned her attention to charity among the poor of the church of which she was a member, and was one of the first supporters of the Baptist Missionary Training School, which was organized in 1884, and was greatly interested, and to which she gave largely. Her faith was full of good works and her deeds which she did, and the love she felt for the poor and great was the loss to her sons and daughters, and great was the loss to all who knew her. Always loving and tender, thoughtful of others, for thirty-three years daily practicing the Christianity she professed, indeed she passed in such one true Christian life, which is irrefragable. God grant that the example of this good woman may cast its influence.

The funeral services were conducted at her late residence by the Rev. C. Ferren, D.D., and Rev. C. H. Snaabell, pastor of the Western Ave. and Grace Baptist churches. Mrs. Margaret C. Raymond, who rendered some of the hymns that were favorite with the deceased during her life. The interment was in Forest Lawn in Buffalo, N. Y., where she had been previously committed to their last resting-place by her children, Mrs. K. L. Wight, Mr. George D. Eddy and wife, Mr. Albert M. Eddy and Mrs. Chaucery B. Bradley.

"A Good Maxim is Never Out of Season."

That is apparently what the proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla believe, as their advertising is now full of proverbs, old sayings, wise saws and other quotations. It may be said, too, that a good maxim is never out of season, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good maxim because it does everything good who takes it. No preparation has ever been placed on the market that won so held public confidence in the past year, as Hood's Sarsaparilla has done, and is doing.

There must be a reason for this and it is found in the remarkable cures that are constantly being effected by its use. Only the other day a gentleman was saying how much this medicine had done for him, family, etc. completely cured his scrofula, salt rheum and all sorts of eruptions. It gives to the young rose cheeks and a clear, healthy complexion, and is better for them than all the cosmetics ever produced. Women who are weak, tired and worn out by constant household cares say that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives them a good appetite, sweet sleep, physical strength, and abounding health.

In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it actually cures by having a gentle touch. It is good for giving strength to the nervous and curbing neuralgia and all sorts of prostration. Rheumatism, catarrh, malaria, kidney troubles, etc., promptly yield to its power. It is good for those who are recovering from fever, but the serious illness Hood's Sarsaparilla is indeed the best medicine that money can buy.

There is no question but that the originators of this remedy have hit upon a happy secret in the peculiar combination, proportion and action of the ingredients of Sarsaparilla, for they have a medicine that cures a wide range of diseases. Their claim that this fact is due to the power of Hood's Sarsaparilla is not an empty boast, for it is a fact that the blood and at the same time tone up and strengthen the general system through enriched and vitalized blood serum. Rev. N. C. Pether has heartily recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla as a perfectly honest and reliable remedy and we advise all who go to purchase it to be sure that they get that Hood's and not some cheap and worthless substitute.

Hotel Cadillac, Detroit.

fact that the Baptist Anniversaries are held in Detroit in May is turning the n of many people to that city. Unques-there will be a large attendance and tter of hotel accommodations is one interests many. Among the numerous otels in Detroit the Hotel Cadillac of-ceptional attractions. A recent writer cribes some of these attractions, and may be found the reasons which led choice of this house as Baptist heads during the anniversaries:

Cadillac has the finest location of any n Detroit in addition to other advant-cularly its own. The house covers an ve site on Michigan Ave. between Row-d Washington Aves., convenient to the s center and all the principal places of . The rooms of the house are large, iry and elegantly furnished, the public pleasant and attractive. The house is d with electric lights, private baths, eat, elevators, in short, no convenience ng to which the patrons of the leading olitan hotels of the country are accus-

A special feature of the Cadillac, and ch has made the house famous through-entire country, is its magnificent dining-nd the elegant meals served therein.
lining-room is a light, large, hand-om. In its cafe, as in the dining-the service is of the highest pos-read, in remarks, in prayer, and in favorite hymns. The floral tributes were beautiful and numerous. Each class in the high school, where his daughter is a teacher, was represented by some exquisite token. Every mark of respect and graceful courtesy was extended by these warm-hearted Christian friends of the South to this stranger within their gates. His body was laid to rest in a pleasant spot in beautiful Oak Cemetery, and the lovely flowers were heaped over the mound, entirely covering the earth. Mr. Baker was a man of the strictest integrity and upright life. No man ever worked more bravely to attain his ideals. He was one of the unnoted heroes of the world. He joined the Baptist church of Camillus when about sixteen years of age, and was greatly respected and beloved for his noble character. We feel sure that he died a Christian, true to the faith of his early manhood.

Sarah M. Eddy.

"God's finger touched her and she slept." Thus passed the soul of one of God's children from the trials of earth to the happiness of heaven.

It is with a feeling of great loss that we chronicle the loss of our true Christian friend, Sarah M. Eddy, who passed into rest on Apr. 2, 1900.

Sarah M. Quackenbush Eddy was born Jan. 2, 1822, in Williamstown, Mass., and at the early age of fifteen was baptized into the Baptist church, and for over half a century in her daily life she proved her faith in Christ, and "the love that passeth all understanding."
She moved to Buffalo, N. Y., in 1838, and was married
Jan. 26, 1845, in Washington St. Baptist Church, by Rev. Levi Tucker, to Mr. Robert M. Eddy, of the enterprising young firm of Eddy & Bingham, iron founders. Mr. Eddy was baptized and became an active member of the Washington St. Church about this time, and these simple Christian people were a tive members of the Baptist church in Buffalo until 1865, when the spirit of progress compelled Mr. Eddy to seek larger fields in which to develop the especial talents he possessed. The move proved to be a wise one and success crowned his efforts in the then young town of Chicago.
Misfortune overtook this good husband and kind father when he lost his all in the great Chicago fire. Nothing daunted he began the erection of new buildings before the ashes were cold, and the business now known as the R. M. Eddy Foundry Company is the monument of the

19. Henry J. Baker was born 15 July 1831 in Twp. of Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y., died 11 April 1900, Fort Smith, Sebastian Co. Arkansas, buried Oak Cemetery there, son of James Millard Baker of Camillus N.Y. (obit). Census recs list Henry b. ca 1834, which seems more accurate than the obituary birth yr. Henry's mother was Mary/Polly Larkin, second wife of James M. Baker. Henry's grandfather was Matthew<sup>1</sup> Baker of Stamford VT and Camillus N.Y.

*Oak Cem

The Will of James M. Baker written 1 Dec. 1857, was probated 30 April 1866 Onondaga Co. N.Y. Son Jerome C. Baker, co-executor, made a petition to prove the will. Surrogate Judge DeWitt C. Greenfield. (Bk N, pp 290-293).

Mary (Larkin) Baker, second wife of James, was incapable of managing anything, causing James<sup>2</sup> to put a clause in his will disinheriting Henry and Charles A. Baker, IF his wife Mary L. should, by evil counsel or bad advice, claim one third of his property. This is proof that Henry and Charles were sons by the second wife Mary Larkin. Jerome C., son by wife one, and Charles A., son by wife two, were co-executors of his will. The third co-executor was son-in-law, Isaac G. Parker, husb. of Mary Carolyn Baker, d/o James.

Amongst the bequests was:

to son Henry J. Baker, $4,000, the farm that was purchased from Henry Hess and running through on the north line to the east line of lot #77, a total of 100 acres and this land to be made even in the number of acres of land.

Henry James Baker married 1856 at Camillus N.Y. to Frances Amelia Stevens, born ca 1828/1830 Monroe Co. N.Y., died 1907, buried in Oak Cemetery Fort Smith, Sebastian Co. Ark. Frances was the daughter of Zolved aka Beloved Stevens, born 1792, maybe in MA, died 11 May 1831 at 39 yrs, in Parma, Monroe Co. N.Y., and Ann/Anna (-?-), (Winship) Stevens, born 1798 in VT, died 4 May 1865, @ 67 yrs, in Camillus N.Y., as Ann/Anna Thorp. They were married ca 1822/24. Zolved Stevens and wife Ann were buried in Hoosick, aka W. Greece cemetery, at Parma, Monroe Co. N.Y. The cemetery lists her as Anna Thorp, mother of Dr. S.P. Winship and G.W. Winship, M.S. Avery and F.S. Baker. I do not know if the names of her children were engraved on her gravestone. G.W. was George b. ca 1818; M.S. was Marietta Stevens, b. 1825, wf of Charles Avery; F.S. was Frances Stevens, b. ca 1828, wf of Henry J. Baker. Zolved was buried with his previous wife Sophia, born ca 1796, died 18 Oct. 1821 @ 25 yrs, whom he married before 1819.

Parma*

Ann (?_) married first ca 1816/1818 to Mr. Winship, maybe Samuel, who was born ca 1795, died 26 Sept. 1819, buried in the same Hoosick cemetery, or Dr. S.P. Stevens b. ca 1790, died 8 Aug. 1819, at 29 years. The dates for S.P. may be incorrect because the same compiler in another version of the Hoosick aka W. Greece Cemetery omits S.P., naming a Winship whose grstone is illegible and broken in several pieces. It would appear that the death of Samuel is more accurate. The compiler probably was confused regarding the son S.P. Winship, of Ann Thorp, just as it confused the writer of this manuscript. (George W. Winship, son of Ann, was born ca 1818, died 1885 in Parma, N.Y.).

Ann married second, ca 1822/24 to Zolved aka Beloved Stevens, maybe b. MA.

Ann married third ca 1853 to Samuel Thorp of Camillus, Onondaga Co. N.Y., b. Ca d. 1862, buried ____ with his first wife ____ Chapman. William Thorp who resided with his family next to Samuel was likely his son.

One possible clue to Ann's maiden name may be the marriage of Sept. 1829 in Parma N.Y, by Zolved Stevens Esq., of Mr. Lewis Crosier of Halifax VT to Miss Malinda Allen of the same place. Ann, wife of Zolved Stevens was also born in Vermont. Zolved was a Magistrate and probably had the authority to marry people. That was the only marriage that he performed that I found.

THE STANDARD, A weekly Baptist newspaper, V.47, No.36, published in Chicago, Illinois for week ending May 5, 1900.

Baker, Henry J. Baker was born June 15 1831, in Camillus, Onondaga Co. NY, and died 11 April 1900 in Fort Smith Ark. He was the son of James Millard Baker, a farmer of wealth and prominence. "Squire" Baker was born of eminently worthy New England families of Massachusetts and Vermont, and the son Henry inherited noble and admirable traits of character. He spent his youth in Camillus, marrying there in 1856, Miss Frances A. Stevens, a teacher, and a lady of marked intelligence and culture. Three children were born of this union, the eldest, a son Samuel H. Baker, a lawyer of Denver Colo., a daughter Mary, who died in infancy, and Fannie A. Baker. Being disappointed himself in receiving a college education, it was his ambition to afford this advantage to his children. Though suddenly bereft of his ample fortune, this end was accomplished by great sacrifice on his part, uncomplainingly borne, and both son and daughter gained the degree of Master of Arts. For several years recently Mr. Baker has been occupied in Chicago, winning there the respect and confidence of all who knew him. About two years ago, he was stricken with partial paralysis. Last September he removed to Fort Smith with his wife and daughter, in the hope that his health might be benefited by the change in climate. For a time improvement seemed certain, but the last of March, he took a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia. He appeared to be recovering from the attack, which was considered slight, but passed away April 11, suddenly and quietly, doubtless from another paralytic stroke. Funeral services were conducted from the family residence by Rev. N. R. Pittman, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Fort Smith, of which the family were members. ....etc.

1860 map of Town of Camillus shows a crossroad just south of James M. Baker on Bennett's Corners road which look eastward from the township of Wellington close to the village of Camillus. H. J. Baker, was listed on Lot 89 on this crossroad, just across the road from a cemetery; S. Thorp, T. Sherwood, and W. Thorp were also across the road. A. Tinkham and A. Richmond resided on the same side of the road as Henry Baker. (I am not sure if all listed on this map were owners).

This map shows Henry's father James M. Baker listed at Bennett's Corners Rd. Henry's brothers Charles A. and Jerome C. Baker both straddled his father's property. Charles was listed with two houses, one possibly being the land purchased from his brother Henry in 1859.

1880 census, Samuel Baker was listed in Owatonna, Steele Co. MN, (indexed as Saul or Sam'l), 23 yrs, b. NY, Principal in a Baptist school, (living with his first cousin once removed of Millard/Lee line), Jane (Lee) Cudworth. (This was Samuel, s/o Henry J. Baker).

See Henry Baker's cousin Maria House, below, who was a neighbor in 1880. I make assumption that Henry attended the Baptist church where his cousin Merrit House was a preacher. Try to get church record for time that Baker family may have been members.

Places of birth of Henry's parents on 1880 census are incorrect. See 1855, Onon. Co. N.Y. census, Henry's father James Baker stated he was born VT; Henry's mother Mary/Polly (Larkin) Baker stated she was born Saratoga Co. N.Y.

1880 census Claremont MN, p. 400 B, Merrit House 69 yrs b. VT, both parents born VT and wf Maria House 66 yrs b. VT both par. b. VT and their children and grch. (This was Maria Lee, d/o Thankful (Millard) Lee. Maria was sister of Jane Lee Cudworth and also first cousin once removed to Henry Baker. Thankful Millard was a sister to Henry Baker's grandmother Lydia (Millard) Baker).

Merrit House was listed as a farmer in 1880, but he was also a Baptist preacher who died 15 Jan. 1883 in Claremont. From 1861 to 1870, Merrit House was in Eyota, Olmstead Co. MN, preaching. The History of Claremont says that Merrit House organized the Baptist church there ca 1875. Merritt House was clerk of school board in 1876/77.

Merritt House, wf Maria and son Merritt Jr. were all buried together in Oak Grove Cem., as well as David and Lucy House, old enough to be his parents. Also with them was Jennie A. In an old Ledger of the Town Board in Claremont Township, Dodge Co. MN:

June 1880 paid to H.J. Baker for road work, $38.00;

July 17, 1880, pd to H.J. Baker for grading work, $152.00;

July 17, 1880 paid to Albert Baker for road work, $46.50;

June 28, 1881, pd to H.J. Baker from Road fund, $38.00;

July 8, 1881, pd to H.J. Baker from roof fund, $152.00;

July 17, 1881, pd to Albert Baker from road fund, $46.50.

H.J. Baker was elected R.R. Commissioner 1883 with 88 votes. This was copied Jan. 20, 1993 by Idella M. Conwell, Dodge Co. Secretary of MN Historical Soc'y.

It is unknown if H.J. Baker in these transactions was the Henry J. Baker that we seek. I believe Claremont had a small population at that time which makes it likely that H. J. was Henry, s/o James M. Baker.

One Albert Baker was an assistant to Henry J. Baker during the construction work in MN in 1880, having been paid less. Was This Albert a cousin of Henry J. Baker? (See Albert, b. ca 1809, son of Rev. Matthew Baker Jr. I cannot find Albert anywhere in U.S. census after 1860, last known to have been in Illinois with a new wife Catherine, having divorced his former wife). If he was the same Albert, he would have been 71 yrs old in 1880.

(One Albert Baker was in Ellingham, Dodge Co. MN in 1880 census 29 yrs, b. WI ca 1851, both par. b. N.Y., with wf Imelia and ch. Clara and Lara).

In 1992, Claremont had a population of 591. It is 22 miles west of Rochester, Olmstead Co. MN.

A two page history of the Larkin family written by Anson Joseph Larkin (1841-1904), 2nd cousin to Henry J. Baker), lists Henry Baker, s/o Polley Larkin who married James Baker, as having moved to Minnecota, (sic). Colorado was first written, then crossed out and Minnecota written. The history lists Polley as d/o Amos Larkin. Anson's family history names Florence Baker, s/o Henry's brother Charles A. Baker. Florence Baker was born Dec. 1875, thus showing that the Larkin history was written after 1875.

Note that Henry's son, Samuel Baker, moved to Colorado between 1882/1885.

Henry and Fannie Baker started housekeeping in his father's house on Bennett's Corners Rd, Town of Camillus, according to a 1924 letter written by cousin Lorenda (Parker) Knox, d/o Carolyn (Baker) Parker, who was Henry's half Aunt. Lorenda also wrote to Mrs. Peterson, who resided in the old Baker house in Camillus, that her mother Mary Carolyn (Baker) Parker outlived all her siblings, which indicates that Henry J. Baker died before 1911, the yr of Mary's death.

Gen. 3.

CHARLES A. BAKER AND MARY HINSDALE

20. Charles A.<sup>3</sup> (James<sup>2</sup>, Matthew<sup>1</sup>) was born December 25, 1836 on Bennett's Corner's Road in the town of Camillus, NY., (Geo. Bean Baker bible; Hinsdale Geny). Charles d. April 23, 1909, in Poughkeepsie, NY, 72 yrs, 4 mo, (death certif). This was 4 yrs after death of his wf. He and his wife were buried in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Webster Ave. and E. 233rd St., Bronx, N.Y.

Charles married Mary Hinsdale on August 25, 1859, by Rev. L. E. Barnard at Amboy, Town of Camillus. They started housekeeping in his father's house 5908 Bennett's Corner's Rd, Camillus, NY, (Lorenda Knox, 1924 letter). This road is still rural, with beautiful rolling hills.

Mary was born March 16, 1837, on the 600 acre Hinsdale homestead, four miles from the Baker home in Camillus. She died January 16, 1905 at 122 McLean Ave., Yonkers, NY where her son Edward lived, (death certif). She had suffered from chronic endocarditis. The cause of death was acute indigestion, broken compensation of the heart and embolism of the right leg. She was the daughter of Ira Hinsdale and Ann Peck. (Her widowed mother m2 Justus Townsend). Her father's family had settled early in Pompey, Onondaga Co.

Mary was named in her grandfather David Hinsdale's will 14 June 1852 as daughter of his deceased son Ira. Mary's father Ira's will of March 3, 1849 did not name his children. Ira's wife Ann and his friend James Munro of Camillus were named executors. He owned Lot 55 in Tn of Camillus. After his wife's dower bequest, he bequeathed to his ch. in equal shares to be given to them at age 21. James Munro to be appointed Guardian of his ch. until thay severally reach the age of 21 yrs.

Ira was the s/o David Hinsdale Jr. and Mary McCracken, (David<sup>4</sup>, Jonathan, Barnabas, Robert<sup>1</sup> Hinsdale). Ira died at the age of 38. Deacon Robert<sup>1</sup>, here 1638, was probably from England. He was of Dedham, Hadley and Deerfield, Ma. He and three of his sons were killed by Indians in the Deerfield Massacre of Bloody Brook in 1675, during King Philip's War. Their names are on a monument in Deerfield which was erected in memory of the 60-100 people killed there on that infamous day.

Ann Peck (Elihu, Enos., Peter, etc came from the family of William Peck of New Haven, who sailed from London to New Haven Colony in the ship "Hector" in 1637.

CHARLES A. BAKER AND MARY HINSDALE

10. Charles A. (James, Matthew) was born December 25, 1836 on Bennett's Corner's Road in the town of Camillus, NY. (Geo. Bean Baker Bible; Hinsdale Geny). Charles A. April 23, 1909, in Poughkeepsie, NY, 72 yrs. 4 mo. (death cert.). This was 4 yrs after death of his wife. He and his wife were buried in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Webster Ave. and E. 23rd St., Brook. N.Y.

Charles married Mary Hinsdale on August 25, 1859, by Rev. L. E. Harnard at Andover, Town of Camillus. They started housekeeping in his father's house 5208 Bennett's Corner's Rd, Camillus, NY. (Lorenda Knox, 1934 letter). This road is still there, with beautiful rolling hills.

Mary was born March 15, 1837, on the 600 acre Hinsdale homestead, four miles from the Baker home in Camillus. She died January 15, 1908 at 122 Mohawk Ave., Tonawanda, NY where her son Edward lived. (death cert.). She had suffered from chronic endocarditis. The cause of death was acute indigestion, broken compensation of the heart and embolism of the right leg. She was the daughter of Mr. Hinsdale and Ann Beck. (Her widowed mother Mr. James Beck of Tonawanda Co. family had settled early in Tonawanda, Ontario Co.)

Mary was named in her grandfather David Hinsdale's will in June 1852 as daughter of his deceased son Mrs. Mary's father. Mrs. will of March 3, 1849 did not name his children. Mrs. wife Ann and his friend James Munro of Camillus were named executors. He owned lot 25 in Tn of Camillus. After his wife's death he bequeathed to his son in equal shares to be given to them at age 21. James Munro to be appointed Guardian of his son until they severally reach the age of 21 yrs.

It was the also David Hinsdale Jr. and Mary McCracken, (David, Jonathan, Barnabas, Robert Hinsdale). He died at the age of 38. Deacon Robert, here 1878, was probably from England. He was of Dehmet, Hadley and Dehmet, MA. He and three of his sons were killed by Indians in the Deerfield Massacre at Bloody Brook in 1675, during King Philip's War. Their names are on a monument in Deerfield which was erected in memory of the 60-100 people killed there on that infamous day.

Ann Beck (Eliza, Enos, Peter, etc came from the family of William Beck of New Haven, who sailed from London to New Haven Colony in the ship "Hector" in 1637.

Mary Mc Craken, was d/o William and Hannah Younglove Mc Craken. (William's 2nd wf was Mary Thompson, widow of Christopher) McCracken's were Ulster Scots, to Pelham and Worcester Ma, then Washington and Onondaga Co. N.Y.

Ruana Farnham was the daughter of Eber Farnham, whom I believe is the Eber Farnham that died in Darien, N.Y. That Eber came from the family of John Farnham, the Anabaptist who arrived in Boston from England in 1635.

Charles A. was described by his son James M.<sup>4</sup> as tall, with dark hair. he was a trifle visionary and bookish. He believed that life was not easy. He was a farmer. He took great pride in his garden, having no tolerance for chickens that strayed into the garden.

There is a picture of Mary, his wife, in the book that their son James wrote, Contending The Grade In India. She appears as a trim lady, short in stature. Uncle Jim described her as his beloved mother, gentle, gracious and quick of wit. She had flashing eyes and auburn hair. She had an illness for which she entered a sanitarium in Castile, N.Y. but recovered.

In 1860 census, (same reel as James M.) Charles was a farmer residing in house 1811, family 1815. He had property valued at $6500 and personal property valued at $3500. He was then living in Camillus. In 1860, he and his wife were 23 years of age, with a son Edward, 3 months. He had 2 servants, a farm laborer, and a female servant, both b. Ireland. Charles was wealthier than his elder half brother Jerome on this census. Did he receive an inheritance, possibly through his mother, that Jerome did not receive?

Their neighbors were Mary L. Cook, Cyrus Sweet and Alexander Raymond. Raymond, born in Vt about 1823, was probably a cousin via Abigail Raymond that married Joseph Baker<sup>2</sup>. Raymond had a wife, Nancy or Mary. Hannah Sharp, 73 yrs old was living with them.

Charles A. started his married life at the home of his father, but had a home of his own by 1866 when James M. was born in the section known as "The Bitters" in the Town of Camillus. This was the only brick home on the right side of Bennett's Corners Road, and was built circa 1805.

In the will of his father James<sup>2</sup>, written in 1857, Charles A. was to receive 100 acres of land, and four thousand dollars. This was to be the north part of the home farm, beginning at the road at his garden run, of what was called the Rockwell line, through his east line on lot 79 and part of the south part of the farm called the Bennett farm bought of John and Mary Mc Craken, was Mrs William and Hannah Younglove Craken. (William's 2nd w was Mary Thompson, widow Christopher McCracken's were Oliver Stone, to believe Worcester Mr. then Washington and Chandler Co. N.Y.

Kuana Larnham was the daughter of Ezra Larnham, whom believe is the Ezer Larnham that died in Berlin, N.Y. That Ezer came from the family of John Larnham, an Anabaptist who arrived in Boston from England in 1833.

Charles A. was described by his son James W. as tall, with dark hair. He was a little visionary and bookish. He believed that life was not easy. He was a farmer. He took great pride in his garden, having no tolerance for chickens that strayed into the garden.

There is a picture of Mary, his wife, in the book that their son James wrote. Concerning the grave in India, she appears as a little lady, short in stature. Uncle Jim described her as his beloved mother, gentle, gracious and quick of wit. She had flashing eyes and Auburn hair. She had an illness for which she entered a sanatorium in Castile, N.Y., but recovered.

In 1860 census, (same reel as James M.) Charles was a farmer residing in house 1811, family 1815. He had property valued at $6500 and personal property valued at $3500. He was then living in Canastota. In 1860, he and his wife were 23 years of age, with a son Edward, 3 months. He had 2 servants, a female laborer, and a female servant. John D. Ireland, Charles was wealthier than his older half brother James on this census. Did he receive an inheritance, possibly through his mother, that James did not receive?

Their neighbors were Mary L. Cook, Cyrus Sweet and Alexander Raymond. Raymond, born in VT about 1813, was probably a cousin via Abigail Raymond that married Joseph Baker. Raymond had a wife, Nancy of Mary, Hannah Sharp, 33 yrs old was living with them.

This was to be the north part of the home farm, beginning at the road at his garden run, of what was called the Rockwell line, through his east line on lot 12 and part of the south part of the farm called the Bennett farm bought of John and William Larkin. Also, he was to have the privilege of one half the fruit on his brother Henry 's land. His father died in 1866, seven and a half years after making this will.

J.M. Baker, I.G. Parker and Hinsdale transactions were certainly our Charles. A. also Whitmarsh prob. Others not sure. (Note Whitmarsh connection from Taunton, Ma.).

In 1869, Charles Baker purchased a farm in Medina, Orleans Co. N.Y. on the Shelby Road, adjoining Oak Orchard Creek. This was the old Plank Rd leading from Medina to Shelby, later graveled and called the Gravel Rd, located close to Oak Orchard Creek. Orleans Co. tax records of 1869 located in Albion, list the property as Shelby Township, Section 8, Township 14, Range 4, 62 acres. Edwin McKnight purchased the property in 1904 and the father of the present owner, Garra Smith, purchased between 1940-44. Since old Mr. Smith told me about 1960 that his family lived on the adjoining farm and purchased the house from Charles Baker, thus adding to their acreage, I wonder if McKnight was of the Smith family.

Tobacco was raised on this farm according Mr. Smith who resided there after Baker family sold it. Unknown if this was when Baker owned it. Tobacco is an unusual crop in present day New York State. (describe corduroy rd.)

This seems to be about the time that his father's estate was settled. See deeds above.

Charles. A. Baker joined Medina Baptist Church Apr 9, 1870 according to his son Rev. James. Charles A. contributed $3000 toward the building of the Medina Baptist Church.

1875 census, town of Shelby, Orleans Co. NY, p. 86, #762, frame house, value $7000, visit 809.

Charles A. Baker, 38 yrs, farmer, owner of land; wife Mary H., 38 yrs; son Edward H. 15 yrs; son Charles H., 11 yrs; son James M., 8 yrs; entire family b. Onondaga Co. NY. Also John Congdon, 27 yrs, b. Ireland, farm hand.

Neighbors: Mary M. Armstrong, James Sumner family, Allen C. Brownell family. John Smith 37 yrs, b. Saratoga Co. lived in double house with Brownell. He may have been the family that purchased the Baker home later. A Julia Chamberlin 65, b. CT and Mary 53 yrs b. Schoharie Co. and children, were neighbors. Think we have pictures of a Chamberlain woman from home of Chas. Baker.

The agriculture listing on this census shows Charles A. Baker's farm to produce primarily fruit, vegetables, grain and pork. He had 56 acres of improved land and 62 acres in wood and timber. Cash value of farm was $9000, buildings other than dwelling $1800, stock $700, tools and implements $300. Gross sales from farm $1050, he plowed 20 acres, had 7 acres in pasture, 13 acres in meadow, 35 tons of hay. He sowed 6 acres of winter wheat from which he harvested 115 bushels in 1874. He sowed 1-1/2 acres of ?oats and harvested 60 bushels in 1874. He sowed 6 acres of spring barley and harvested 120 bushels in 1874. He harvested 500 bushels of potatoes in 1874. He had 1-1/2 acres in beans from which he harvested 24 bushels in 1874. He had 300 apple trees with 125 bushels harvested in 1874 and made 3 barrels of cider. He raised 700 pounds of grapes in 1874. He had one heifer calf and 3 cows. He killed one cattle in 1874. He made 300 pounds of butter in 1874 and 1900 pounds of pork. He had 5 poultry.

There was a Henry J. Baker family in Town of Shelby 1875. He was 53 yrs for birth ca 1823, b. Canada, had wf Mary J. 42 yrs, b, MA and children. Their ch. were b. Monroe and Albany Co. N.Y. This was NOT brother of our Charles.

Charles A. Baker contracted Typhoid Dysentery in the 1880's, almost losing his life to this disease, then recovered.

Charles A. Baker owned another farm in Syracuse, one mile from Marcellus Falls, (Contending The Grade in India by James M. Baker).

resided at 39 Herman Street. I have not identified how this Albert Baker fits into the family.

In the 1880's, women wore hourglass corsets, the first Sear's Roebuck catalog was printed. The first long distance telephone call was made. There were electric trolleys. Baseball rules were changed to present day rules. One and two room schoolrooms were the norm. Physicians were not well educated and most owned their own pharmacies. In 1886, there was a clamor for a shorter work week.

The Medina farm was sold in 1903, Charles A. Baker was then about 67 yrs old and ready to retire. This was shortly after his son Charles Henry<sup>4</sup> Baker died in Brooklyn.

1903, Charles and Mary Baker retired and moved to Yonkers, N.Y. where Mary died in 1905. Their only daughter Florence was teaching in a public school there. Their son Edward, a widower, and grandson George, also moved to Yonkers before or with Charles.

1909, Charles A. Baker, age 71/72, was confined in a State mental hospital in Poughkeepsie for one month prior to his death as a result of a stroke. In those days many patients were confined because nursing homes did not exist as we know them today. At this time his wife and son Charles were deceased, son James was in India and widower son Edward with a child of his own to raise, was soon to be married. Daughter Florence, then single, was teaching school in Yonkers or had already moved to NYC.

In 1959, when I moved to Lewiston, N.Y., I decided to attempt to find the Medina farm. My Great Uncle Jim wrote in his book that it was on the Shelby Road. Imagine my pleasure when I unerringly walked up and rang the bell of a stranger and found that it was the former farm of my great grand-parents. For a lady who grew up in Brooklyn this seemed like a guided miracle. Mr. Smith, the owner, was an elderly man who graciously tolerated my visit. He explained that he had been born on the adjoining farm, that his father had purchased the Baker farm combining it with his own. He informed me that Indian relics had been found on the farm. A few years later, my sister took my father there for a nostalgic visit to this house where he had visited his grandparents during his childhood. of Charles A. and Mary Baker Smith, 1830-1843.

As of 1960, the Medina house had not been remodeled except for detaching the barn from the house, following a fire in the barn. I took pictures of the house in 1979. It is not pretentious, but is a nice looking two story building, well located on the property. The original main entrance is on the south side of the house. A portico structured over pillars, was designed to give protection from the elements to anyone descending from a horse and carriage. To me, that is the charming part of the house.

As of 1980, the Medina house was still in the possession of the Smith family. The surrounding area is still rural farmland. Oak Orchard Creek runs East of and across the street from the house.

ORRIS OR ORVIS R. BAKER AND LUCY A., MARY E. AND MARGARET

21. Orris R. Baker, (or Orvis), was s/o Joseph (Matthew1) Baker and Abigail Raymond #4. His middle name could have been Raymond. Orris was born Oct. 1819/20 in Madison Co. N.Y., probably at Smithfield. Orris was alive 1900, with wife Margaret, residing in Camden Center, Hillsdale Co. IL. He was listed as Arris Baker on Hillsdale Co. Death Index online, who died 1902, Bk B, p. 190, Index p.23.

Orris was listed as deceased in 1908, when George A. Baker filed for probate of the estate of Lyman S. Baker in Fleming NY, brother of Orvis.

Orris Baker married first, about 1841/2 in N.Y.S. to Lucy A. (-?-), who was born ca 1822. She probably died ca. 1850/55, perhaps in childbirth with son William who was born 1850 after the census or in 1851.

By 1859 Mary E. (-?-) born June 1835 or ca. 1832 or 1837 in NYS, was living with Orris. By 1870, she was listed as Baker in census, but he did not marry her, according to Orris' son Lyman in 1907, documenting this for his Uncle Lyman's estate, who had died in Fleming, Cayuga Co. N.Y., childless.

(One Mary E. Baker 1833-1913 was buried in Somerset Center Cemetery, Hillsdale Co. MI, where Joseph was buried).

(actually both par b NY)

Joseph, s/o Orris Baker, was apparently supporting his mother in 1900.

Orris Baker probably married ca 1874/5, to Margaret, who was alive on 1900 census with him. Margaret was born May 1829 N.Y., both parents born N.Y. Margaret bore no children. One Margaret Baker died 1902 Hillsdale Co. MI, Bk B:188, Index p. 23.

Also in hh, Franklin Day, 20 yrs b. MI, works on farm and Arthur Halsted 21 yrs b. Ohio, works in saw mill, Andrew O__ 21 b. MI, works in mill.

Note that Orris Baker's sons Joseph, James and Henry, were listed in brother Lyman S. Baker's 1908/9 Cayuga Co. N.Y. newspaper legal estate notice as illegitimate. Thus, Dill who prob. died young was probably also illegitimate. This news notice was for the purpose of identifying all of Lyman's possible heirs.

In 1876 Orris was in Camden MI acc. to obit. of son Charles.

It would appear that Orris resided in N.Y.S. 1837 to 1842; in Michigan from 1845 to 1854 based on place of birth of the children, as listed on census. Then he moved to DeWitt N. Y. about 1855 for a short time, poss. til 1858, then back to MI by 1859. Where were Orris Baker's children in 1855?

Hillsdale Co. borders Coldwater, Branch Co. MI, which is about 36 miles away, where his brother Zelick William Baker resided 1849-1851/2. Also his first cousin Sophia (Cole) Lee, d/o Tryphenia (Baker) Cole resided in Delta Tnp., Eaton Co. MI in 1870, only about 40 miles away from Pittsford.

ANNA MARIAH BAKER AND EPHRAIM LORD

22. Anna Mariah Baker was born ca 1819/20, N.Y., perhaps in Madison Co. (1850, 1880 census). She was prob. 10-16 yrs in 1830 census). Mariah died 1894, (Ref: Tena Millard Jordan, deceased). She died before 1900, was of Volney, Oswego Co. N.Y. (n 1900 census, husband Ephraim Lord was listed as a widower. Anna Mariah was d/o Joseph Baker, (Mathewl) and Abigail Raymond.

Note that Anna Mariah was not named as an heir of her bro. Lyman S. Baker in 1908, nor was any child of hers listed as heir in her place. All the other living siblings were named and the children of her deceased siblings were named as heirs. Thus, she had no living child in 1908.

Anna may have married first to Mr. Wheeler before 1846.

Anna Mariah Baker married. perhaps ca 1839, or bef. 1850 to Ephraim Lord, b. August 1818 N.Y., alive 1900. Lord had 3 wives.

Anna had no issue who lived to adulthood by Ephraim Lord.

1850 census, New Haven, Oswego Co. N.Y., p.49, (listed near Joseph Baker).
Ephraim Lord, 30 yrs, b. N.Y., no occupation, no property, Anna Mariah, 30 yrs, b. N.Y., Sarah WHEELER, 4 yrs, b. N.Y. No Lord ch. listed.

Was Sarah Wheeler a dau. of Anna by a previous husband?
Perhaps Anna was not Ephraim's first marriage.

Ephraim Lord was of Vermillion, Oswego Co. N.Y. in 1859, when he witnessed the will of his brother-in-law Zelick William Baker.

ZELICK WILLIAM A. BAKER AND AURILLA AMANDA MILLARD

22. Zelick William Baker was the son of Joseph (Matthew<sup>1</sup>) Baker and Abigail Raymond #4. Abigail was d/o Elisha and Abigail Inman Raymond of Stamford, VT, (Raymond Gen'y). Zelick was born 1824, Madison Co. N.Y., died 30 March 1859, 35 yrs, buried Mexico Village Cem. Oswego Co. NY, (Tree Talks Vol. 28, #2, June 1988, p. 123). (d. 29 March 1859 Butterfly, N.Y acc. to Zwicky rec).

Butterfly was listed in 1850 Fanning's Gazetteer as having a Post Office, located in New Haven Township, Oswego Co. NY. New Haven is 3 or 4 miles from Mexico.

Zelick William Baker married his 2nd cousin Aurilla Amanda Millard, 4 July 1845. Aurilla was born March 1828 at Stamford, Bennington Co. VT. She died 22 Sept. 1908, 80 yrs, Butterfly or Syracuse, N.Y. She was buried Sept. 24, 1908 in Mexico Village Cem., Oswego Co. N.Y. with her husband. Aurilla and Zelick were both blood cousins to Charles A. Baker who married Mary Hinsdale, through Lydia Millard who married Matthew Baker Sr. Thus, their descendants are double cousins to the descendants of James Millard Baker<sup>2</sup> (Matthew<sup>1</sup>).

Aurilla lived with her son James Baker in 1880. Aurilla b. ?March 1828, 72 yrs old, wd, b. VT and both par. b. VT, resided with her son James E. Baker in 1900 in New Haven Oswego Co. N.Y.

Aurilla was the daughter of Squire Millard 3rd (1808-1886) and Sarah Clark Reed whom he married in 1827. Squire 3rd was the 7th Millard Generation from (Squire II, Squire I, Joseph<sup>4</sup>, Nathaniel<sup>3</sup>, Robert<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup> of Rehoboth MA). Squire 3rd resided Hannibal Center and Granby, Oswego Co. NY near Lysander for a time; Grant Co. Wisc.; near Fremont, ILL.; Hainesville; He was buried Ivanhoe, Lake Co. ILL. Hannibal and Granby are near Mexico N.Y.

Squire Millard 2nd owned 360 acres of land in Stamford, Benn. Co. VT that once belonged to the Baker family. Squire 2nd died at the home of James M. Baker on the Bennett's Corners Rd in Camillus where he was visiting, buried in Millard Cem. Stamford, Bennington Co. VT where he resided.

Zelick William Baker resided Coldwater, Branch Co. Michigan in 1846; Syracuse, N.Y. 1856; Butterfly, Town of New Haven, N.Y. 1859 according to Daisy Millard Zwicky records. The 1850 and 1855 census indicates that he resided Oswego Co. N.Y. May 1846; Mich. 1849-1852; De Witt, Onon. Co. 1853-1855.

LYMAN S. BAKER AND MARIA ANNA MOREY

24. Lyman S. Baker was son of Joseph Baker (Matthew 1) and Abigail Raymond. Lyman was born January 1834, N.Y., prob. in Oswego Co. N.Y. Lyman died Fri. 27 Dec. 1907, in his 74th year, at Auburn, Cayuga Co. N.Y. Lyman was buried Fleming Hill Cem., Cayuga Co. N.Y., 1834-1907 with wife Anna. Lyman made his will 20 November 1907, Will probated February 29 1908 to March 1910 at Auburn, N.Y.. (argus)

Lyman S. Baker was married 5 January 1855 Hudson, Lenawee Co. MI to Anna M. Morey. How did this couple meet?

1907, Dec. 31, Auburn Semi Weekly Journal, p.5.

Lyman S. Baker died at the residence of his daughter Mrs. James Merritt, of 1 McMaster Place, Fri. in his 74th yr. Mr. Baker was an old and respected resident of Fleming Hill, having resided there since Oct. 1 1860. By occupation he was a wagon maker and for a number of years he has combined this business with that of miller. Mrs. Baker died some four years ago. For a month past he has resided with his daughter in McMaster Place, where prayers will be said Monday. Further funeral services will be held at the Baptist Church at Fleming Hill. Survived by one sister Mrs. Emma Brownell of Vermilion, nephew James Baker of Orwell N.Y., 3 nieces Miss Ida B. Brownell of Vermilion, Mrs. Fayette Temple of Mexico N.Y. and Mrs. ?Dolt Candee of Wisconsin.

(Orwell is in Oswego Co. I do not find the Candee family in census records. How related? She was not listed as an heir in any of the probate news articles).

Auburn N.Y. Argus, 1903.

After patiently bearing a painful illness of three months, Mrs. Lyman S. Baker, of Fleming N.Y., died Sat. Aug. 15 or 16. Anna Morey Baker was born in Moravia N.Y., January 5 1837. On January 5, 1855, in Hudson Michigan, she was married to Lyman S. Baker. About 3 yrs later they removed to Fleming N.Y., where they have since made their home. She leaves, beside her husband, a DAUGHTER Mrs. James Merritt, also of Fleming.

Moravia is in Cayuga Co. Both of Anna's parents were b. N.Y.S. acc. to Anna on census.

Lyman's brother Orris resided 1850 and 1860 in nearby Pittsford Hillsdale Co. MI; Lyman's brother Zelick resided 1850 in Coldwater, in the adjoining Branch County.

In 1900 census Anna claimed that she BORE NO CHILDREN.

Lyman's estate names Mrs. Sarah Merritt as a FRIEND. James (b. ca 1869/70) and wife Sarah Merritt b. ca 1876/9, of Aurelius, Cayuga Co. N.Y., had children Lyman b. ca 1907 and Anna b. ca 1911. Lyman perh. born after Lyman Baker died? Lyman left the bulk of his estate to his widowed sister Emma Jane Brownell, with Emma's sons contingency beneficiaries in the event that she died.

What is the true story as to whether Sarah Merritt was a biological dau. to either Lyman Baker or Anna Morey Baker?

1850 July 16 census Locke, Cayuga Co. N.Y. Ebenezer Morey, 41, occup. Cooper, Caroline M., 31, Ann M., 13 yrs, born ca 1837, all born N.Y. This may have been Lyman's future wife.

Ebenezer was in Locke in 1840 with other Morey's, but not found in 1860 census.

1908, 29 Feb., Auburn N.Y. Auburn Citizen. (calendar does show 1908 as a Leap Yr) A petition was filed this day by George A. Baker, for proving the will of the late Lyman S. Baker of Fleming, Cayuga Co. N.Y. 26 heirs-at-law were listed for notification, mostly nieces and nephews.

(This does not indicate whether any of the heirs were listed in the will. There was a law that required listing all heirs of a deceased person. The listed heirs were ALL Lyman's Baker relatives).

The heirs were: Julia B. Knapp, Camden, Hillsdale Co. MI, Lyman S. Baker Camden, William O. Baker, Camden, William J. Baker 4323 Cottage Grove Ave, Chicago, IL, Ella M. Jillson, Harford, Van Buren Co. MI, P.O. Box 1162, Ross M. Baker, Benton Harbor, Berrien Co. MI, Minnie K. Pittenger, Hudson, Lenawee Co. 1908. Auburn Democrat Argus, Auburn N.Y. George A. Baker filed a petition for probate of will of Lyman S. Baker of Fleming with 23 heirs mostly nephews and nieces. Petitioner was informed by Lyman S. Baker, s/o the deceased

Orvis (sic) Baker, brother of the deceased Lyman S. Baker of Fleming, that Joseph M. Baker of Somerset Centre MI, James A. Baker of Camden MI, and Henry O. Baker of East Toledo, OH, were children of said Orvis R. Baker, but are illegitimate, being born of a woman not the wife of Orvis, deceased. The petitioner wanted those relatives cited anyway, not knowing if they were illegitimate. Citation issued March 28 1908. (The digitized newspaper misspelled the name and should be Orris).

1908 Auburn Democrat Argus, Auburn, N.Y. The will of the late Lyman S. Baker was admitted to probate and letters testamentary were issued to George A. Baker. $100 was left to the trustees of the Fleming Cemetery, in trust for the family lot. Life use of the entire estate was left to a sister Emma Jane Brownell. On her death the estate is to be divided equally among nephews James Baker and James Brownell, and nieces Ellen Temple and Ida Brownell, and a FRIEND Sarah Merritt.

1908, March 28, The Auburn Citizen.

THE PROBATE COURT

WILL OF THE LATE LYMAN S. BAKER OF FLEMING IS ADMITTED

Admitted to probate and Letters Adm. to George A. Baker. By the terms of the will $100 was left to the trustees of the Fleming cemetery in trust for care of the family lot. A life use of the entire estate is left to a sister, Emma Jane Brownell. On her death the estate is divided equally among James Baker and James Brownell, nephews; Ellen Temple and Ida Brownell, nieces, and Sarah Merritt, a FRIEND.

(James Baker and Ellen Temple were ch/of Lyman's brother James Adra Baker).

1908, April 19, Inventory of estate of the late Lyman S. Baker, of Fleming, N.Y. $1,791.62. Of this amount, $2000 is in Bond and Mortgage, and $665.02 is on deposit at Auburn Savings Bank. (Must reckon article, amounts don't coincide).

March 17 1910, The Auburn Citizen.

The same long list of Baker family heirs were ordered to attend Surrogate court in Auburn N.Y. March 21 1910 for settlement of the estate of Lyman S. Baker.

1910/11 Auburn Weekly Bulletin, Auburn, N.Y.

THE BAKER ESTATE

PERSONAL PROPERTY VALUED AT $3,034, THE REALTY AT $2,700.

The report of County treasurer Loughborough as transfer tax appraiser in the matter of the estate of the late LYMAN S. BAKER of Fleming was filed in Surrogate's Court and an order confirming it. The total $5,734.77. Out of this has been dispersed $1079.83, leaving a balance of $4,654.94 to be distributed and taxed as follows: Fleming Cemetery Ass'n, $100, tax $5: Emma Jane Brownell, a sister, $1,369.89: no tax; James F. Baker, Ella J. Temple, James A. Brownell, Ida J. Brownell, Sarah Merritt, nephews and nieces, $637.01 each, tax $31.85 each. The personal property is made up in part of the Paris T. O'Hara mortgage of $2,000 and deposit in the Auburn Savings Bank of $665.02. The realty consists of store at Fleming Hill valued at $700, and house, a barn and 12 acres of land in Fleming valued at $2,000.

Note that Emma, a widow, was the only living sibling of Lyman, and James and Ida were her only children. James F. Baker was Lyman's great nephew, one of seven children of Lyman's brother James Adra Baker who also married a Brownell, Nancy, both deceased. Nancy was a sister of Emma's husband Amos C. Brownell.

Sarah Merritt had a special relationship to Lyman, here listed as a niece, but sometimes listed as daughter of Lyman and his wife Anna Morey, sometimes listed as a friend of Lyman in the estate proceedings. Note that Lyman died at the Merritt home in Auburn. If Sarah had been his biological daughter, The Brownells would not have received the bulk of the estate.

I do not have any info. as to the estate of Lyman's wife Anna. Did she bequest to Sarah Merritt?

EMMA JANE BAKER AND AMOS C. BROWNELL

25. Emma Jane Baker was born October 1836 NY, prob. in Oswego Co., died 24 Oct. 1918 at Fulton, Oswego Co. N.Y. Emma was daughter of Joseph, Baker (Matthew1) and Abigail Raymond.

Emma Jane married ca 1859 Amos C. Brownell, b. June 1836 N.Y., died 17 January 1903 at his home near Monger's Corners, Mexico, Oswego Co. N.Y. Amos was the son of Benjamin C. (1801-1864) and Sally Ann (Fish) Brownell, (ca 1803/4-1877), both born VT, resided 1860, at Palermo NY. Amos' sister Nancy Brownell married James Adra Baker, brother of Emma Jane Baker.

Death notice The Fulton Patriot, Fulton N.Y., Oct. 30 1918. BROWNELL - Died at the home of her grand-daughter Mrs. Charles Porter, 359 Broadwell Ave., Oct. 24th, Mrs. Amos Brownell, aged 82 yrs. She is survived by a son James Brownell of Pulaski, and a daughter Ida Brownell of this city. Funeral services were held Sun. afternoon from her late home; interment at Vermilion.

Mrs. Brownell has always resided at Vermilion until a few months ago, when she came to live with her granddaughter in this city. Mr. Porter died about two weeks ago.

Death Notice Mexico Independent, Wed. January 21 1903. Amos Brownell, a familiar figure in this community died last Sat. (January 17), at his home near Monger's Corners. Burial Fri. Rev. C.F. Fuller, officiating.

Emma's brother Lyman S. Baker of Fleming, Cayuga Co. N.Y. made his will, 20 Nov. 1907, died soon afterward. He left Emma Jane Brownell, a bequest for life use of his entire estate. When Emma should die, her bequest to go equally to Lyman's nephews James Baker, James Brownell, niece Ida Brownell, and to Lyman's friend Sarah Merritt. LAURA A. OR LOUISA CROSSMAN AND HENRY SHELDON

25. Laura or Louisa Crossman was d/o Sarah Baker (Matthewl) and Asa Crossman.

She was b. 11 May 1828 and died 1 July 1877, buried in Leland Cem. Cato, N.Y. where her parents were buried. (Where did I get these dates?

She married 27 July 1845 to Henry Sheldon. (WFT says Harry, but no Harry in Cato)

In the 1872 Will of Asa Crossman, he made a special $3000 bequest for his daughter Louisa Sheldon for her comfort, maintenance and support. This was over and above the bequests for his other children. The inference was that she didn't have a husband. The names of the husbands of Asa's other married daughters were listed in the will. In 1876 when the Will was probated, ?Louisa resided in Cato N.Y. (Abstract of will typed by Gary Welch, online. Was she Louisa or Laura?).

Sally Baker and wife Asa Crosman were buried in Leland Cem. Leland Cem. Cato, Cayuga Co. N.Y. online list. One Laura A.C. Sheldon 1823-1877 was buried with Henry Sheldon 1823-1901 Listed between them was Alice Ann b. 1849, no death date. Next is listed Chas. H. d. Sep 13 1863, 1 mo, 13 days. next George A. d. Oct 13, 1863, 6 yrs, 28 days. (Crosman?)

If Laura in this cemetery list was the d/o Sally Baker and Asa Crosman, it would seem that the Sheldons either separated or were divorced. Also, that all her ch. died by 1863.

History of Macon Co. Illinois, publ. 1880, lista a bio. of Rufus as follows:.

His grandfather had come from Massachusetts and made his home in Central N.Y. when it was almost an entire wilderness. (His two grandfathers were Matthew Baker and Lemuel Crossman. I make assumption that the bio. refers to grf. Lemuel Crossman, J.B.H.).

His father Asa Crossman was born in Elbridge Onon. Co. N.Y. who married Sarah Baker who was a native of Vermont. His maternal grandmother (Lydia Millard who m. Matthew Baker J.B.H.) lived to age 99 yrs. She was a woman of great intelligence and forceful character. She lived in N. Eng. during the Rev. War and told Rufus many incidents of olden times.

Rufus had an excellent education. He attended an academy at Jordan N.Y. He taught school one winter in Conquest, Cayuga Co. N.Y., He moved to Michigan in fall of 1859 and taught school at Ann Arbor. He purchased 160 acres of unimproved land with heavy timber near Lansing Mich. He arrived at Decatur Mich. in Dec. 1860 and taught there that winter. In the spring he taught in Decatur. He was empl. on a farm at Hickory Point.

Rufus married in 1863 and settled on his farm that year at Hickory point that yr. He later purchased 40 acres north of Forsythe where he lived for several yrs. In 1878 he moved back to Hickory Point. The farm consisting of 120 acres was one of the oldest settled in that township. He was a Republican in political inclination. (Hist. Macon Co. IL, publ. 1880).

38. Rufus Crossman was also Sarah Baker. (Married) and was raised. Crossman, He was b. 3 June 1834 Cayuga Co. N.Y. where he was raised.

Rufus Crossman was born on 3 June 1834 in Cayuga Co. N.Y. to Miss Mary Ellen Whitch and Rufus Crossman.

1900 census Index,, One Marcus Parker was in Marcellus, Onon. Co.

Note that one Lucy A., wf of Marcus Parker, was buried in Pine Ridge Cem., Tn of Onondaga, 29 June 1915, age 85. Did Marcus, husb. of Lydia, remarry?

It would seem that Marcus Parker might have been related to Isaac G. Parker, husband of Lydias's first cousin Mary Carolyn (Baker3) Parker, (James2 Baker, Matthew1). A letter written in 1928 by Lorenda (Parker) Knox, daughter of Mary Carolyn: "my cousin Lydia Cole married Marcus Parker who had a machine for sawing logs into stove lengths. He cut a year's supply of wood for my father. He used horses for power since there no electricity at that time." Was Marcus also a nephew or cousin to Mary Parker, first wife of Lydia's Uncle James M. Baker?

1850 census, Camillus, House 61, <sup>where?</sup> family 62. Marcus Parker, 21 yrs, b. N.Y., wife Lydia, 21 yrs, Catherine 39 yrs, Martha 21 yrs, George Crysler 23 yrs, b. N.Y. They resided next to Maria Baker Larkin, (d/o James M. Baker). Maria Baker Larkin was first cousin to Lydia Cole. Catherine Parker was mother of Marcus and Martha was the twin sister of Marcus. George Crysler was perhaps a cousin of Marcus.

SOPHIA E. COLE AND GEORGE NELSON LEE

36. Sophia E. Cole was the daughter of Tryphenia Baker (Matthewl) and James Cole. She was born Onondaga Co. NY. She was born 16 March 1841 calc from death certif. She died in Delta Twnship, 26 March 1875, 34 yrs, no months, 10 days, consumption of lungs (TB) according to a certified typed death certificate issued by State of Mich., Eaton Co. June 1, 1876, copy #2161 made June 10, 1993 by Linda M. Twitchell, clerk. Sophia died 32 yrs, 5 mo, 17 days acc. to desc. Jean Kneeshaw who states this was from grave marker. This would make her birth about 9 Oct 1842. She and her husband were buried in Hillside cemetery Delta, Mich.

wrote Her typed death certif. states that Sophia was born in NYS, that her parents were James and Chriphend Cole. The transcriber from the original certif. may have misread her mother's first name before typing same. The death certif. has 2 lines for birthplaces of Sophia's parents. The typist writes Onondaga Co. only on her father's line and New York only on her mother's line. By inference it appears that the typist means Onon. Co. NY for birth of both parents. The certif. states that Sophia was a Mill Owners wife. Her mother Tryphenia Baker was likely born in Stamford, Vt.

Sophia was a member of Protestant Advent Church acc. to notes of Goldie McRoberts Pence.

Sophia married George Nelson Lee 1860/61. I would expect they married in Onondaga Co. N.Y. because her parents resided there in the Town of Van Buren on 1860 census. George N. Lee was born 19 Nov 1832 (calc), Cayuga Co. N.Y., died 23 March 1902, Delta Tnsp. Eaton Co. Mich., 69 yrs, 4 mo, 4 days, paralysis, occupation farmer, born N.Y.S. His parents were listed on typed death record as Truman Lee and Marie Libolb, Death Record, #515, April 5, 1902, Eaton Co. Mich. (Death rec. subm. by Jean Kneeshaw). George was s/o Truman Lee and Maria Liebolt/Lybolt.

George N. Lee married 2nd Olive <sup>born 1853 Canada NY</sup> . See 1880 census.

Dear Jacqueline:

I am at last settled, more or less, in the new apartment, and have the children back on my word processing, and am catching up with my correspondence.

Enclosed are the pages from my Crego book which are relevant to your work on the Cols and Bakens. I will send you more as I have some unpublished information on the more recent generations.

I hope that this letter finds you well.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Ms. Humphrey:

On my last visit to Central New York I came across your query of a year ago concerning the Cole family. I have some information for you.

McC.
Sarah J. Cole m Daniel Tilley. He was b 1838 (T of Van Buren, NY) and d 3 Apr 1921 (Rochester, NY). On 10 Dec 1863 they were m at the Presbyterian Ch. in Baldwinsville, NY. (I read that directly in the records.) She b 7 Nov 1844 and d 28 Mar 1930. They are buried in the Riverview Cem. in Baldwinsville. Daniel served once as the supervisor of the T of Van Buren. They had two children: Marion E. Tilley and Florence Louise Tilley. - mother of ?

I am related to the Tilley family by was of Daniel's mother Polly Crego and am working on a revision of my book on The Crego Family of Baldwinsville, New York.

Let me know if you would like a copy of the first edition and I can arrange to have one sent.

Daniel's brother Charles Stephen Tilley also married a Cole - France C. Cole. Is this one of yours? prob. sister of Sarah also m Selmsch

I look forward to hearing from you and hope to be of further help.

Sincerely yours,

THE CREGO FAMILY IN BALDWINSVILLE NEW YORK

1. The first member of the Crego family to live in the Baldwinsville, New York area was the Stephen Crego who moved to the Town of Camillus (which included the present Town of Van Buren) in 1805. This is to say that he arrived two years before Dr. Jonas Baldwin would move to the area on the banks of the Seneca River where the village of Baldwinsville now stands. Our Stephen Crego was born ca. 1785 in Columbia Co., New York, the son of Stephen and Anna Crego. In the 1790 census the elder Stephen Crego is listed in the Town of Canaan, Columbia County, New York. In the 1800 Federal Census he is listed in the Town of Greenbush in Rensselaer County, New York. The elder Stephen died in 1803, after which his four sons and one daughter moved from easter New York: daughter Anna, the wife of John Stranahan, moved to Michigan; Durlin moved to the Town of Arcadia in Wayne Co., NY and Cyrus moved to the Town of Onondaga, Onondaga Co., NY. We do not know the whereabouts of son Daniel.

Our Stephen is first listed in land records in the year 1816 when he and his wife Betsey (or Elizabeth) bought land in Lot 23 in the Town of Camillus. We do not know when they were married or Betsey's maiden name. She was born ca. 1785 in Massachusetts. They had as many as six children:

2. Polly Crego
3. ----- Crego (daughter)
4. Stephen VR. Crego
5. William Crego
6. John Herrick Crego
7. Ira Lyon[s] Crego

Stephen died on 10 April 1857 (according to the 5 June 1857 issue of the Onondaga Gazette). Betsey became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Baldwinsville in July 1843. (It may have been that Betsey was a member of the Methodist class on Sorrel Hill before that time. It was in 1843 when Baldwinsville became a "station" of the Methodist Episcopal Church and when the Sorrel Hill class was convinced to join with the Methodists in Baldwinsville.) She is listed in the church records until 1854 and in the 1855 state census, after which we have no data for her. Stephen and Betsey are probably buried in the Hardscrabble Cemetery in the Town of Van Buren as this cemetery was located within a mile of the residence of their son John with whom they lived in their last years.

2. Polly Crego, born 1 July 1818 (Van Buren), married Charles Stephen Tilley in 1834. He was born 11 December 1812 (Newburgh, Orange Co., NY). He was the son of Gresham and Sarah Tilley. She died 6 February 1889 (Van Buren) and he died 25 December 1888 (Van Buren). Mr. Tilley's obituary referred to him as a "free thinker." Their funerals were performed by the Rev. E.A. Rogers the Baptist pastor in Jordan. Mr. Tilley was called "Jim." Both of the Tilleys were buried in the Kingdom cemetery in the Town of Van Buren. They had six children:

8. Sanford Decatur Tilley
9. Daniel Tilley
10. Charles Stephen Tilley
11. Alvira H. Tilley

12. Edwin H. Tilley
13. Betsey A. Tilley

3. Stephen and Betsey had a daughter who was listed in the 1820 and 1830 census records. She would have been born between 1815 and 1820. Nothing else is known of her.

4. Stephen VR. Crego, born 1 January 1821 (Van Buren), married Juliette -----, She was born 7 August 1825. Stephen died 8 November 1903 (Town of Camillus) and Juliette died 25 July 1879. They belonged to the Methodist Episcopal church in Marcellus from 28 November 1869 until 14 October 1871. In 1877 Stephen was involved in a law suit vs. Charles Carpenter of Camillus after Stephen had been injured in a dispute over some amount of wheat. Stephen and Juliette are buried in the Myrtle Hill Cemetery in Syracuse. They had two children:

14. Helen Mar Crego
15. John Henry Crego

5. William Crego: there is no census data to confirm his existence. He was named as a child of Stephen and Betsey by J. Bowman Crego who said that William was never married and that his occupation was barrel making.

6. John Herrick Crego, born 25 January 1823 (Van Buren), married 31 March 1847 to Sarah K. Craver. She was born in 1828 (Rensselaer Co. NY). He died 1 October 1898 (Syracuse). She died 19 July 1922

REV. LOURENUS MATTHEW BAKER AND WIVES WILLISON AND BOWERS

! 6. Reverend Lorenus Matthew born 30 Nov., 1811, Adams, Berkshire, Ma.

He was s/o Matthew , (Matthew 1) and Samantha. His date and place of birth was listed in Stamford, Vt. town records, found on LDS microfilm, 506446 or 865407. He died 31 Oct (court House) 1 Nov 1881 (bible), 69 yr., 11 mo., 1 day, and was buried Butternut Cem. Clark Co., IL.

! He m. 1. 22 Feb. 1832, Licking Co. Ohio, Clarissa Willison, d/o Elias (Elisha) and Phebe VAIL WILLISON. Clarissa was born 24 Jan 1818, died 8 Nov 1867, 49 yrs., 9mo., 16 days. She was buried with Lorenus. She was probably mother of all the children.

! He m. 2. 11 Nov 1868, Clark Co. Ill., Martha BOWERS, Alive 1883, Mt. Giliad, Morrow Co. Ohio. Unknown if BOWERS was her maiden name or by previous marr.

! In 1832, Clarissa BAKER and Elias WILLISON were members of the Regular Baptist Church of Liberty Township, in the village of Concord in Licking Co. Ohio. Lorenus was not listed as a member of that church. Perhaps he belonged to a church in Mc Kean Twp. where I believe his father resided. Marriages performed by Lorenus were found in several documents in the Crawford Co. Ill. Court House. Family lore describe him as a hard shelled Baptist Minister. He was known as "Hallelujah BAKER". He was also a farmer and carpenter. The family were in Ohio untill June 1837 when a child was born there. Later they resided in Indiana, probably near Terre Haute where Clarissa's parents settld. In 1840, the family was found in Edgar Co. Ill. census. In 1850 they were in Clark Co. Ill. and in 1860 Crawford Co. Hutsonville Township.

! In 1870 and 1880 Lorenus was listed with his second wife in Oblong Township, Crawford Co. Ill.

! Lorenus did not leave a will. His Probate record listed widow Martha residing Mt. Morrow Co. Ohio.

! For larger account of descenancy of Lorenus line, see book listed below by Ester Watts.

! 6. Reverend Lorenus Matthew born 30 Nov., 1811, Adams, Berkshire, Ma.
He was s/o Matthew , (Matthew 1) and Samantha. His date and place of birth was listed in Stamford, Vt. town records, found on LDS microfilm, 506446 or 865407. He died 31 Oct (court House) 1 Nov 1881 (bible), 69 yr., 11 mo., 1 day, and was buried Butternut Cem. Clarl Co., IL.

! He m. 1. 22 Feb. 1832, Licking Co. Ohio, Clarissa Willison, d/o Elias (Elisha) and Phebe VAIL WILLISON. Clarissa was born 24 Jan 1818, died 8 Nov 1867, 49 yrs., 9mo., 16 days. She was buried with Lorenus. She was probably mother of all the children.

! He m. 2. 11 Nov 1868, Clark Co. Ill., Martha BOWERS, Alive 1883, Mt. Giliad, Morrow Co. ohio. Unknown if BOWERS was her maiden name or by previous marr.

! In 1832, Clarissa BAKER and Elias WILLISON were members of the Regular

Baptist Church of Liberty Township, in the village of Concord in Licking Co. Ohio. Lorenus was not listed as a member of that church. Perhaps he belonged to a church in Mc Kean Twp. where I believe his father resided. Marriages performed by Lorenus were found in several documents in the Crawford Co. Ill. Court House. Family lore describe him as a hard shelled Baptist Minister. He was known as "Hallelujah BAKER". He was also a farmer and carpenter. The family were in Ohio untill June 1837 when a child was born there. Later they resided in Indiana, probably near Terre Haute where Clarissa's parents settld. In 1840, the family was found in Edgar Co. Ill. census. In 1850 they were in Clark Co. Ill. and in 1860 Crawford Co. Hutsonville Township.

! In 1870 and 1880 Lorenus was listed with his second wife in Oblong Township, Crawford Co. Ill.

! Lorenus did not leave a will. His Probate record listed widow Martha residing Mt. Morrow Co. Ohio.

! For larger account of descenancy of Lorenus line, see book listed below by Ester Watts.
